The Bus Daniel Meadows,2011-12-31 The Free Photographic Omnibus 1973 2001 In July 1973 21 year old Daniel Meadows fresh out of art school bought a double decker bus for 360 and set off round England in search of ordinary people to photograph In the course of a 14 month journey he offered free portrait sessions in 22 different towns developing the black and white prints in a darkroom he had contrived inside the bus in which he also lived He photographed a total of 958 people alone or in groups the majority of whom remained anonymous and collected their free portraits the following day A quarter of a century later Meadows came across the bus photographs in his archive and was struck by how fresh they were After they were exhibited and appeared in a magazine he began to wonder what had happened to the people in the pictures With the help of the local press in Barrow in Furness Hartlepool and Southampton he went in search of them Many could not be found others had died but a number of people turned up to be re photographed The juxtaposition of their past and present selves in this astonishing adventure in documentary makes for a powerful pictorial history of the changing face of England the vagaries of fashion and the ravages of time Meadows interviews the sitters ordinary people from varied walks of life who talk candidly about their lives their friends their loves their families and what they feel the future holds providing a moving commentary to Meadows s own evocative journey through time

The Rise of the Stylist Philip Clarke,2024-07-25 The Rise of the Stylist examines the social factors that contributed to the stylist becoming a key role in fashion image making The 1980s stylist is presented as a cultural intermediary and auteur as commercial compass and avant garde innovator Focusing on London from 1980 to 1990 Philip Clarke draws on oral history interviews with the young creatives who were involved in the specific subcultural scenes educational environments and new modes of publishing that informed a unique moment in British cultural life By documenting the history of the stylist in fashion and dress as well as their contribution to fields such as food photography and car manufacture this study looks beyond the style press and bridges the gap between production and promotion The Rise of the Stylist defines the specific nature of the stylist s role in relation to that of other creative occupations and locates discussion of styling within the context of postmodern society where political shifts technological developments and changing attitudes in all fields of cultural production are reflected in the manufacture and dissemination of fashion
