Mary Decker Cathy Henkel, 1984-03-01 Mary Decker, America's Nike Cathy Henkel, 1984 A brief biography of the woman considered to be the fastest runner in the world The American Marathon Pamela Cooper, 1998-04-01 Boston established a footrace but New York City created a marathon culture that annually draws tens of thousands of runners to each of the major American events The American Marathon is the first in depth study of the marathon as a cultural performance that has as much power to unite communities across lines of race ethnicity class and gender as it does to empower individuals This book encompasses more than a century from the fledgling days of the footrace in the 1890s to the popular contemporary marathons that have become corporate sponsored institutions Run in New York City in 1896 and continued in Boston for the next ten years the marathon quickly became the event of the working class athletes particularly Irish Americans Other urban ethnic groups Italians Jews and African Americans who were unwelcome into the elite WASP athletic clubs formed their own running organizations Once emblematic of the immigrant experience the marathon evolved to express middle class nationalism as these immigrants were being assimilated During the 1930s the Great Depression restricted footracing and anti-Semitism left important coaches and runners without access to team support The New York Pioneer Club begun in 1936 as an African American team brought the tremendous energy of post World War II Harlem to the American marathon of the 1950s Besides examining the ethnic influence on marathoning Cooper also explores the impact of the Cold War on this sport when fitness and endurance became matters of national pride She shows how the Road Runners Club of America first brought women and large numbers of participant runners into long distance footraces and finally how corporate sponsorship and direct payments to athletes profoundly changed the nature of this once amateur sport

Olympic Collision Kyle Keiderling, 2016-11-01 Dual biography of Mary Decker and Zola Budd and the infamous Olympic incident that binds them together Michael Jordan Mike Herbert, 1987 Examines the career of the Chicago Bulls basketball player who has been described as unstoppable on the court Carol Johnston, the One-armed Gymnast Pete Donovan, 1982 Inspired story of a handicapped person who became a fine athlete American Book Publishing Record, 1984

The Longest Race Kara Goucher, 2023-03-14 INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER In this unvarnished and affecting memoir Olympian Kara Goucher reveals her experience of living through and speaking out about one of the biggest scandals in running Kara Goucher grew up with Olympic dreams She excelled at running from a young age and was offered a Nike sponsorship deal when she graduated from college Then in 2004 she was invited to join a secretive lavishly funded new team dubbed the Nike Oregon Project Coached by distance running legend Alberto Salazar it seemed like the opportunity of a lifetime Kara was soon winning a World Championship medal going to the Olympics and standing on the podium at the New York and Boston marathons just like her coach But behind the scenes Salazar was hiding dark secrets He pushed the limits of anti doping rules and created what Kara experienced as a culture of abuse the extent of which she reveals in her book for the first time Meanwhile Nike stood by Alberto for years and proved itself capable of shockingly misogynistic corporate practices Told with stunning honesty The Longest Race is an unforgettable story and a call to action Kara became a crusader for female athletes and a key witness helping to get Salazar banned from coaching at the Olympic level Kara's memoir reveals how she broke through the fear of losing everything bucked powerful forces to take control of her life and career and reclaimed her love of running
