Parents Of Children In Placement:

Parents of Children in Placement Paula A. Sinanoglu, Anthony N. Maluccio, 1981 Children in Need of Parents
Henry S. Maas, Richard E. Engler (Jr), 1959 A story of the welfare services which typical American communities provide for dependent children and their families Working with Substance-Affected Parents and their Children Menka Tsantefski, 2020-07-26 Working with families in which parents have problems with alcohol or other drugs can be complex stressful and intense This ground breaking guide helps human service workers to better support parents struggling to overcome substance use problems It draws together the perspectives of professionals from alcohol and other drug treatment centres child and family welfare groups as well as leading researchers in the fields of addiction and child protection and also provides practical strategies for understanding and overcoming common practice challenges In this book you will find guidelines for developing positive relationships with parents and children identifying what you need to know when undertaking an assessment ensuring the safety of families improving family life assisting parents when children are in care and focusing on your own self care and professional development This is an essential resource for both students and professionals working in this challenging field The optimism wisdom and insight collated in this work makes this required reading for all of those whose working lives coincide with substance using parents or their children Professor David Best Chair Sheffield Addiction Recovery Research Group founder and co chair of Recovery Academy Australia The Child, 1966 Success and Failure in Permanent Family Placement June Thoburn, 1990 Child Welfare: Child placement and children away from home Nick Frost, 2005 This collection focuses on child welfare in its specific sense welfare and social interventions with children and young people undertaken by State bodies or NGO s The term child welfare is deployed differently in diverse international settings In the United Kingdom child welfare tends to refer to individualised programmes for children who have experienced problems in their lives In India to take a contrasting example it can also refer to major housing and nutrition programmes This collection takes an inclusive approach to international perspectives The collection is completed by a new general introduction by the editor individual volume introductions and a full index Titles also available in this series include Medical Sociology November 2004 4 Volumes 495 and the forthcoming collection Health Care Systems 2005 3 Volumes c 395 Children, 1966 Children in Family Contexts Lee Combrinck-Graham, 2006-03-16 The noted contributors represent diverse theoretical approaches but all share a focus on the family as the primary context of development and the most important resource for children who are struggling The Training of Child Welfare Workers for Placement Responsibilities Citizen's Committee on Adoption of Children in California, 1963 Psycho-legal Concepts for Parenting in Child Custody and Child Protection Vol. 2 Don Tustin, 2024-10-19 This book provides an overview of changes in legislation in Australia concerning both family law and child protection law The topic is important as the Australian Government has identified that the rate of mental disorder in some cohorts of children is high and rising These cohorts of children live in families where they are vulnerable because they are exposed to risk factors that can be changed by a coordinated effort from parents therapists and lawyers The aim of the book is to identify psycho legal concepts that need to be understood by professionals who work in the fields of child custody and child protection and to bring these concepts together to improve coordination between the two fields of practice The purpose of the book is to be a practice manual for professionals from the disciplines of law social work and psychologists who work in specialized legal roles dealing with families where children are vulnerable to developing mental health difficulties Volume 2 of the book provides a perspective from a mental health clinician about concepts and principles that arise in Australian family oriented courts and that need to be shared between disciplines This book proposes that some concepts be identified as psycho legal as the concepts need to be shared between disciplines who work with court involved families The book also proposes that psycho legal concepts be shared between the jurisdictions of child custody and child protection In this book proposals are made to improve collaboration between disciplines and to maximize the best interests of children Family Problems Joyce A.
