

PARENTS PASSING ON

THE FAITH

GUESS WHO'S WATCHING NOW!

It is worth remembering that our faith and our core values are passed on primarily in the home. TV advertisements for responsible drinking often end up with the reminder "your children are watching you". And if a child's behaviour at school is particularly difficult, who does the school call to seek help? The parents, of course! Most parents are not trained teachers, but, for better or for worse, they are the prime nurturers in faith of their children. A major way in which we nurture our children's faith is by telling them we how ours is lived out in daily life. So it's always good to reflect on where we can brush up our own faith life and make it more relevant and attractive to our children. This feature presents a collection of ideas that different families found worked for them.

Parents Passing On The Faith:

Parents Passing on the Faith Carl K. Spackman, 1989 Passing on the Faith Merton P. Strommen, Dick Hardel, 2008

From the Introduction This book is about passing on the faith from generation to generation throughout the milestones of a person's life Faith is created and nurtured by the Holy Spirit through the Gospels The vision underlying the RADICAL model was developed in light of the theological principle that faith is formed by the Holy Spirit through personal trusted relationships often but not always in our own homes A youth and family ministry for the 21st century connects all the generations in the total ministry of the congregation and through the cross of Christ recognizes the work of the Holy Spirit shaping faith in all the circles of relationships This revised edition expands on the authors original model in an all new chapter on the circle of creation This edition has also been updated throughout in light of new ideas and research that have emerged during the past decade

Handing Down the Faith Christian Smith, Amy Adamczyk, 2021 This book is about how American religious parents approach the handing on of their religious practices and beliefs to their children We know a lot about the importance of parents in faith transmission and factors that influence its effectiveness But we know much less about the actual beliefs feelings and activities of the parents themselves when it comes to the intergenerational transmission of religious faith and practice

Interpreting Deuteronomy David G. Firth, Philip S. Johnston, 2013-04-05 The book of Deuteronomy has been immensely influential not least within the Old Testament itself It is found among the most frequently occurring manuscripts at Qumran and it is also one of the Old Testament books most frequently cited in the New Testament In Matthew's Gospel it is Deuteronomy which Jesus cites in rejecting temptation As with so many other Old Testament books study of Deuteronomy is in the midst of significant change While for many scholars the Documentary Hypothesis has continued to provide a framework for interpretation it no longer commands the status of an assured result Instead fresh approaches have been developed engendering their own debates Recent as well as older study affirms that Deuteronomy represents a distinctive theological voice within the Pentateuch While many excellent resources are now available these tend to be either introductory or highly specialized there are fewer that bridge the gap between the two This volume contributes to that need it assumes some foundational knowledge and guides readers through current issues and approaches Here is evangelical scholarship that will inform stimulate and reward diligent teachers and preachers of the Old Testament The contributors are Paul Barker Jenny Corcoran David G Firth Greg Goswell Christian Hofreiter Philip S Johnston James Robson Csilla Saysell Heath Thomas Peter T Vogt and John H Walton

Home Grown Faith David Lynn, Kathy Lynn, 2006-05-08 No matter where you are in your own spiritual journey no matter how little you know about the Bible no matter how busy your schedule you CAN grow your kids in Christian faith Parents of faith are the most influential people in the lives of children more than pastors Sunday School teachers youth workers or teachers Passing our faith to our kids is the responsibility of the church home grown faith versus church grown faith There are certain conditions that parents can intentionally create in the home that will leave a legacy of faith for their children grandchildren and beyond They include prayer and devotions family acts of service caring conversations and rituals and traditions Home Grown Faith will encourage and teach parents how they can shape the spiritual future of their kids one day at a time

Networks for Faith Formation Steve Emery-Wright, Ed Mackenzie, 2017-05-19 The spiritual formation of young people can often focus on encouraging their personal spiritual practices and perhaps linking them to a local youth group While both are important Networks for Faith Formation argues that a far wider set of relationships are needed to help faith grow The aim of Networks for Faith Formation is to describe and commend eight key networks relational bonds that nurture and nourish faith The eight networks are bedroom practices personal faith church family friends mentors small groups events and gatherings and mission and service The description of each network draws on biblical studies practical theology and the social sciences and practical ideas for helping young people engage with such networks are included throughout the book In a context where some overlook the complexity of spiritual formation Networks for Faith Formation is an important resource for church leaders youth ministers and parents seeking to help young people grow in faith Since relational bonds are key for people of any age it can also help all within the church understand the need for relationships in spiritual growth

