Masks Of Mystery Explorations In Christian Faith And Arts:

Masks of Mystery J. Daniel Brown, 1997 In this book the author walks the reader through the nature of the arts the nature of Christian faith and the historical factors which have brought us to our current crises of faith and imagination There is a connection between religious faith and artistic expression which rests in the archetypal images of human culture In our era that connection seems to be more of a disjunction Current artistic expressions do not seem to project the same images as religious faith confesses This is especially true in Western civilization Both the arts and religious faith specifically Christianity are approached as manifestations of the activity of human beings Only later do these activities become intellectualized in aesthetics and theology Understanding the artist and the believer as existing human beings the perceived disjunction can be eclipsed when we grasp the context in which the human artist and the human believer in this century find themselves at odds The crux of the disjunction is not so much the artists disbelief as religious believers seem to assume as it is the failure of traditional expressions of belief in meeting human needs and a concurrent tightening of the grip by believers on the traditional metaphors of their faith Perhaps the resolution will come in the new metaphors of the artists and a simultaneous turning by believers to give attention to the attempts of artists to speak mystery anew Arts Ministry

Michael J. Bauer, 2013-08-22 First United Methodist Church in Augusta Georgia gives concerts to raise money for local service organizations Trinity Lutheran Church in Mission Kansas has been sponsoring a religious art show for more than twenty five years Fellowship Lutheran Church runs a Christian arts camp for young people every summer These are just three of the eighteen case studies of practicing arts ministries in this book in which Michael Bauer encourages the nurture and support of all the creative gifts of God s people Bauer lays a solid foundation for arts ministry grounding it in the historic Christian tradition and urging churches to expand their engagement with the creative arts to live and worship in full color as he puts it A concluding chapter clearly lays out how to develop an arts ministry helping readers to take these ideas from theory to practice to embrace and celebrate the continuing creative activity of God in the church The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the Arts Frank Burch Brown, 2018 This volume offers 37 original essays from leading scholars on the crucial topics issues methods and resources for studying and teaching religion and the arts Children's Books that Nurture the Spirit Louise Margaret Granahan, 2003 Children develop in so many ways physically intellectually socially and spiritually Story is just one of the ways to foster and support a child s faith development They can find role models in the positive characters in literature and develop empathy for others when they see a different point of view presented Children s Books that Nurture the Spirit is an introduction to quality children s literature for spiritual development The most current and readily available children s literature is reviewed by the author In addition Granahan suggests ways for leaders to use and extend the literature ReVisioning James Romaine, Linda Stratford, 2014-05-20 ReVisioning Critical Methods of Seeing Christianity in the History of Art examines the application of art historical methods to the history of Christianity and art As methods of art history have become more interdisciplinary there has been a notable emergence of discussions of religion in art history as well as related fields such as visual culture and theology This book represents the first critical examination of scholarly methodologies applied to the study of Christian subjects themes and contexts in art ReVisioning contains original work from a range of scholars each of whom has addressed the question in regard to a well known work of art or body of work How have particular methods of art history been applied and with what effect The study moves from the third century to the present providing extensive treatment and analysis of art historical methods applied to the history of Christianity and art

Theological Aesthetics Richard Viladesau,1999 This book explores the role of aesthetic experience in our perception and understanding of the holy Richard Viladesaus goal is to articulate a theology of revelation examined in relation to three principal dimensions of the aesthetic realm feeling and imagination beauty or taste and the arts After briefly considering ways in which theology itself can be imaginative or beautiful Viladesau concentrates on the theological significance of aesthetic data provided by each of the three major spheres of aesthetic perception and response Throughout the work the underlying question is how each of these spheres serves as a source however ambiguous of revelation Although he frames much of his argument in terms of Catholic theology from the Church Fathers to Karl Rahner Hans urs von Balthasar Bernard Lonergan and David Tracy Viladesau also makes extensive use of ideas from the Protestant theologian of the arts Gerardus van der Leeuw and draws insights from such diverse thinkers as Hans Goerg Gadamer Wolfhart Pannenberg and Iris Murdoch His analysis is enlivened by the artistic examples he selects the music of Mozart as contemplated by Karl Barth Schoenbergs opera Moses und Aron the sculptures of Chartres Cathedral poems by Rilke and Michelangelo and many others What emerges from this study is what Viladeseau terms a transcendental theology of aesthetics In Thomistic terms he finds that beauty is not only a perfection but a transcendental That is any instance of beauty rightly perceived and rightly understood can be seen to imply divinely beautiful things as well In other words Viladesau argues God is the absolute and necessary condition for the possibility of beauty

