Post-Theory, Games, and Discursive Resistance Alexander Kiosev, 1995-01-25 This book consists of a dialogue of genres fiction parables essay analytic programmatic on the topic of Eastern European political culture before and after 1989 These texts introduce us to a reexamination of the aesthetic and political character of Eastern Europe The later texts undertake a major theoretical revision of some of the key concepts in aesthetic and political philosophy associated with post totalitarian Eastern Europe The topic is very important for a correct evaluation of the current ideological and aesthetic makeup of our postmodern age The most stimulating aspect of this collection is its continuous detour through related areas its definition of political aesthetics by way of the historical avant garde its explanation of communism by way of the modernist utopia

Violence and Mediation in Contemporary Culture Ronald Bogue, Marcel Cornis-Pope, 1996-01-01 Ten essays explore violence in relation to notions of difference representation and power and the role of mediation in providing communal space in which cultural differences can interplay without conflict Among the topics are the semiotics of windows and television screens gender relations in contemporary film and the image of Mormons in popular literature The fiction of Kafka Lu Xun Conrad Aiken Toni Morrison and Ronald Sukenick is also examined Annotation c by Book News Inc Portland Or Primary Documents Laura J. Hoptman, Tomáš Pospiszył, 2002 This text presents documents drawn from the artistic archives of Eastern and Central Europe during the second half of the 20th century

Historical Dictionary of Bulgaria Raymond Detrez, 2014-12-18 Bulgaria is a country of extraordinary beauty with high wild mountains and gentle valleys and with picturesque cities and idyllic villages It is bordered by Romania Serbia Macedonia Greece Turkey and the Black Sea After many years of communist rule Bulgaria adopted a democratic constitution and began the process of moving toward political democracy and a market economy while combating inflation unemployment corruption and crime The country joined NATO in 2004 and the EU in 2007 This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Bulgaria covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Bulgaria

Lost Unicorns of the Velvet Revolutions: Heterotopias of the Seminar Miglena Nikolchina, 2013 Concerned with the institution of the seminar a meeting for philosophical face to face oral discussion outside of the confines of Communist academia which evolved into social movements on the street in the Eastern Europe of the 1980s and 1990s
Dropping out of Socialism

Juliane Fürst, Josie McLellan, 2016-12-13 The essays in this collection make up the first study of dropping out of late state socialism in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union From Leningrad intellectuals and Berlin squatters to Bosnian Muslim madrassa students and Romanian yogis groups and individuals across the Eastern Bloc rejected mainstream socialist culture In the process multiple drop out cultures were created with their own spaces music values style slang ideology and networks Under socialism this phenomenon was little known outside the socialist sphere Only very recently has it been possible to reconstruct it through archival work oral histories and memoirs Such a diverse set of subcultures demands a multi disciplinary approach the essays in this volume are written by historians anthropologists and scholars of literature cultural and gender studies The history of these movements not only shows us a side of state socialist life that was barely known in the west It also sheds new light on the demise and eventual collapse of late socialism and raises important questions about the similarities and differences between Eastern and Western subcultures Bulgaria In Transition John D.

Bell,2019-05-20 Since the forced resignation of Todor Zhivkov in November of 1989 Bulgaria s transition to democracy has been marked by good beginnings ending in frustration or disappointment It has avoided the violent ethnic confrontations that have characterized much of the post Communist Balkans but has also seen the development of an influential criminal

Dreamworld and Catastrophe Susan Buck-Morss,2002 This study develops the notion of dreamworld as both a poetic description of a collective mental state and an analytical concept Stressing the similarities between East West the book examines extremes of mass utopia dreamworld and catastrophe Re-Activating Critical Thinking in the Midst of

Necropolitical Realities Marina Gržinić,Jovita Pristovšek,2022-03-09 This volume takes as its starting point the question of whether there is a pluriversal generation a younger group of scholars who do not necessarily collaborate or know each other but who are currently forming a radical structure that is viral in thought production and reflective on the current global recalibration of social relations brought about by the necropolitical and necrocapitalist governmentality emerging worldwide The 23 articles assembled in this volume transcend geographical boundaries conceive of the world as a single entity and develop strategies for radical change They are presented in five subchapters with two lines of demarcation one for entry invention and potentiality and the other for a grim threshold Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond,2006-11-22 This collection of essays analyzes the literary response to the coups insurgencies and invasions that took place around the globe during the Cold War and explores the thematic and stylistic trends in world writing prompted by Cold War hostilities

Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier,2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope,John Neubauer,2010-09-29 Types and stereotypes is the fourth and last volume of a path breaking multinational literary history that incorporates innovative features relevant to the writing of literary history in general Instead of offering a traditional chronological narrative of the period 1800 1989 the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe approaches the region s literatures from five complementary angles focusing on literature s participation in and reaction to key political events literary periods and genres the literatures of cities and sub regions literary institutions and figures of representation The main objective of the project is to challenge the self enclosure of national literatures in traditional literary histories to contextualize them in a regional perspective and to recover individual works writers and minority literatures that national histories have marginalized or ignored Types and stereotypes brings together articles that rethink the figures of National Poets figurations of the Family Women Outlaws and Others as well as figures of Trauma and Mediation As in the previous three volumes the historical and imaginary figures discussed here constantly change and readjust to new political and social conditions An Epilogue complements the basic history focusing on the contradictory transformations of East Central European literary cultures after 1989 This volume will be of interest to the region s literary historians to students and teachers of comparative literature to cultural historians and to the general public interested in exploring the literatures of a rich and resourceful cultural region