Handing Down the Faith Christian Smith, Amy Adamczyk, 2020-07-02 A new examination of how and why American religious parents seek to pass on religion to their children The most important influence shaping the religious and spiritual lives of children youth and teenagers is their parents A myriad of studies show that the parents of American youth play the leading role in shaping the character of their religious and spiritual lives even well after they leave home and often for the rest of their lives We know a lot about the importance of parents in faith transmission However we know much less about the actual beliefs feelings and activities of the parents themselves what Christian Smith and Amy Adamczyk call the intergenerational transmission of religious faith and practice To address that gap this book reports the findings of a new national study of religious parents in the United States The findings and conclusions in Handing Down the Faith are based on 215 in depth personal interviews with religious parents from many traditions and different parts of the country and sophisticated analyses of two nationally representative surveys of American parents about their religious parenting Handing Down the Faith explores the background beliefs informing how and why religious parents seek to pass on religion to their children examines how parenting styles interact with parent religiousness to shape effective religious transmission shows how parents have been influenced by their experiences as children influenced by their own parents reveals how religious parents view their congregations and what they most seek out in a local church synagogue temple or mosque explores the experiences and outlooks of immigrant parents including Latino Catholics East Asian Buddhists South Asian Muslims and Indian Hindus Smith and Adamczyk step back to consider how American religion has transformed over the last 100 years and to explain why parents today shoulder such a huge responsibility in transmitting religious faith and practice to their children

Religious Parenting Christian Smith,Bridget Ritz,Michael Rotolo,2021-11-02 How do religiously observant American parents pass on their religion to their children Sociologist Christian Smith and his team sought to answer this question by interviewing over two hundred parents from across the U S affiliated with religious congregations of various types The book presents the voices of parents from diverse socioeconomic and religious backgrounds interested in passing on their religious convictions and practices to their children with the focus on why they think this matters and how they do it What Smith and his team found was surprising Almost all the parents interviewed whether Catholic Evangelical Jewish Muslim Mormon or Hindu and whether politically or theologically conservative or liberal view the transmission of religion in much the same way Most religious parents do not expect professional clergy and youth ministries to play a large role in imparting to young people a taste for continued religious affiliation and participation Rather they expect to do this work themselves viewing their children as ongoing projects Moreover very few of these religious parents regard what we might call the truth of religious claims beliefs in salvation or the trinity for example the afterlife heaven etc as important reasons for the centrality of religion in their lives and the lives of their children For nearly all including the most conservative religion is almost always about community morality and a sense of purpose all of which lead to a better quality of life for themselves and their children in the here and now Smith and his co authors ground their discussion of religious parenting in a broader set of theoretical claims about the way in which religious transmission occurs Drawing on cognitive anthropology and inspired by work in cognitive science the authors present and describe the background cultural models that American religious parents hold and use to inform their parenting The Billionaire CEO's Sweet Revenge Rosie Meachem,2024-11-22 Faith I need a divorce David began his words slicing through the air like a knife This marriage it s not working for me I want a divorce he said flatly his words instantly shattering Faith s world Stunned she struggled to find her voice her mind reeling from the weight of his declaration Divorce had never crossed her mind especially not when she was about to share the happiest news of their lives that she was carrying his baby Before she could respond David continued his tone bitter I ve been consulting with my lawyer The divorce papers are ready and I need you to sign them Three long years had passed since the divorce and Faith now 30 hadn t laid eyes on her selfish ex husband Now on the verge of confronting him face to face this meeting promised to be different She wasn t just his former wife and the mother of his unknown child she had transformed into the new CEO and owner of a rival company a force threatening to surpass his sinking business In the shadow of his company s desperate situation Faith understood that only her company held the key to rescuing him The question lingered would she choose to extend her hand in assistance or would revenge dominate her plans David grew increasingly curious about the CEO of the rival company To his shock the television revealed her identity a stunning woman who was none other than his ex wife Regret hit him hard as he realized the mistake he d made by treating her poorly Now he was desperate to win her back and make things right But could he convince her to give him a second chance And how would he react when he discovered he had been a father all along Book 1 Chapter 1 62 When Faith Is Shattered Gloria J. Lewis,2012-03 Prayers are worthless unless they are accompanied by faith Faith ignores all of our senses when it comes to believing what God says It is necessary to believe before we see hear taste or smell When we believe first it brings the miraculous into our reach Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God But what happens when all of the things you have heard and embraced through the Word of God to increase your faith seems to come crumbling down around you What happens when your prayers are not answered in the manner you desired How do you deal with the pain caused by the death of a loved one after you have trusted God wholeheartedly to heal them Has God forsaken you during the time you need him most How do you deal with your anger towards God How do you believe again when you feel that God has failed you In When Faith is Shattered you will find how to deal with even the most difficult times of your life when you feel that the Lord has forsaken you and there is no place else to turn Hugh of Saint Victor on the Sacraments of the Christian Faith (De Sacramentis) Hugh (of Saint-Victor),1951