Divine Beauty Daniel A. Dombrowski,2004 Offers the first detailed explication of Charles Hartshorne s aesthetic theory and its place within his theocentric philosophy

Theology and the Arts Richard Viladesau,2000 In recent years the topic of beauty has come into increasing prominence in a number of fields including theology This book explores several aspects of the relation between theology and aesthetics in both the pastoral and academic realms The underlying motif of the book is that beauty is a means of divine revelation and that art is the human mediation that both enables and limits its revelatory power Using examples from music pictorial art and rhetoric the five chapters explore different aspects of the ways that art enters into theology and theology into art both in pastoral practice for example liturgical music sacred art and preaching and in the realm of systematic reflection where the author contends art must be recognized as a genuine theological text The central chapters are followed by a discography of illustrative musical works and lists of Internet sites of sacred art and art history resources that will complement the text

Louw,2014-11-01 The experience of the divine has been referred to by many artists over the centuries whether their subject was the human figure landscape still life or indeed religious or biblical themes Art therefore requires a kind of openness a willingness to mediate rather than to control This sensitivity can best be described as humility an obeisance to something we are part of Therefore to see the unseen in visual arts brings about awe and requires iconic viewing The spiritual realm as portrayed by icons has a healing quality in a world where the news and the arts are so full of tragedy and where the church s message so often sounds escapist or na ve      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1998-06      American Book Publishing Record ,1996      Books in Print ,1991      Thou Art that Joseph Campbell,2001 This volume is the first in a series of the collected works of comparative mythologist Joseph Campbell Editor Eugene Kennedy a psychologist and former Catholic priest presents previously unavailable essays and lectures of Campbell s which focus on the symbols and metaphors of the Judaeo Christian tradition including the virgin birth the child as teacher and the cross Other topics include the purpose of myths theological inquiry and the experience of religious mystery c Book News Inc      Cumulative Book Index ,1998 A world list of books in the English language      Modernist Mysteries: Persephone Tamara Levitz,2012-08-15 Modernist Mysteries Pers phone is a landmark study that will move the field of musicology in important new directions The book presents a microhistorical analysis of the premiere of the melodrama Pers phone at the Paris Opera on April 30th 1934 engaging with the collaborative transnational nature of the production Author Tamara Levitz demonstrates how these collaborators Igor Stravinsky Andr Gide Jacques Copeau and Ida Rubinstein among others used the myth of Persephone to perform and articulate their most deeply held beliefs about four topics significant to modernism religion sexuality death and historical memory in art In investigating the aesthetic and political consequences of the artists diverging perspectives and the fall out of their titanic clash on the theater stage Levitz dismantles myths about neoclassicism as a musical style The result is a revisionary account of modernism in music in the 1930s As a result of its focus on the collaborative performance this book differs from traditional accounts of musical modernism and neoclassicism in several ways First and foremost it centers on the performance of modernism highlighting the theatrical performative and sensual Levitz places Christianity in the center of the discussion and questions the national distinctions common in modernist research by involving a transnational team of collaborators She further breaks new ground in shifting the focus from history to memory by emphasizing the commemorative nature of neoclassic listening rituals over the historicist stylization of its scores and contends that modernists captured on stage and in philosophical argument their simultaneous need and inability to mourn the past The book as a whole counters the common criticism that neoclassicism was a reactionary musical style by suggesting a more pluralistic ambivalent and sometimes even progressive politics and reconnects musical neoclassicism with a queer classicist tradition extending from Winckelmann through Walter Pater to Gide Modernist Mysteries concludes that

1930s modernists understood neoclassicism not as formalist compositional approaches but rather as a vitalist art haunted by ghosts of the past and promissory visions of the future      Academy; a Weekly Review of Literature, Learning, Science and Art ,1906 The Poetical gazette the official organ of the Poetry society and a review of poetical affairs nos 4 7 issued as supplements to the Academy v 79 Oct 15 Nov 5 Dec 3 and 31 1910      African Arts ,1969      Collier's ,1926      The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1929      Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1929
