Medieval Rhetoric and Poetic (to 1400), Interpreted from Representative Works, by Charles Sears Baldwin, ...
Charles Sears Baldwin, 1928 Medieval Rhetoric and Poetic (to 1400) Charles Sears Baldwin, 1928 Essays on Medieval Rhetoric Martin Camargo, 2018-02-06 Originally published between 1981 and 2003 the thirteen essays collected here cover topics in medieval rhetoric from its origins in late antiquity through the end of the Middle Ages Most of the essays are concerned with the teaching of prose composition especially the art of letter writing known as the ars dictaminis and many of them focus on specific textbooks that were used for such instruction in particular those composed in England from the twelfth through the fifteenth centuries Individual essays are devoted to works by major figures such as Saint Augustine Peter of Blois and Geoffrey of Vinsauf to teaching programmes at important academic centres such as Oxford and Bologna and to such topics as the relationship between the art of letter writing and the art of poetry the oral dimension of medieval epistolography the manuscript traditions of influential textbooks medieval genre terminology and the position of medieval rhetoric within a continuous disciplinary history rooted in classical rhetoric Henryson and the Medieval Arts of Rhetoric Robert L. Kindrick, 2018-10-24 First published in 1993 Volume 8 in the 9 volume set of Studies in Medieval Literature a series of interpretative and analytic studies of the Western European literatures of the Middle Ages This volume extends the canon of works to be read and studied by providing a new framework for understanding that will inspire students and scholars to look anew at Robert Henryson's poetry The reader will find it rewarding to read the mainline exposition but will also find a second reward in the knowledge accumulated to support that exposition Humanist and Scholastic Poetics, 1250-1500 Concetta Carestia Greenfield, 1981 After two introductory chapters on the humanist and scholastic Aristotelian traditions the author devotes thirteen chapters to the positions taken by various influential participants in the debates on Humanism versus Scholasticism Included in this close analysis are Petrarch Boccaccio Salutati Politian and others

Medieval Rhetoric and Poetic To 1400 Charles Sears Baldwin, 2012-07 Medieval Rhetoric James Jerome Murphy, University of Toronto. Centre for Medieval Studies, 1989-01-01 The history of medieval rhetoric can be understood only as part of medieval efforts to understand the manifold uses of language Rhetoric and Pedagogy Winifred Bryan Horner, Michael Leff, Robert Gaines, Jean Dietz Moss, Beth S. Bennett, 2013-12-02 To provide a view of the history of western rhetoric this volume presents original articles by a number of world renowned scholars representing different countries and varying viewpoints In discussing the status of the historical perspectives on rhetoric these international scholars also present a tribute to James J Murphy whose scholarship and service did much to shape the field The book will introduce new insights into western European rhetoric and its connections with English rhetoric Ars Poetriae William Michael Purcell, 1996 Purcell suggests that the medieval genre holds contemporary significance as a model for rhetorical concerns brought to light by the critiques of post modernism and feminism Purcell examines the six Latin artes poetriae or works intended to instruct students in the composition of prose and poetry He contends that because of their position in the shift from oral to written communication the treatises reveal much about the nature of rhetoric and grammar

Studies in Medieval Arabic and Hebrew Poetics Somekh, 2023-07-10 Medieval Rhetoric and Poetic to 1400 Charles Sears Baldwin, 1928 Medieval Rhetoric James Jerome Murphy, 1971 The Mirror of Language (Revised Edition) Marcia L. Colish, 1983-01-01 Early Christianity faced the problem of the human word versus Christ the Word Could language accurately describe spiritual reality The Mirror of Language brilliantly traces the development of one prominent theory of signs from Augustine through Anselm of Canterbury Thomas Aquinas and Dante Their shared epistemology validated human language as an authentic but limited index of preexistent reality both material and spiritual This sign theory could thereby account for the ways men receive know and transmit religious knowledge always mediated through faith Marcia L Colish demonstrates how the three theologians used different branches of the medieval trivium to express a common sign theory Augustine stressed rhetoric Anselm shifted to grammar including grammatical proofs of God's existence and Thomas Aquinas stressed dialectic Dante the one poet included in this study used the Augustinian sign theory to develop a Christian poetics that culminates in the Divine Comedy The author points out not only the commonality but also the sharp contrasts between these writers and shows the relation between their sign theories and the intellectual ferment of the times When first published in 1968 The Mirror of Language was recognized as a pathfinding study This completely revised edition incorporates the scholarship of the intervening years and reflects the refinements of the author's thought Greater prominence is given to the role of Stoicism and sharper attention is paid to some of the thinkers and movements surrounding the major thinkers treated Concerns of semiotics philosophy and literary criticism are elucidated further The original thesis still controversial is now even wider ranging and more salient to current intellectual debate

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature George Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974 Medieval Poetics and Social Practice Seeta Chaganti, 2012 This collection responds to the critical legacy of Penn R Szittya Its contributors investigate how medieval poetic language reflects and shapes social political and religious worlds In addition to new readings of canonical poetic texts it includes readings of texts that have previously not held a central place in critical attention Rhetoric in the Middle Ages James Jerome Murphy,1981-01-01 Follows the threads of ancient rhetorical theory into the Middle Ages and examines the distinctly Medieval rhetorical genres of perceptive grammar letter writing and preaching These various forms are compared with one another and placed in the context of Medieval society Covering the period 426 A D to 14 The Latin Passion Play Sandro Sticca,1970-01-01 In this first comprehensive study of the Latin Passion play Professor Sticca examines the medieval liturgical ceremonies commemorating the events in Christ s Passion and traces their gradual change in character from the contemplative to the dramatic The author shows that while Christ s Passion became increasingly popular as one of the sacred mysteries beginning in the tenth century new forces that allowed a more eloquent and humane visualization and description of Christ s anguish first appeared in the eleventh and twelfth centuries Professor Sticca analyzes the earliest extant Latin Passion play the twelfth century Montecassino codex and compares it with other Latin and vernacular Passion plays He refutes the traditional view that the Planctus Mariae is the germinal point of the Latin Passion play and then offers a new theory of its inception As a literary form the Latin Passion play appears to Professor Sticca as a creation of the Montecassino monastic circle which was inspired by the liturgical services of Good Friday and the Gospel accounts Particularly influential also were three themes that developed in the eleventh century in liturgy a concentration on Christocentric piety in art a more humanistic treatment of Christ and in literature a consideration of the scenes of the Passion as dramatic and human episodes In the course of this investigation Professor Sticca also reappraises traditional views of the origin of the medieval liturgical drama indicating that it should not be traced exclusively to the tropes from the schools of St Gall and St Martial of Limoges but rather to a number of sources Imaging the Other Marie A. Conn,Thérèse McGuire,2009-12-11 Imaging the Other Essays on Diversity emerged from Nancy Porter s essay in Conn and McGuire s second collection of essays Not Etched in Stone Essays on Ritual Memory Soul and Society Porter explored the creation of the other as the basis for conflict among humans In the present collection each author considered the general theme in the context of her or his own background interests and research At a time when much of the world is in turmoil these essays speak of the other how we create categories the consequences of such categories and ways of re imaging those who for whatever reason are different from us Each essay in this collection stands on its own and grows out of the author s unique discipline and experience however these essays intersect with each other in many intriguing ways Biblical Poetics Before Humanism and Reformation Christopher Ocker,2002-04-04 A comparative study of the interpretation of the Bible in the Middle Ages