Theory in the "Post" Era Christian Moraru, Andrei Terian, Alexandru Matei, 2021-08-26 Shortlisted for the AATSEEL 2022 Award for Best Edited Multi Author Scholarly Volume AATSEEL is The American Association of Teachers of Slavic and East European Languages Theory in the Post Era brings together the work and perspectives of a group of Romanian theorists who discuss the morphings of contemporary theory in what the editors call the post era Since the Cold War s end and especially in the third millennium theorists have been exploring the aftermath and sometimes just the after of whole paradigms the crisis or passing of anthropocentrism the twilight of an entire ontological and cultural condition as well as the corresponding rise of an antagonist model of an anti meta or neo alternative with examples ranging from posthumanism and post postmodernism to post aesthetics postanalog interpretation or digicriticism post presentism post memory post or neo critique and so forth It is no coincidence the contributors to this volume argue that this post moment is also a time when theory is practiced as a world genre If theory has always been a worlded enterprise a quintessentially communal cross cultural and international project this is truer at present than ever Perhaps more than other humanist constituencies today s theorists work and belong in a theory commons that is transnational if still uneven economically politically and otherwise Theory in the Post Era reports the results of Romanian theory experiments that join efforts made in other places to foster a theory for the post age

The Testimonies of Russian and American Postmodern Poetry Albena Lutzkanova-Vassileva, 2016-06-30 This book challenges the belief in the purely linguistic nature of contemporary poetry and offers an interpretation of late twentieth century Russian poetry as a testimony to the unforeseen annulment of communist reality and its overnight displacement by a completely unfathomable post totalitarian order Albena Lutzkanova Vassileva argues that because of the sudden invalidation

of a reality that had been largely seen as unattained and everlasting this shift remained secluded from the mind and totally resistant to cognition thus causing a collectively traumatic psychological experience The book proceeds by inquiring into a school of contemporary American poetry that has been likewise read as cut off from reality Executing a comparative analysis Vassileva advances a new understanding of this poetry as a testimony to the overwhelming and traumatic impact of contemporary media which have assailed the mind with far more signals than it can register digest and furnish with semantic weight

A History of Modern Political Thought in East Central Europe Balázs Trencsenyi, Michal Kopeček, Luka Lisjak Gabrijelčić, Maria Falina, Mónika Baár, 2018-11-10 A History of Modern Political Thought in East Central Europe is a synthetic work authored by an international team of researchers covering twenty national cultures and 250 years It goes beyond the conventional nation centered narratives and presents a novel vision especially sensitive to the cross cultural entanglement of political ideas and discourses Its principal aim is to make these cultures available for the global market of ideas and revisit some of the basic assumptions about the history of modern political thought and modernity as such The present volume is the final part of the project following Volume I Negotiating Modernity in the Long Nineteenth Century and Volume II Part I Negotiating Modernity in the Short Twentieth Century 1918-1968 OUP 2018 Its starting point is the defeat of the vision of socialism with a human face in 1968 and the political discourses produced by the various consolidation or normalization regimes It continues with mapping the exile communities and domestic dissidents critical engagement with the local democratic and anti democratic traditions as well as with global trends Rather than achieving the coveted end of history however the liberal democratic order created in East Central Europe after 1989 became increasingly contested from left and right alike Thus instead of a comfortable conclusion pointing to the European integration of most of these countries the book closes with a reflection on the fragility of democracy in this part of the world and beyond

Postcolonial Marketing Communication Arindam Das, Himadri Roy Chaudhuri, Ozlem Sandikci Turkdogan, 2024-04-20 This volume approaches marcomm marketing communication from the phenomenology of markets in the context of the Global South and its postcolonial experiences It provides a fresh perspective to the current paradigm and offers a fresh discourse on the current theories of marketing communication The book demonstrates how marketing communication an essentially Global North discourse reinforcing hegemony can be critiqued and deconstructed when subjected to postcolonial critical analysis Recognizing as commonplace the Global South has either willingly embraced or been ideologically coerced into adopting a Western marketing communication system This system is evident in its theories and practices mirroring Western themes symbols stories and knowledge frameworks consequently fostering subjectivities that lack critical self reflection and are dependent on Western influences But what remains more interesting is how such an ideological system mediated through a quintessential Global South modernity generates a new habitation of modernity at the margin Essentially a reaction from the Global South perspective the book thoroughly examines the realities around marketing communication discourses The book even engenders alternatives to hegemonic marketing communication discourses and a set of other epistemologies of alternate modernities of equity and justice From African to Turkish from Indian to Canadian first nations Australian Aborigines to Polynesian American postcolonial subjectivities through marcomm across the globe get a voice in the volume The collection in this volume is a decolonizing attempt that thwarts cultural globalization examines colonial discourses cuts across essentialized identities mobilizes resistance interrogates power structures and mechanisms of knowledge production dissemination and legitimization and celebrates the new formed cultural identity of the Third Fourth World The book is essential read for researchers students and practitioners of Marketing who wish to gain a deeper understanding of an oft ignored aspect of marcomm Art of the 1980s in Eastern Europe Magda Cârneci,1999 Experiencing Community Within and Without the Law Carrie J. Legus,2000 Cosmodernism Christian Moraru,2011 A study of the emerging cultural model of cosmodernism
