Carter and Luz Casio provide inspiration and support in this newly updated edition of The Visionary Director. The third edition reflects new requirements and initiatives in early childhood programs, adds QR Code access links with short video stories and print resources that further illuminate the ideas under consideration, has a stronger focus on creating an organizational culture that is shaped by more diverse perspectives with an anti-racist, anti-bias equity lens, updates content to address current early childhood education trends and leadership for an expanded definition of quality. Find a concrete framework for approaching and organizing your work as well as principles, strategies, and self-directed activities to support your vision for building a strong learning community for your staff and the young children in their care.

The Art of Awareness Deb Curtis, Margie Carter, 2022-05-24 With new chapters and updates from early childhood leaders Deb Curtis and Margie Carter invite early childhood educators to learn the art and skill of observation. The art of observing children is more than merely the act of watching them; it is also using what you see and hear to craft new opportunities in your classroom. This resource provides a wealth of inspiration and practice. It will help early childhood educators learn to observe in new ways, witness children's remarkable competencies as they experience childhood, and find new joy in their work with children. The third edition updates include new information on schema theory, including a list of the definitions of schemas. Updated stories that reflect schema explorations and focus on observing children's ability to get along. Added information on identity development and the anti-bias goals. New chapter on observing children using their bodies. New QR codes to videos to continue learning. Updates on technology and approaches to keeping observations at the center of required assessments.

Designs for Living and Learning, Second Edition Deb Curtis, Margie Carter, 2014-12-01 You likely have dreams for your early childhood environment that are greater than rating scales, regulations, and room arrangements. Designs for Living and Learning has been a favorite resource among educators and caregivers for more than a decade, and this new edition is packed with even more ideas that can be used as you create captivating environments that nurture children, families, and staff while supporting children's learning. With hundreds of all-new colorful photographs of real early learning settings and a multitude of simple and practical concepts for creative indoor and outdoor spaces and learning materials, this book truly is a source of inspiration as you learn how to shape welcoming spaces where children can learn and grow. Expanded chapters include new information reflecting current trends and concerns in early childhood, such as the use of repurposed and nontraditional materials, children in the outdoors, alternative ways to think about providing for learning outcomes, facing and overcoming barriers, and negotiating change and the impact of environmental rating scales in Quality Rating and Improvement Systems (QRIS). Two new chapters are included: one highlighting the transformations of environments with before and after photos and outlines of the process, and the other with examples of soliciting children's ideas about the environment. Deb Curtis and Margie Carter are internationally acclaimed experts in early childhood. They host three-day institutes and professional development seminars for early childhood professionals, consult with early childhood programs, across North America Australia and New Zealand and have written many books together The Hundred Languages of Children Carolyn Edwards, Lella Gandini, George Forman, 1998-04-21 The city run early childhood program of Reggio Emilia Italy has become recognized and acclaimed as one of the best systems of education in the world Over the past forty years educators there have evolved a distinctive innovative approach that supports children's well being and fosters their intellectual development through a systematic focus on symbolic representation Young children from birth to age six are encouraged to explore their environment and express themselves through many languages or modes of expression including words movement drawing painting sculpture shadow play collage and music Leading children to surprising levels of symbolic skill and creativity the system is not private and elite but rather involves full day child care open to all including children with disabilities This new Second Edition reflects the growing interest and deepening reflection upon the Reggio approach as well as increasing sophistication in adaptation to the American context Included are many entirely new chapters and an updated list of resources along with original chapters revised and extended The book represents a dialogue between Italian educators who founded and developed the system and North Americans who have considered its implications for their own settings and issues The book is a comprehensive introduction covering history and philosophy the parent perspective curriculum and methods of teaching school and system organization the use of space and physical environments and adult professional roles including special education The final section describes implications for American policy and professional development and adaptations in United States primary preschool and child care classrooms Developmentally Appropriate Play Gaye Gronlund, 2010-07-01 Help children participate in purposeful play to promote the development of a number of important skills The Visionary Director, Second Edition Margie Carter, Deb Curtis, 2009-11-01 An inspiring and practical guide to creating a larger vision in early child care Individualized Child-Focused Curriculum Gaye Gronlund, 2016-05-09 Learn to integrate individualized curriculum into daily practice with this step by step guide Using Developmental Studies a new tool created and successfully field tested by the author implement a truly child focused and individualizing curriculum meeting each child where she or he is and ultimately making teaching easier and more rewarding These user friendly materials will help teachers reconnect and reengage with each student outside of all the standards that are required Gaye Gronlund devotes her time to helping teachers administrators and policy makers implement best approaches to teaching and assessing young children Clients have included the NAEYC NIEER the State of New Mexico Office of Child Development and Pre K Program the Illinois State Board of Education and more I'm OK!
