brothel to catch Nazis a teen coming into his sexual awakening a group of Manhattanites dealing with a friend lost to AIDS and a bookstore owner accused of murdering his conservative Republican lover what is most impressive in Bram's fiction is the psychological and emotional accuracy with which he portrays his characters His novels are about ordinary gay people trying to be decent and good in a morally compromised world He focuses on the often conflicting claims of friendship family love and desire the ways good intentions can become confused and thwarted and the ways we learn to be vulnerable and human Philip Gambone Hold Tight In a spy thriller that breaks new ground set during World War II Navy sailor Hank Fayette visits a gay brothel in New York City only to be arrested during a raid Kirkus Reviews Facing a dishonorable discharge or worse he is given another option return to the brothel near Manhattan's West Side piers and work undercover as a prostitute to trap Nazi spies A World War II story Hollywood never filmed entertaining sexy and touching Stephen McCauley Surprising Myself In Bram's superb debut novel seventeen year old Joel is spending the summer at a Boy Scouts camp in the United States after four years of living with relatives in Switzerland Booklist There he meets nineteen year old Corey a fellow counselor who's the only person Joel wants to be with Soon Joel's distant CIA father shows up and whisks him away to live on a farm in Virginia But everything changes when Corey returns to his life bringing with him the discovery and excitement of reciprocal love Captivating Funny moving and totally absorbing Newsday In Memory of Angel Clare A year after the AIDS related death of filmmaker Clarence Laird known to friends as Angel Clare his young boyfriend Michael is still deep in mourning Clarence's older sophisticated friends male and female gay and straight find themselves the reluctant custodians of Michael a callow kid they never liked much to begin with What follows is a dark intimate comedy about real grief and false grief misunderstanding friendship love and forgiveness Bram's characters are candidly truthfully observed It is the common humanity of these Manhattan sophisticates that triumphs quietly in a surprising dramatic climax Publishers Weekly Gossip Ralph Eckhart a bookstore manager and gay activist in the East Village meets Bill O Connor online and they agree to get together during Ralph's weekend visit to Washington DC The two start a heated long distance sexual relationship But Ralph discovers that Bill is a closeted Republican journalist whose new book trashes liberal women in Washington including Ralph's speechwriter friend Nancy and angrily breaks off the affair When Bill is found murdered Ralph becomes the prime suspect in this complex psychological and political thriller A tantalizingly wonderfully told tale of human misadventure A superior piece of literary entertainment The New York Times Book Review Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition no other reference work on American fiction brings together such an array of authors and texts as this Weaving Words into Worlds Caroline Durand-Rous, Margot Lauwers, 2023-10-10 Weaving Words into Worlds comes as the third spinoff of the international ecopoetics conference organized in Perpignan in 2016 Reflecting upon how the many stories we tell directly influence the world we live in each of the contributions in this international volume directs our attention to the constant ecopoetic weaving of word to the world at work via the many entanglements between mind matter and meaning whether on a local or a global scale It encapsulates how the words stories and concepts we humans articulate as we try to make sense of the world we inhabit give part of its shape to the web of ecological relations that we depend on for survival It seeks to cast light on the disenchanting and reenchancing powers of stories and poesis in general as stories retain the power to make us either become oblivious to and destroy or to feel and honor the many complex ties between the multitudinous nature cultures intertwined within the fabric of a multispecies world always in the making This book offers a total of fourteen articles written by international scholars in ecocriticism and ecopoetics who by their analyses of literature and or films and the political subtext they thus render visible aim at showing how the study of environmentally minded media may renew our attention to the entangled agencies of the human and the more than human realm Thus this work offers to counter a reproach ecocriticism has often been met with namely the over presence of US scholars and the lack of diversity in subjects in the field since the articles presented provide a wide variety of approaches and topics with examples of UK and Native American literature Polynesian myth graphic novels or haiku In doing so the book expands on the fields of ecocriticism and ecopoetics adding to this branch of study and enriching it with high quality academic studies
