Completing the project of the earlier assessments, these volumes concentrate on four themes: the reception of Durkheim's work during his life; the relationship between his ideas and French society; his influence on his followers; and his relevance today. Les uns avec les autres François de Singly, 2003-09-01. Depuis trente ans, la crise des repères de la transmission des identités de la raison, bref du lien social, est devenue un discours lancinant dû pourvu d'effets sur l'évolution de la société. Les remèdes anti-crise proposés ne sont pas satisfaisants. Le retour à l'âge d'or de la République est impossible, les individus d'aujourd'hui refusent d'être traités seulement comme des citoyens uniformes. L'universalisme abstrait est mort. Mais il ne peut être remplacé par le communautarisme qui condamne les individus à rester dans leur groupe, leur communauté d'origine, s'opposant ainsi à leur liberté de s'affilier et de se désaffilier. Il est temps de dessiner un nouvel idéal du lien social combinant la liberté de chacun et le respect mutuel reposant sur une autre forme de civilité. Un nous qui sache respecter les je dans leur liberté et dans leur identité complexe. Un lien qui sache unir sans trop serrer. C'est l'ambition de ce livre, critiqué par François de Singly, Directeur du Centre de recherches sur les liens sociaux, CNRS, Université de Paris V. François de Singly, professeur de sociologie, a publié notamment Libres ensemble (2000), Le soi, le couple et la famille (1996), Fortune et infortune de la femme mariée (1987), Avant-propos, La chaire de Monsieur Seguin, La crise de la transmission, Comment lier ensemble des individus, mancip, s, La crise de la stabilité, Comment lier ensemble des individus dont l'identité est fluide, La crise des normes, Comment lier ensemble des individus peu obéissants, La crise de la raison, Comment lier des individus qui veulent préserver leur intérêt et leur affect.

La création artistique espagnole à l'épreuve de la modernité esthétique européenne, 1898-1931 Denis Vigneron,2009

A Politics of Emancipation Miguel Abensour,2024-07-01 Despite his influence in utopian studies and democratic theory French philosopher Miguel Abensour 1939 2017 has yet to be fully discovered in the English speaking world as only a fraction of his work has been translated A Politics of Emancipation fills this void by translating a selection of his seminal essays into English for the first time The Reader provides a systematic overview of Abensour s work and the two inseparable projects that govern his approach to political theory on the one hand a radical critique of all forms of domination and on the other a desire to conceptualize the political as the realm of freedom and emancipation For Abensour both projects are to be undertaken together in order to avoid the double trap of an evacuation of conflict from politics and the reduction of politics to a form of domination In other words a politics of emancipation requires a ruthless critique of domination coupled with an analysis of politics as the domain within which human beings experience freedom and equality

Writing the Nomadic Experience in Contemporary Francophone Literature Katharine N. Harrington,2013 In this book Author Katharine N Harrington examines contemporary writers from the French speaking world who can be classified as literary nomads The concept of nomadism based on the experience of traditionally mobile peoples lacking any fixed home reflects a postmodern way of thinking that encourages individuals to reconsider rigid definitions of borders classifications and identities Nomadic identities reflect shifting landscapes that defy taking on fully the limits of any one fixed national or cultural identity In conceiving of identities beyond the boundaries of national or cultural origin this book opens up the space for nomadic subjects whose identity is based just as much on their geographical displacement and deterritorialization as on a relationship to any one fixed place community or culture This study explores the experience of an existence between borders and its translation into writing that While nomadism is frequently associated with post colonial authors this study considers an eclectic group of contemporary Francophone writers who are not easily defined by the boundaries of one nation one culture or one language Each of the four writers J M G LeClzio Nancy Huston Nina Bouraoui and R gine Robin maintains a connection to France but it is one that is complicated by life experiences backgrounds and choices that inevitably expand their identities beyond the Hexagon Harrington examines how these authors life experiences are reflected in their writing and how they may inform us on the state of our increasingly global world where borders and identities are blurred Cultures of the Internet Professor Robert M Shields, Rob Shields, 1996-02-22 The Internet is here but have we caught up with all the implications for culture and everyday life This collection of original articles on the development of computer mediated communications brings together many of the most accomplished writers on the Net and cyberspace Cultures of Internet examines the arrival of e mail and online discussion groups and considers the prospect of an online world a playground for virtual bodies in which identities are flexible swappable and disconnected from real world bodies The book traces the rise of virtual conviviality and how it supplements the physical encounters between actors in public spaces that are abandoned to the homeless The book is distinguished by a critical and social tone It presents systematic descriptions of the development of the Internet its history in the military industrial complex the role of state policies leading for example to the creation of Minitel and the building of information superhighways It also explores the development of this technology as a commercialized leisure form and a forum for underground political organization and critique
