Mary Swann By Shields Carol:

Mary Swann Carol Shields, Vilma Porro, 2007 Swann Carol Shields, 1987 To her neighbors Mary Swann was a simple hardworking farm wife her delicate poems are discovered only after she is brutally murdered The strange evocative verses attract the attention of an earnestly self absorbed feminist scholar a pompous literary biographer a virginal small town librarian and a curmudgeonly retired newspaper editor But as interest increases all traces of Swann s existence her notebook the first draft of her work even her photograph mysteriously vanish In solving the puzzle of Swann s disappearing legacy Carol Shields explores the larger mysteries of the nature of art as well as the powerful forces that motivate us all Swann Carol Shields, 2011-01-21 Carol Shields s award winning and critically acclaimed literary mystery first published in 1987 Swann is the story of four individuals who become entwined in the life of Mary Swann a rural Canadian poet whose authentic and unique voice is discovered only hours before her husband hacks her to pieces Who is Mary Swann And how could she have produced these works of genius in almost complete isolation Mysteriously all traces of Swann s existence her notebook the first draft of her work even her photograph gradually vanish as the characters in this engrossing novel become caught up in their own concepts of who Mary Swann was Swann Carol Shields, 2013 The lives of four amazingly different individuals become intertwined with that of Mary Swann a rural Canadian poet of delicate verse whose genuine talent is only discovered after she is brutally murdered Mary Swann Carol Shields, 1993 Carol Shields, Narrative Hunger, and the Possibilities of Fiction Ted Farrell, 2003-01-01 Award winning Canadian writer Carol Shields has garnered praise from scholars and an international audience of readers Inspired by the quality and scope of Shields s work Carol Shields Narrative Hunger and the Possibilities of Fiction addresses her creative exploration of postmodernism As the first thorough examination of the Pulitzer Prize winning author this collection of essays establishes the groundwork for future studies of her oeuvre The collection begins with a significant new essay from Shields herself Narrative Hunger and the Overflowing Cupboard perhaps her most substantial commentary upon her own aims as a writer In addition scholars from Canada England the United States and Australia explore the complexity of Shields s work and her contributions to the genre of the novel These lively essays reflect Shields s verve and her playful approach to today s sophisticated critical thinking Among the topics are Shields s use of biography and autobiography metafiction popular romance and symbolism While the essays foreground the unreliability of language and hence our inability to know one another or even ourselves the contributors argue that Shields has taken a step beyond postmodernism by suggesting that we can transcend the limitations of its epistemology Containing several essays on Swann and The Stone Diaries Shields s most popular works and the most extensive annotated bibliography available of works by and about Shields this collection will appeal widely to scholars students and readers of Carol Shields and Canadian fiction Swann Carol Shields, 1993-01-01 To her neighbors Mary Swann was a simple hardworking farm wife her delicate poems are discovered only after she is brutally murdered The strange evocative verses attract the attention of an earnestly self absorbed feminist scholar a pompous literary biographer a virginal small town librarian and a curmudgeonly retired newspaper editor But as interest increases all traces of Swann s existence her notebook the first draft of her work even her photograph mysteriously vanish In solving the puzzle of Swann s disappearing legacy Carol Shields explores the larger mysteries of the nature of art as well as the powerful forces that motivate us all Literary Culture and Female Authorship in Canada 1760-2000 Faye Hammill, 2021-10-18 There are two ladies in the province I am told who read writes Frances Brooke s Arabella Fermor but both are above fifty and are regarded as prodigies of erudition Brooke s The History of Emily Montague 1769 was the first work of fiction to be set in Canada and also the first book to reflect on the situation of the woman writer there Her analysis of the experience of writing in Canada is continued by the five other writers considered in this study Susanna Moodie Sara Jeannette Duncan L M Montgomery Margaret Atwood and Carol Shields All of these authors examine the social position of the woman of letters in Canada the intellectual stimulation available to her the literary possibilities of Canadian subject matter and the practical aspects of reading writing and publishing in a post colonial country This book turns on the ways in which those aspects of authorship and literary culture in Canada have been inscribed in imaginative autobiographical and critical texts by the six authors It traces the evolving situation of the Canadian woman writer over the course of two centuries and explores the impact of social and cultural change on the experience of writing in Canada

Relating Carol Shields's Essays and Fiction Nora Foster Stovel, 2023-01-01 This collection of essays explores celebrated Canadian author Carol Shields s experimentation with the essay genre in relation to her fiction Shields s essays clarify her iconoclastic approach to rules of narrative and illuminate her revisionist policies elucidating the development of her fiction both novels and stories as her writing gradually becomes more explicitly feminist as well as more daringly postmodernist The dozen essays by the eminent Canadianists included in this edition throw fresh light on Shields s writing inviting us to read it with new eyes by revealing how her essays reflect and refract the brilliance of her fiction These essays read Shields s fiction through the lens of her essays including those contained in the recent Giardini edition wherein the author explains the creative methodologies involved in her fiction and also offers specific advice to writers of fiction constraints and sexual politics Anxious Power Carol J. Singley, Susan Elizabeth Sweeney, 1993-01-01 This book explains the conflicting feelings of anxiety and empowerment that women historically excluded from masculine discourse feel when they read and write and it analyzes narrative strategies that reveal this ambivalence Anxious Power draws upon feminist literary theory narrative theory and reader response criticism to define women's ambivalence toward language It is the first collection to address issues of ambivalence in narrative by women to trace those issues from the medieval period to the present and to outline a theoretical framework for understanding them The contributors address a broad spectrum of female literary voices ranging from familiar British and American writers Jane Austen Charlotte Bronte and Willa Cather and those less well known Jane Barker Caroline Lee Hensz Susan Warner Sarah Grand and Fanny Howe to European Canadian African American South and Latin American and Asian American writers Christine de Pizan Marie Catherine d'Aulnoy Margaret Atwood Harriet Jacobs Toni Morrison Clarice Lispector Sandra Cisneros and Maxine Hong Kingston Anxious Power considers forms of women's narrative ranging from fairy tales through romances novels and autobiographies to feminist metafiction

