

Inscrito en una corriente de investigación que articula diversas unidades de análisis y recurre a diferentes metodologías, Más allá de la línea estudia desde una nueva perspectiva el movimiento migratorio entre México y Estados Unidos.

A partir del análisis histórico, la investigación antropológica y el empleo de métodos cuantitativos, el autor reconstruye y reinterpreta un proceso centenario que ha tenido especial significación en el occidente de México. El impacto económico de la migración, el desarrollo de diversos patrones migratorios y los efectos de ese fenómeno social en el ámbito de la cultura son las preocupaciones centrales del trabajo.

Jorge Durand es antropólogo social, con estudios en la Universidad Iberoamericana, El Colegio de Michoacán y la Universidad de Toulouse. Entre sus trabajos sobre este tema destaca su participación en Los ausentes, y en Doy gracias. Iconografía de la migración México-Estados Unidos. Además coordinó el libro Les llueve sobre mojado, y compiló la antología Migración México-Estados Unidos. Años veinte, perteneciente a esta colección.
