 Exceptional writers of fact fiction and poetry the contributors to the volume are among Joyner's many friends admirers and colleagues as well as those to whom Joyner has served as a mentor The contributors describe how they came to write about the South and how they came to write about it in the way they do while reflecting on the humanistic tradition of scholarship as lived experience The contributors constitute a Who's Who of southern writers from award winning literary artists to historians Freed from constraints of their disciplines by Joyner's example they enthusiastically describe family reunions involvement in the civil rights movement research projects and mentors While not all contributors are native to the South or the United States and a few write about the South only occasionally all the essayists root their work in southern history and all have made distinguished contributions to southern writing Diverse in theme and style these writings represent each author's personal reflections on experiences living in and writing about the South while touching on topics that surfaced in Joyner's own works such as race family culture and place Whether based on personal or historical events each one speaks to Joyner's theme that all history is local history somewhere Below Baltimore Adam D. Fracchia,Patricia M.

 the city's material record from the late seventeenth century to the recent past The Fateful Lightning Kathleen her first book of the trilogy Where My Heart Is Turning Ever charted the role of magazine fiction from the Northeast in grounding the rites of citizenship following the end of the Civil War The Fateful Lightning traces the sectional conflicts in a postwar nation and how region shaped the political agendas of these postwar editorials Diffley argues that the journals she examines present stories that give unpredictable results of sectional conflict and commemorate the Civil War differently from the northeastern publishing establishments She weaves this argument through her analysis of four literary journals Baltimore's Southern Magazine Charlotte's The Land We Love Chicago's Lakeside Monthly and San Francisco's Overland Monthly Diffley uses a method of literary analysis that looks at what is not only present in the text but also present throughout its historically informed context gleaned cultural meanings from what the stories also filter out Coupling this literary analysis with city studies Diffley's innovative approach demonstrates how these editorials offer varying gauges of continued political unrest rising social opportunity and conflicting commemorative investments as Reconstruction began to unfold
