In this bundle, we find five classic works of twentieth-century fiction, drama, and poetry, a period when Canada's literary identity was shaped. Originally published in 1962, The Silence on the Shore is considered by many critics to be renowned Hugh Garner's best, most ambitious novel. Originally published in 1967, Combat Journal for Place d'Armes was initially met with shock and anger by most reviewers but has become a literary touchstone. The Donnelly's tells the tale of a secret society and a massacre that shocked the Canadian public, a story overlooked by the artistic community until Reaney's 1975 play elevated the events to the level of legend. In This Poem I Am, presents the best of poet Robin Skelton's adventurous poetry. And Exploration Literature is a groundbreaking collection of early writing inspired by the opening of a continent, an entry point into the beginnings of a literate response to the awe and wonder inspired by an unfolding geography.
