five and nine chapters arranged alphabetically the Handbook weaves together familiar and unfamiliar texts events and authors and invites readers to draw comparisons reimagine connections and disconnections and confront frequently stark contradictions within British Romantic nonfiction prose but also in its relationship to British Romanticism more generally and to the literary practices and cultural contexts of other periods and countries The Handbook builds on previous scholarship in the field considers emerging trends and evolving methodologies and suggests future areas of study Throughout the emphasis is on lucid expression rather than gnomic declaration and on chapters that offer not a dutiful survey but evaluative assessments that keep an eye on the bigger picture yet also dwell meaningfully on specific paradoxes and the most telling examples Taken as a whole the volume demonstrates the energy originality and diversity at the crux of British Romantic nonfiction prose It vigorously challenges the traditional construction of the British Romantic movement as focused too exclusively on the accomplishments of its poets and it reveals the many ways in which scholars of the period are steadily broadening out and opening up delineations of British Romanticism in order to encompass and thoroughly evaluate the achievements of its nonfiction prose writers A Handbook of Romanticism Studies Joel Faflak, Julia M.

Wright, 2016-01-19 The Handbook to Romanticism Studies is an accessible and indispensable resource providing students and scholars with a rich array of historical and up to date critical and theoretical contexts for the study of Romanticism Focuses on British Romanticism while also addressing continental and transatlantic Romanticism and earlier periods Utilizes keywords such as imagination sublime poetics philosophy race historiography and visual culture as points of access to the study of Romanticism and the theoretical concerns and the culture of the period Explores topics central to Romanticism studies and the critical trends of the last thirty years Romanticism and Popular Culture in Britain and Ireland Philip Connell, Nigel Leask, 2009-04-09 An edited collection examining the construction of popular culture in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Neoclassical Satire and the Romantic School 1780-1830 Rolf P. Lessenich, 2012 Romanticism was not only heterogeneous and disunited It also had to face the hostile counter movement of the Enlightenment and Augustan Neoclassicism still going strong at the time of and in the decades following the French Revolution due to support from the ruling Establishment the ancien regime of the Crown and Church of England Neoclassicists regarded Romanticism as a heteretical amalgam of dissenting new schools which threatened the monopoly of the Classical Tradition The acrimonious debates in aesthetics and politics were conducted with the traditional strategies of the classical ars disputandi on both sides Under the duress of the heaviest satirical attacks Romanticism began gradually to see itself as one movement giving rise to the problematic opposition of Classical and Romantic The construction of this rough divide however was indispensable for the clarification of different positions in the hubbub of conflicting voices and has also proved critical in literary and cultural studies which cannot do without such subsumptions The Classical Tradition encompassing Christianity emerges as an ongoing event from Greek and Latin antiquity running through to our time Modernist Parody Sarah

Davison, 2023 This volume argues that parody is central to modernism and shows that as a literary technique parody was a means for modernists to learn their craft sharpen their historical sense and define themselves as post Victorians Reading, Writing, and Romanticism Lucy Newlyn, 2003 Bridging the gulf between materialist and idealist approaches this study informed by an historical awareness of Romantic hermeneutics and its later developments examines how readers are imagined addressed and figured in Romantic poetry
