and Beyond offers a deep dive into the blues venues and performers in the city from the 1940s through the 1990s. Interviews in this volume bring the reader behind the scenes of the daily and performing lives of working musicians, songwriters, and producers. The interviewers capture their voices, many sadly deceased, and reveal the changes in styles, the connections between performers, and the evolution of New York blues. New York City Blues is an oral history conveyed through the words of the performers themselves and through the photographs of Robert Schaffer, supplemented by the input of Val Wilmer, Paul Harris, and Richard Tapp. The book also features the work of award-winning author and blues scholar John Broven. Along with writing a history of New York blues for the introduction, Broven contributes interviews with Rose Marie McCoy, Doc Pomus, Billy Butler, and Billy Bland. Some of the artists interviewed by Larry Simon include Paul Oscher, John Hammond Jr., Rosco Gordon, Larry Dale, Bob Gaddy, Wild Jimmy Spruill, and Bobby Robinson. Also featured are over 160 photographs, including those by respected photographers Anton Mikofsky, Wilmer, and Harris, that provide a vivid visual history of the music and the times from Harlem to Greenwich Village and neighboring areas. New York City Blues delivers a strong sense of the major personalities and places, such as Harlem's Apollo Theatre, the history, and an in-depth introduction to the rich variety of sounds and styles that made up the often overlooked New York City blues scene.

He discusses his life as a child, as a young man coming to grips with learning disabilities, and as a soldier. A View from the Street: River City Policing also shares what it was like to be a police officer for thirty years. It includes an array of anecdotes, some humorous and some tragic, about the people he encountered while he was doing his job. Knocker provides a broad view of several areas of police interactions with criminals and the courts, as well as offers political commentaries on subjects such as the root causes of racial tension and its effects on policing. A View from the Street: River City Policing offers insight into the life and times of one man who made policing a career.

Salem is a young orphaned boy, and Medea is a solid white angel dragon, as well as the princess of the northern angel dragons. She is a fireless type of dragon with fur instead of scales. Angel dragons didn't possess the ability to breathe fire, and they had very little defense since they didn't have scales but fur instead. The angel dragons did possess the ability to use advanced magic, however, and could easily summon a lightning bolt or turn the enemy to stone. Together, Salem and Medea will set out to defend Delmore and the light from the rise of the evil sphinxes sought on destroying the human race and everything good. They will also have to fight against an evil country called Tarkay, as well as a country sought on spreading its darkness and burying the light.
