This little bit of dark twisted history is well worth the time Casper Hileman Nestled deep in the Surrey countryside stands the Brookwood 1939 1945 Memorial Maintained by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission its panels contain the names of nearly 3 500 men and women of the land forces of Britain and the Commonwealth who died in the Second World War and who have no known grave Among the men and women whose names are carved on the memorial are Special Operations Executive agents who died as prisoners or while working with Allied underground movements servicemen killed in the various raids on enemy occupied territory in Europe such as Dieppe and Saint Nazaire men and women who died at sea in hospital ships and troop transports British Army parachutists and even pilots and aircrew who lost their lives in flying accidents or in aerial combat But the panels also hide a dark secret Entwined within the names of heroes and heroines are those of nineteen men whose last resting place is known and whose deaths were less than glorious All were murderers who following a civil or military trial were executed for the heinous offence they had committed The bodies of these individuals with the exception of one lay buried in unconsecrated ground As Paul Johnson reveals the cases of the Brookwood Killers are violent disturbing and often brutal in their content They are not war crimes but crimes committed in a time of war for which the offender has their name recorded and maintained in perpetuity Something that is not always applied in the case of the victim A well written and researched book about servicemen who died in WWII and whose names are inscribed alongside actual heroes of the war but who aren't heroes at all Monica Mac An enlightening book from a completely different perspective of criminals and tragically their victims during the war Brenda GR A great read for the true crime enthusiast Ron Baumer The Cyclopedia of Practical Quotations ,1896 HAN EMPIRE NARAYAN CHANGDER,2024-01-06 IF YOU
