Mary In The Churches Concilium:

Mary in the Churches Hans Küng, Jürgen Moltmann, 1983      Mary in the Church, 2003 This compendium of significant documents issued in recent years by the U S bishops and the papal magisterium provides an indispensable source of contemporary Church teachings on the Blessed Virgin Mary Of value to students theologians ecumenists and parishioners alike these documents offer the authentic teaching of the Church on the meaning of Mary's role in the Church and her place in the mystery of Christ's salvation Opening with the complete text of the bishop's 1973 pastoral letter Behold Your Mother Woman of Faith the selections include Pope Paul VI's apostolic exhortation Marialis Cultus For the Right Ordering and Development of Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and Pope John Paul II's apostolic letter Rosarium Virginis Mariae On the Most Holy Rosary Mary in the Church will enrich the faith and love of all who seek to imitate the Mother of God on their way to Christ      Hail Mary? Maurice Hamington, 2014-04-23 Hail Mary examines the sexist and misogynist themes that underlie the socially constructed religious imagery of Mary the mother of Jesus Maurice Hamington explores the sources for three prominent Marian images Mary as the the blessed Virgin Mary the Mediatrix and Mary the second Eve Hamington critiques these images for the valorization of sexist forces with the Catholic Church that serve to maintain systems of oppression against women In challenging dominant religious representations of Mary Hamington surveys a variety of emerging reinterpretations of Mary He then provides a framework for further study of non alienating images of Mary      A Bride Adorned: Mary-Church Perichoresis in Modern Catholic Theology John L. Nepil, 2023-09-28 Starting in the early to mid nineteenth century Catholic theology witnessed a profound retrieval of patristic reflection on the interrelationship of the Virgin Mary and the Church This dynamic reached a doctrinal high point with the declarations of Vatican II and Pope Paul VI concerning Mary as type of the Church and Mother of the Church and it also provided the impetus for further theological exploration of the deeper unity of the Mother of Christ and his mystical body In A Bride Adorned John L Nepil examines how this interrelationship has been formulated in modern theology in terms of perichoresis a notion of unconfused reciprocity or interpenetration drawn from Christology and Trinitarian theology first applied to Mary and the Church by the nineteenth century German theologian Matthias Scheeben In the first part of the study Nepil treats the foundations of this formulation outlining its historical background and creative articulation by Scheeben The second part tracks developments of Scheeben's insight in the thought of twentieth century theological luminaries Charles Journet Hans Urs von Balthasar Louis Bouyer and Leo Scheffczyk each of whom distinctively articulate the shared conviction that neither Mary nor the Church can be understood apart from each other The third part draws out the far reaching doctrinal and pastoral implications of this deepened account of the Mary Church relation establishing its vital importance for ongoing theological and ecclesial renewal Through his careful engagement with these figures Nepil shows how Mary and the Church are to be understood as two realizations of a single mystery This vantage on Mary and the Church sheds new light on the vision of the Council Fathers at

Vatican II and it charts a course for the Church's flourishing via a return to her Marian heart      Mary in the Christian Tradition Kathleen Coyle, 1996 Sr Kathleen searches for and develops a Marian theology very much in tune with today's issues and attitudes She reflects on Marian symbols and traditional images hoping the Church can reclaim Mary as a woman of faith a model disciple proclaiming a song of liberation for the poor and oppressed of our world today      The Roots of the Catholic Tradition Thomas P. Rausch, 2002-09-27 It is a pleasure to recommend the book to those looking for an introductory text upon which to base a course on the development of Catholicism to those training adult RCIA catechists to those teaching adult religious education courses and to those who just want to see how it ought to be and can be done David P Killen Biblical Theology Bulletin      Mary and the Church at Vatican II: The Untold Story of Lumen Gentium VIII Laurie Olsen, 2024-07-01 This masterful work by Dr Laurie Olsen uncovers the behind the scenes story of the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium VIII based on unpublished records from the Vatican Apostolic Archives including internal memoranda private notes never before heard audio recordings of closed door sessions and more This monumental achievement of archival research provides a window into what really happened at Vatican II the council's inner workings and maneuvers to steer Lumen Gentium VIII in a direction that would profoundly affect marian devotion and the study of mariology from that moment on      The Splendor of the Church in Mary Theresa Marie Chau Nguyen, 2023-05-05 Henri de Lubac SJ 1896 1991 is one of the most renowned theologians of the twentieth century Numerous studies have been undertaken to examine his many contributions to theology but little attention has been paid to the specific topic of the relationship of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Church in his writings This was a topic that gave rise to contentious discussion at the Second Vatican Council and although the Council fathers approved the integration of Marian doctrine into the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church this synthesis of Mariology and ecclesiology has been largely neglected in theology today The Splendor of the Church in Mary retrieves de Lubac's Marian ecclesiology and revives an understanding and appreciation of its enduring influence at the Vatican Council and beyond The first part examines de Lubac's pre conciliar works which evince a steady biblical and patristic ressourcement of Marian themes It also explores his writings on Teilhard de Chardin's Eternal Feminine Christian mysticism and Amida Buddhism and discovers in them the essential building blocks of his Marian thought The second part turns to the Second Vatican Council and post conciliar developments Rereading the debates and texts of Lumen Gentium through a Marian lens brings to light the extent of de Lubac's influence Meditation sur l'Eglise 1953 his principal work on Mary and the Church anticipated the structure and content of Lumen Gentium a decade before the Council De Lubac's writings provided a theological compass for the Council fathers and they continue to provide direction and orientation for ecclesiological discourse today The Splendor of the Church in Mary culminates in a constructive analysis of one of the most pressing pastoral and ecclesiological questions of our times the question of the relationship of the universal and particular churches Directly engaging the crucial debate between then Cardinal Ratzinger and Cardinal Kasper it proposes that de

