In this landmark volume Jim Crumley brings together a sweeping five year quest to document the seasons and how he has seen them change. It explores the damage to the Earth's natural rhythms but also relishes the enduring beauty and wonder of nature itself. Drawing on his studies of each season over more than thirty years and reworking the volumes in his best selling Seasons quartet Crumley has created this unique account of our natural world today. After a lifetime of immersing himself in the landscapes of Scotland and a handful of other northern countries Crumley has amassed a body of knowledge and insight and a bank of memorable imagery. Combining lyrical prose and passionate eloquence he lays bare the impact of an increasingly chaotic climate and urges us all towards a more daring conservation vision that embraces everything from the mountain treeline to a second spring for the wolf. Aurora Floyd, by the author of 'Lady Audley's secret'.
