Peter Smarts Confessions:

Peter Smart's Confessions Paul Bailey, 1977 Peter Smart's Confessions Paul Bailey, 2000 The End of Me Alfred Hayes, 2020-06-09 A moving tale about middle age divorce modern love and returning home by one of the great American storytellers Asher's career as a Hollywood screenwriter has come to a humiliating end so has his latest marriage Returning to New York where he grew up he takes a room at a hotel and wonders what well into middle age as he is he should do next It's not a question of money it's a question of purpose maybe of pride In the company of the arch young poet Michael Asher revisits the streets and tenements of the Lower East Side where he spent his childhood though little remains of the past Michael introduces Asher to Aurora perhaps his girlfriend who to Asher's surprise seems bent on pursuing him too Soon the older man and his edgy young companions are caught up in a slow strange almost ritualized dance of deceit and desire The End of Me a successor to Hayes's In Love and My Face for the World to See can be seen as the final panel of a triptych in which Alfred Hayes anatomizes with a cool precision and laconic lyricism that are all his own the failure of modern love The last scene is the starkest of all The Passport Herta Muller, 2015-12-03 From the winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature 2009 Just as the father in the house in which we live is our father so Comrade Nicolae Ceausescu is the father of our country And just as the mother in the house in which we live is our mother so Comrade Elena Ceausescu is the mother of our country Comrade Nicolae Ceausescu is the father of our children All the children love comrade Nicolae and comrade Elena because they are their parents The Passport is a beautiful haunting novel whose subject is a German village in Romania caught between the stifling hopelessness of Ceausescu's dictatorship and the glittering temptations of the West Stories from the past are woven together with the problems Windisch the village miller faces after he applies for permission to migrate to West Germany Herta Muller describes with poetic attention the dreams and superstitions conflicts and oppression of a forgotten region the Banat in the Danube Plain In sparse lyrical language Herta Muller captures the forlorn plight of a trapped people This edition is translated by Martin Chalmers with a new foreword by Paul Bailey Also by Herta Muller Nadirs The Land of Green Plums The Appointment and The Hunger Angel Culture Wars in British Literature Tracy J. Prince, 2012-09-21 The past century's culture wars that Britain has been consumed by but that few North Americans seem aware of have resulted in revised notions of Britishness and British literature Yet literary anthologies remain anchored to an archaic Anglo-English interpretation of British literature Conflicts have been played out over specific national vs British identity some residents prefer to describe themselves as being from Scotland England Wales or Northern Ireland instead of Britain in debates over immigration race ethnicity class and gender and in arguments over British literature These debates are strikingly detailed in such chapters as The Difficulty Defining Black British British Jewish Writers and Xenophobia and the Booker Prize Connections are also drawn between civil rights movements in the U S and UK This generalist cultural study is a lively read and a fascinating glimpse into Britain's changing identity as reflected in 20th and 21st century British
