Silent Language:

The Silent Language Edward T. Hall, 1973-07-03 A leading American anthropologist analyzes the many vitally important ways in which people talk to one another without the use of words The Silent Language shows how cultural factors influence the individual behind his back without his knowledge Erich Fromm The pecking order in a chicken yard the fierce competition in a school playground every unwitting gesture and action this is the vocabulary of the silent language According to Dr Hall the concepts of space and time are tools with which all human beings may transmit messages Space for example is the outgrowth of an animal's instinctive defense of his lair and is reflected in human society by the office worker's jealous defense of his desk or the guarded walled patio of a Latin American home Similarly the concept of time varying from Western precision to Eastern vagueness is revealed by the businessman who pointedly keeps a client waiting or the South Pacific islander who murders his neighbor for an injustice suffered twenty years ago

Elizabethan Silent Language Mary E.
