Parpin Flowers:

Parpin Flowers Akbar Golrang, 1996 The Story of Parpin Flowers Akbar Golrang, 2022 The Literature of the Iranian Diaspora Sanaz Fotouhi, 2015-04-03

The 1979 Revolution in Iran caused the migration of millions of Iranians many of whom wrote and are still writing of their experiences. Formed at the junctions of Iranian culture, English language and Western cultures, this body of work has not only formed a unique literary space offering an insightful reflection of Iranian diasporic experiences and its shifting nature but it has also been making a unique and understudied contribution to World Literatures in English as significant as Indian, African and Asian writing in English. Sanaz Fotouhi here traces the origins of the emerging body of diasporic Iranian literature in English and uses these origins to examine the socio-political position and historical context from which they have emerged. Fotouhi brings together, introduces and analyses for the first time a significant range of diasporic Iranian writers alongside each other and alongside other diasporic literatures in English. While situating this body of work through existing theories such as postcolonialism, Fotouhi sheds new light on the role of Iranian literature and culture in Western literature by showing that these writings distinctively reflect experiences unique to the Iranian diaspora. Analysing the relationship between Iranians and their new surroundings by drawing on theories of migration, narration and identity, Fotouhi examines how the literature borne out of the Iranian diaspora reconstructs, maintains and negotiates their individual and communal identities and reflects today's socio-political realities. This book will be vital for researchers of Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West as well as those interested in the cultural history of the Middle East.

Parpin Flowers (Novel) Akbar Golrang, 2017-02-23

PARPIN FLOWERS is a tale describing the destinies of several Iranian families beginning immediately after the First World War and continuing up to and into the 1980s. The main character Zara grows up together with her brothers and friends in a land marked by political complication, inner and outer turmoil, social divisions and sometimes cruel persecution. At an early age, Zara's mother brings her to a sorcerer who burns the child's foot in an effort to ward off demons. The scars from this event bear the seeds of hate and revenge in the young girl's heart for years to come. At the end of the book, the time after 1980, Zara returns to her parents' home in Abadan where reconciliation takes place between the generations and she gives birth to the son eagerly coveted by her family. A captivating and lively story with an unerring description of the time and social setting.