Lubac's Mariology effectively offers a new perspective and a refreshing path forward. Attentive to the mystical identification of Mary and the Church, de Lubac's ressourcement has the potential to re-enchant and advance contemporary theology in new and significant ways. — Mary Francis J. Moloney SDB, 2009-09-01

In Mary Woman and Mother, Fr. Francis Moloney studies the New Testament's presentation of Mary's person and role. After indicating the limits and strengths of a biblical study of Mary, he examines the Marian texts from the Letter of Paul to the Galatians, the Gospels of Mark, Matthew, and Luke, the Acts of the Apostles, and the Gospel of John. She is above all a woman and a mother. This book shows that in recognizing Mary as God's place of encounter with all that is most beautiful among women and men, we will gain access to the womanly, maternal face of God. — Reforming Mary Beth Kreitzer, 2004-03-18

Catholics and Protestants have since the earliest days of the Reformation held markedly different views about the Virgin Mary. In Reforming Mary, Beth Kreitzer examines the development of Lutheran views on this subject as expressed in 16th-century Lutheran published sermons, starting with the earliest of Luther's own Reformation sermons. She shows that from the beginning, Lutherans rejected much of the theology and piety that surrounded Mary in Catholicism, especially her status as heavenly queen and intercessor with Christ. They affirmed those orthodox teachings about Mary that related to Christ: the Virgin's role as Theotokos, the virgin birth, and by extension, Mary's purity or perpetual virginity. As time went on, Lutheran preachers showed less interest in Mary as a topic, and by the later part of the century, showed an increasingly harsh and critical view of her. These later sermons reveal a new willingness in opposition to received tradition to impute sin to Mary. Kreitzer attributes this changed attitude to the increasing distance of Lutherans from their Catholic roots, the logical results of theological changes in the Reformation, and a perception of an increased threat of re-catholicization. Finally, she shows Mary was pressed into service by preachers who endeavored to instruct the laity in both what to believe and how to live, making a causal connection between being a good Christian and being a good citizen of society. In this context, Mary was used as a role model and was often promoted as an exemplar for females in ways that served to constrain and domesticate women, placing them more firmly under male authority. But despite the attempts by preachers to domesticate and mold her, Kreitzer argues the Lutheran Mary remains a complex and paradoxical figure. — The Church Thomas P. Halton, 2002-09-20

This edition of The Church: Message of the Fathers of the Church, Volume 4, by Thomas P. Halton, is a digitally scanned facsimile of the original 1985 edition published by Michael Glazier. — Reading Mary Alongside Indian Surrogate Mothers Sharon Jacob, 2015-08-18

This book attempts to read the character of Mary in the infancy narratives of Luke and Matthew alongside the lives and experiences of the Indian surrogate mother living in postcolonial India. Reading Mary through these lenses helps us see this mother and her actions in a more ambivalent light as a mother whose love is both violent and altruistic. — Systematic Theology Thomas P.

Rausch, 2016-03-24. Systematic theology seeks to understand and render more intelligible the central doctrines of faith and to show how they are related to each other. It tries to demonstrate how these doctrines are rooted in Scripture and develop in the history of the church most important it strives to more adequately express and sometimes reinterpret the church's doctrinal tradition always in the interest of better communicating the mystery of salvation and bringing it into a dialogue with culture The present text is intended to be concise and accessible an introduction that explores basic themes in Catholic systematic theology from a biblical historical and contemporary perspective always aware of today's theological pluralism