The Cambridge Companion to Crime Fiction Martin Priestman, 2003-11-06 The Cambridge Companion to Crime Fiction covers British and American crime fiction from the eighteenth century to the end of the twentieth As well as discussing the detective fiction of writers like Arthur Conan Doyle Agatha Christie and Raymond Chandler it considers other kinds of fiction where crime plays a substantial part such as the thriller and spy fiction It also includes chapters on the treatment of crime in eighteenth century literature French and Victorian fiction women and black detectives crime on film and TV police fiction and postmodernist uses of the detective form The collection by an international team of established specialists offers students invaluable reference material including a chronology and guides to further reading The volume aims to ensure that its readers will be grounded in the history of crime fiction and its critical reception Re(dis)covering Our Foremothers Lorraine McMullen, 1990 The modern literary searchlight has flushed out Canada's long neglected nineteenth century female writers New critical approaches are advocated and others are encouraged to take on the difficulties and rewards of research into the lives of our foremothers Published in English The Concise Oxford Companion to English Literature Dinah Birch, Katy Hooper, 2012-06-14 This book provides a compact guide to all aspects of English literature For this edition existing entries have been updated and new entries have been added on contemporary writers such as Jim Crace and Pat Barker anglophone Nous toucherons aux domaines qui toujours s'entrecroisent de la littérature de l'histoire de la politique et de l'image Plays and Controversies Ben Barnes, 2008 In diaries covering the period of his artistic directorship of the Abbey Ben Barnes offers a frank honest and probing account of a much commented upon and controversial period in the history of the national theatre These diaries also provide fascinating personal insights into the day to day pressures joys and frustrations of running one of Ireland's most iconic institutions For over a century now the Abbey has conducted its love hate relationship with the Irish public and the wider international audience and in Plays and Controversies Ben Barnes illuminates his own eventful chapter in that absorbing story the impact of a fascinating still remembered chapter in the story of the Abbey Theatre related at first hand with a fire and a vigorous sense of commitment comparable to that of the founding fathers Christopher FitzSimons Barnes addresses a moment in Irish cultural history which stands as a many sided cautionary tale It is the tale of an embattled man a courageous man who dares to borrow Yeats's title because he found himself for a time in similar circumstances running the national theatre though in altogether different conditions Chris Murray We believe that this book is an important historical record of a recent tumultuous period in relation to the Abbey Theatre and anticipate that it will make a worthwhile contribution to lively cultural debate on theatre history and politics BOOK JACKET

Figuring the Woman Author in Contemporary Fiction M. Eagleton, 2005-12-15 If the author is dead if feminism is post why does the figure of the woman author keep appearing as a central character in contemporary fiction She is concerned with ownership but equally with loss determined to enter the cultural field but also rejecting that field looking for control but subject to duplicity seeking power alongside desire Drawing on a diverse range of contemporary authors including Atwood Byatt Brookner Coetzee Lurie LeGuin Michèle Roberts Shields Spark Weldon Walker this study explores the complexity and continuing fascination of this figure American Writers Leonard Unger, A. Walton Litz, Molly Weigel, Lea Bechler, Jay Parini, 1974 The four volume set consists of ninety seven of the pamphlets originally published as the University of Minnesota pamphlets on American writers Some have been revised and updated Literary Celebrity in Canada Lorraine York, 2017-05-08 In recent years Canadian authors have enjoyed tremendous international success writing novels that become Oscar nominated films or achieve coveted success as selections for the Oprah Winfrey bookclub Literary Celebrity in Canada is the first extended study of the dynamics of celebrity in the field of Canadian literature Building on the argument that celebrity is a phenomenon firmly embraced by mainstream culture Lorraine York examines it in relation to various tensions and conflicts within the literary community and beyond Using as examples three contemporary literary celebrities Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje and Carol Shields and four earlier popular writers Pauline Johnson Stephen Leacock Mazo de la Roche and L. M. Montgomery York demonstrates that individual authors respond differently to fame in ways that can be contradictory and complex She casts doubt on the notion of a specifically Canadian response to fame Depending on the public interpretation of a particular writer's life and work different tensions arise in negotiating literary celebrity Privacy versus publicity swift success versus laborious apprenticeship national versus international association or ownership of the celebrity no single version of celebrity applies to all Citizenship however is a remarkably consistent site of tension for stars literary or otherwise Like citizenship celebrity marks an uneasy space wherein the single special individual and the group demographic both meet and separate Literary Celebrity in Canada explores that space drawing on current theories of celebrity and questioning their tendency to view fame as an empty phenomenon This study is an innovative attempt to understand the psychology of literary stardom and will influence future research on contemporary literature and popular culture

Gender and Narrativity R. Barry Rutland, 1997 It is impossible to imagine a community that is not divided into at least two gender groups It is equally impossible to imagine a community that does not tell or enact stories The relationship between these universal aspects of human culture is the mainspring of Gender and Narrativity From Genesis to Freud the Western narrative tradition tells the same old story of masculine dominance feminine subservience as a matter of divine will or natural truth Here nine Canadian scholars challenge and interpret this tradition in effect re telling the story of gender and themselves intervening in the narrative process Critical readings from a wide range of literary texts medieval and modern European and Canadian replace abstract theory in these studies while sociology anthropology psychoanalysis deconstruction and new history are the axes of discussion This book exemplifies the current range and diversity of Canadian critical writing
