Mary Pratt A Personal Calligraphy

Elizabeth Lumley

Mary Pratt A Personal Calligraphy:

A Personal Calligraphy Mary Pratt, 2000 Mary Pratt is famous throughout Canada for her luminous paintings and prints Her 1995 exhibition The Art of Mary Pratt The Substance of Light drew record breaking crowds on its tour of Canada It also resulted in an unprecedented amount of press coverage on the biographical content of her work The accompanying book by Tom Smart sold more than 6 000 copies and made almost every best book of the year list in Canada Mary Pratt A Personal Calligraphy features Mary's own writings drawn and adapted from her personal journals the essays that she has written for numerous publications ranging from The Globe and Mail to The Glass Gazette and the lectures that she has given at many public events For the first time Mary has written her own book in her own words rather than rely on others to write about her Treating both public and private issues she writes of her childhood in Fredericton her connection to her family life in Salmonier as a young mother her decision to pursue her own career as an artist and her complicated relationship with her husband Christopher She writes about public issues the death of Joey Smallwood the 50th anniversary of Newfoundland entry into Confederation and the cod fishery She writes about the images that interest her and influence her art and the process of painting Like her paintings Pratt's writing packs a sucker punch At first it appears to be a paean to the pleasures of house and home until the more disturbing aspects subtly reveal themselves Ironing shirts become an erotic act a memory of visiting the local market with her grandmother conjures images of violence dead chickens meticulously plucked and carcasses of cattle meticulously flayed suggest rituals of sacrifice In Spring of 2001 Mary Pratt was awarded the Newfoundland and Labrador Writers Association prize for Non fiction for A Personal Calligraphy Astonishing Women Artists Heather Ball, 2007-01-01 Discover the lives of women artists from the 16th century to the present day such as the early feminist Artemisia Gentileschi the adventurous Emily Carr the flamboyant Frida Kahlo and the brilliant Georgia O'Keeffe Art and Rivalry Carol Bishop-Gwyn, 2019-10-08 The unauthorized biography of Canada's most famous artist couple and the rivalry that drove them She painted as if with pure light radiant colours making quotidian kitchen scenes come alive with sublimated drama He painted like clockwork each stroke precise and measured with exquisite care leaving no angle unchecked and no subtlety of tone unattended Some would say Mary Pratt was fire and Christopher ice And yet Newfoundland's Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera or Jackson Pollack and Lee Krasner presented their marriage as a portrait of harmony and balance But balance off the canvas rarely makes great art and the Pratts art was spectacular As a youth at Mount Allison University in New Brunswick Mary pursued her future husband a prodigious art talent and supported his determination to study painting instead of medicine They married and removed themselves to a Newfoundland outport where his painting alone provided the means to raise a family But as Mary's own talents became evident and she sought her own hours at the easel when not raising their four children and as rumours of Christopher's affair with a young model spread the Pratts harmonious exterior slowly cracked to scandal in Newfoundland and fascination across the country A marriage ended
