Terence Hines

Parapsychology And The Nature Of Life A Scientific Appraisal:

The Psychology and Science of Pseudoscience Terence Hines, 2025-03-12 This book provides a comprehensive review of numerous areas of pseudoscience and related pathological science. It not only describes the factual bases for rejecting pseudoscientific claims but also emphasizes the psychological processes that lead to the acceptance of such claims. This book is timely given the increase in misinformation over the past decade. Using three principles of cognitive psychology, this book helps explain why people are hard-wired to accept and continue to believe in pseudoscientific claims. It provides up-to-date discussions of numerous paranormal and pseudoscientific topics including the usual suspects: UFOs and alien abductions, astrology, cryptozoology, and more. But also belief in conspiracy theories, laboratory parapsychology, bogus forensic science techniques, the pseudopsychologies of Freud, medical fraud, and the unethical practices of Big Pharma. Older research that was foundational in the critical examination of several topics is woven throughout to situate them in a historical context.

Pseudoscience and the Paranormal Terence Hines, 2010-09-30 Television, the movies, and computer games fill the minds of their viewers with a daily staple of fantasy: from tales of UFO landings, haunted houses, and communication with the dead, to claims of miraculous cures by gifted healers or breakthrough treatments by means of fringe medicine. The paranormal is so ubiquitous in one form of entertainment or another that many people easily lose sight of the distinction between the real and the imaginary, or they never learn to make the distinction in the first place. In this thorough review of pseudoscience and the paranormal in contemporary life, psychologist Terence Hines teaches readers how to carefully evaluate all such claims in terms of scientific evidence. Hines devotes separate chapters to psychics, life after death, parapsychology, astrology, UFOs, ancient astronauts, cosmic collisions, and the Bermuda Triangle. Faith, healing, and more. New to this second edition are extended sections on psychoanalysis and pseudopsychologies, especially recovered memory therapy, satanic ritual abuse, facilitated communication, and other questionable psychotherapies. There are also new chapters on alternative medicine, which is now marketed in our drug stores, and on environmental pseudoscience, with special emphasis on the evidence that certain technologies like cell phones or environmental agents like asbestos cause cancer. Finally, Hines discusses the psychological causes for belief in the paranormal despite overwhelming evidence to the contrary. This valuable, highly interesting, and completely accessible analysis critiques the whole range of current paranormal claims.

Manifesting Spirits Jack Hunter, 2020-12-12 Manifesting Spirits is an exploration of contemporary trance and physical mediumship at a private spiritualist home circle called the Bristol Spirit Lodge. Located in a garden on the outskirts of Bristol, the Lodge is a wooden shed specially constructed for the purposes of mediumship development and spirit communication. Through a combination of ethnographic observations in seances, including his own experiences of mediumship development, and interviews with spirits and their mediums, Hunter delves into a sub-urban world of trance states, ectoplasm, spirit lights, and discarnate entities. Issues relating to altered states of consciousness, personhood, performance, and the efficacy of ritual are examined in order to make sense of the processes by which spirits become manifest in social reality A large part of Manifesting Spirits is given over to a broader discussion of anthropology s evolving attitudes toward the paranormal as a component of the life worlds of many people across the globe and argues for the development of a non reductive anthropological approach to the paranormal and mediumship in particular This emerging framework referred to as ontological flooding does not attempt to explain away the existence of spirits in terms of functional cognitive or pathological theories as most mainstream theorists tend to do but rather embraces a processual perspective that emphasises complexity and multiple interconnected processes underlying spirit possession performances and experiences The Mankind

Quarterly Council for Social and Economic Studies (U.S.),1976 Parapsychology Etzel Cardeña,John Palmer,David Marcusson-Clavertz,2015-08-14 Many people have experienced such unusual phenomena as dreams that later seem to correspond with unforeseeable events thinking of a long lost friend just before he or she unexpectedly calls or the ability to feel the presence of deceased loved ones What many do not realize is that these types of experiences have been researched for more than a century by eminent scientists including Nobel laureates Most of these researchers have concluded that some of these phenomena do occur although we are far from explaining them to everyone s satisfaction This book is the first in almost 40 years to provide a comprehensive scientific overview of research in the field of parapsychology explaining what we know and don t know about so called psi phenomena such as telepathy precognition or psychokinesis Contributors evaluate the evidence for these phenomena accounting for factors such as selective memory wish fulfillment and incorrect methods or analyses in some cases offering psychological physical and biological theories Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here The Mankind quarterly ,1976 Parapsychology Review ,1988
