The Strange Death of Liberal America Ralph Brauer, 2006-05-30 Ralph Brauer defines Liberal America as a place where government exists to keep the playing field level The success of the American experiment he argues depends on how well we maintain this equity and its four cornerstones economic justice educational equity voting rights and media fairness His book is both a political and intellectual history examining the various threats to these cornerstones and a social and cultural chronicle Touching on music television movies and sports Brauer s thesis is underscored by a historical discussion that begins with the New Deal and works its way to the present ending with Global Warming and the Iraq War Arguing that the patient is in intensive care Brauer identifies three reasons for the decline of the level playing field 1 a Republican counterrevolution dedicated to rolling back the values of the New Deal 2 an inability of both parties to answer questions raised by decades of Civil Rights revolutions and 3 the transformation of suburban America from a place of opportunity created by government programs to a battleground These three ideas form the basis for the book s three sections Part One follows the development of the Counterrevolutionary Coalition beginning with the Southern Strategy and ending with a chapter on America s politicized media Part Two focuses on questions that have been raised by people of color and by women and treats the Democratic Party s failure to answer those questions as illustrated by events like the Nader LaDuke campaign and the 1964 Atlantic City convention Part Three details the impact of suburban America on the cornerstones

The Post-Truth Era Ralph Keyes, 2004-10-03 Dishonesty inspires more euphemisms than copulation or defecation This helps desensitize us to its implications In the post truth era we don t just have truth and lies but a third category of ambiguous statements that are not exactly the truth but fall just short of a lie Enhanced truth it might be called Neo truth Soft truth Faux truth Truth lite Deception has become the modern way of life Where once the boundary line between truth and lies was clear and distinct it is no longer so In the post truth era deceiving others has become a challenge a game a habit High profile dissemblers compete for news coverage from journalists like Jayson Blair and professors like Joseph Ellis to politicians of all stripes executives and creative accountants Research suggests that the average American tells multiple lies on a daily basis often for no good reason Not a finger wagging scolding The Post Truth Era is a combination of Ralph Keyes's investigative journalism and solid science The result is a spirited exploration of why we lie about practically everything and the consequences such casual dishonesty has on society American society has become permeated from top to bottom by deception Its consequences for the nature of public discourse media business literature academia and politics are profound With dry humor passionate fervor and deep understanding Ralph Keyes takes us on a tour of a world where truth and honesty are no longer absolutes but mutable fluid concepts

The Hollywood Book of Extravagance James Robert Parish, 2011-01-06 Savor the inside scoop on over the top superstars I'm not a paranoid deranged millionaire I'm a billionaire Acting is an empty and useless profession Good girls go to heaven Bad girls go everywhere else I'm interested in being provocative and pushing people's buttons Which screen icons gave us the quotes above How do stars get away with self-indulgent unrestrained behaviors or do they In The Hollywood Book of Extravagance longtime industry insider and Hollywood historian James Robert Parish gives you a provocative look behind the scenes at the lavish indulgences and larger than life egos of Tinseltown's rich and famous The featured celebrities range from heartthrobs to industry tycoons and from yesterday's matinee idols to today's hottest celebs The stars are grouped according to their excesses ego neurosis partying power rich living and romancing You'll devour little known details on the excesses and exploits of notables ranging from Mae West to Madonna Greta Garbo to Marilyn Monroe and Marlon Brando Bela Lugosi to John Belushi Zsa Zsa Gabor to Paris Hilton Errol Flynn to Jude Law and many more
