Looking out from the Inside Eleanor Di Blasio, 2017-07-28 This collection of poems some based on real life events is seen through the writers perspective and divided into various chapters that we can all relate to in life In this ever changing world the writer has depicted subjects such as Famous Politics and Romance the complicated and weird worrying world of today but also shows hope and that there could possibly be a light at the end of the tunnel This poetry book is somewhat controversial certainly food for thought is reflective and still contains something to make you smile

Women and Home in Cinema Louise Radinger Field, 2024-03-14 This book explores visions of home in cinema and the ways in which women inhabit the onscreen realm Looking closely at a range of films made between 1936 and 2013 it examines how filmmakers reconfigure studio sets and real locations through the filmmaking process into mutable onscreen domains imbued with depth metaphor and expressivity The book studies the films through the lens of four filmmaking processes in particular d coupage mise en sc ne sound and editing Close analysis reveals how filmmakers use these cinematic building blocks to shape onscreen worlds charged with emotion and animated by the warp and weft of psychic life Images of home abound in the cinema and women frequently find themselves at the core of both structures Drawing on recent spatial and feminist enquiry the book reviews the idea of home as a fixed and stable location and illustrates how the art of cinema is well equipped to explore home as an imaginary as well as a material realm With its emphasis on film practice as a route into critical reflection this book will be of interest to filmmakers film theorists and those who simply want to understand more about how films work Words about Pictures

Perry Nodelman, 2013 A pioneering study of a unique narrative form Words about Pictures examines the special qualities of picture books books intended to educate or tell stories to young children Drawing from a number of aesthetic and literary sources Perry Nodelman explores the ways in which the interplay of the verbal and visual aspects of picture books conveys more narrative information and stimulation than either medium could achieve alone Moving from baby books alphabet books and word books to such well known children s picture books as Nancy Ekholm Burkert s Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs Gerald McDermott s Arrow to the Sun Maurice Sendak s Where the Wild Things Are and Chris Van Allsburg s The Garden of Abdul Gasazi Nodelman reveals how picture book narrative is affected by the exclusively visual information of picture book design and illustration as well as by the relationships between pictures and their complementary texts Catalog of
