Masque World:

The Theatre of Praise Joanne Altieri, 1986 A critical examination of panegyric theatre from its beginnings in the masque city pageant and history plays to its varied culmination on the Restoration musical stage Masqued Mysteries

Unmasked Kristin Rygg, 2000 Exploring the English court masque as music theater Rygg musicology Hedmark College Norway finds that particularly the Jonsonian masque of the first third of the 17th century carried within it a potential function as an early modern mystery with roots in the ancient Pythagorean school It was a mystery she says in which poetry music and dance were prime vehicles of transcendence No information is provided about the series the volumes seems to begin Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Mental World of the Jacobean Court Linda Levy Peck, 2005-10-13 New interpretations of Jacobean court culture by an international group of specialists The Masque of Stuart Culture Jerzy Limon, 1990 Limon presents an unconventional approach to the Stuart masque discussing the masque as a form of courtly ritual rather than a truly theatrical performance As seen from this perspective the masque is the deepest most complex and many faceted reflection of early Stuart culture Politics and Political Culture in the Court Masque J. Knowles, 2015-06-17 Politics and Political Culture in the Court Masque considers the interconnections of the masque and political culture It examines how masques responded to political forces and voices beyond the court and how masques explored the limits of political speech in the Jacobean and Caroline periods Spatial Representations and the Jacobean Stage R. West, 2015-12-28 Spatial Representations and the Jacobean Stage offers a timely alternative to theatre criticism's neglect of the intensely spatial character of theatrical performance The book shows that early modern audiences were highly aware of the spatial aspects of the stage West examines the ways Jacobean dramatists used stage space to explore the spatial transformations of early modern society social mobility wandering populations rural enclosure sea travel localized empirical thought Dramas by Shakespeare Jonson Middleton and Webster are scrutinized for their treatment of these controversial themes The Politics of the Stuart Court Masque David Bevington, Peter Holbrook, 1998-11-19 A 1998 collection which takes an alternative look at the courtly masque in early seventeenth century England Masque World Alexei Panshin, 1959

Heterotropic Theatres Russell West-Pavlov, 2025-05-26 This book seeks to elaborate a theory of troping that expands the purview of linguistic work and agency parsing its transformative work beyond the limits usually set by theories of language It registers a sea change in the theorization of theatrical art from representation to intervention The book thereby seeks to lay bare the activity of language as a heterotopology It focuses on early modern theatre from Shakespeare Hamlet Macbeth Romeo and Juliet Troilus and Cressida and other theatrical forms of the same era the Court Masque dramas by Ford or Johnson through to the Restoration it also reads a number of contemporary avatars of Shakespearean texts from Stoppard to Jones and of early modern and postmodern performance spaces such as the New Globe Theatre In a dozen readings of early modern theatre it asks how the remarkable energy and social purchase ascribed to theatrical language by contemporary commentators can be reconceptualized mobilized anew and thus harnessed for our own turbulent times

George Herbert and Early Modern Musical Culture Simon Jackson, 2022-12 The first full length study to uncover the profound impact of early modern musical culture on George Herbert's religious verse

Devil Theatre Jan Frans van Dijkhuizen, 2007 The so called Devil Theatre is here set against its context of non dramatic texts on possession and exorcism providing many new insights Representations of demonic possession and exorcism rituals abound in English Renaissance drama an area which this book seeks to illuminate by comparison with non dramatic works The author investigates stage images of possession in relation to a range of early modern demonological theological and medical prose texts on the subject looking specifically at how the theatre responded to these texts He argues that the stage appropriated debates over demonic possession to explore the competing roles of the inner life and the body in early modern definitions of selfhood The theatre also employed the contemporary controversy over possession and exorcism to investigate the politics of religion and to consider the nature of monarchic power Moreover because demonic possession cases and exorcism rituals were frequently dismissed by conformist writers as a piece of theatre they offered an opportunity to reflect on the nature of drama and role playing JAN FRANS VAN DIJKHUIZEN is lecturer and research fellow at the University of Leiden

Literature and Weather Johannes Ungelenk, 2018-02-19 Literature and Weather Shakespeare Goethe Zola is dedicated to the relation between literature and weather i e a cultural practice and an everyday phenomenon that has played very different epistemic roles in the history of the world The study undertakes an archaeology of literature's affinity to the weather which tells the story of literature's weathery self reflection and its creative reinventions as a medium in different epistemic and social circumstances The book undertakes extensive close readings of three exemplary literary texts Shakespeare's The Tempest Goethe's The Sufferings of Young Werther and Zola's The Rougon Macquarts These readings provide the basis for reconstructing three distinct formations negotiating the relationship between literature and weather in the 17th the 18th and the 19th centuries The study is a pioneering contribution to the recent debates of literature's indebtedness to the environment It initiates a rewriting of literary history that is weather sensitive the question of literature's agency its power to affect cannot be raised without understanding the way the weather works in a certain cultural formation

Vision and Rhetoric in Shakespeare A. Thorne, 2000-08-01 This major new interdisciplinary study argues that Shakespeare exploited long established connections between vision space and language in order to construct rhetorical equivalents for visual perspective Through a detailed comparison of art and poetic theory in Italy and England Thorne shows how perspective was appropriated by English writers who reinterpreted it to suit their own literary concerns and cultural context Focusing on five Shakespearean plays she situates their preoccupation with issues of viewpoint in relation to a range of artistic forms and topics from miniatures to masques

The World's Progress ... Delphian Society, 1913 The World's Work , 1920 The Cambridge History of Seventeenth-Century Music Tim Carter, John Butt, 2005-12-22 The Cambridge History of Seventeenth Century Music

Performing the Renaissance Body Sidia Fiorato, John Drakakis, 2016-03-21 In the Renaissance period the body emerges as the repository of social and cultural forces and a privileged metaphor for political practices and legal codification Due to its ambivalent expressive force it represents the seat and the means for the performance of normative identity and at the same time of alterity The essays of the collection address the manifold articulations of this topic demonstrating how the inscription of the body within the discursive spheres of gender identity sexuality law and politics align its materiality with discourses whose effects are themselves material The aesthetic and performative dimension of law inform the debates on the juridical constitution of authority as well as its reflection on the formation and the moulding of individual subjectivity Moreover the inherently theatrical elements of the law find an analogy in the popular theatre where juridical practices are represented challenged occasionally subverted or created The works analyzed in the volume in their ample spectre of topics and contexts aim at demonstrating how in the Renaissance period the body was the privileged focus of the social legal and cultural imagination

Marriage, Performance, and Politics at the Jacobean Court Kevin Curran, 2016-05-06 Marriage Performance and Politics at the Jacobean Court constitutes the first full length study of Jacobean nuptial performance a hitherto unexplored branch of early modern theater consisting of masques and entertainments performed for high profile weddings Scripted by such writers as Ben Jonson Thomas Campion George Chapman and Francis Beaumont these entertainments were mounted for some of the most significant political events of James s English reign Here Kevin Curran analyzes all six of the elite weddings celebrated at the Jacobean court reading the masques and entertainments that headlined these events alongside contemporaneously produced panegyrics festival books sermons parliamentary speeches and other sources The study shows how collectively wedding entertainments turned the idea of union into a politically versatile category of national representation and offered new ways of imagining a specifically Jacobean form of national identity by doing so
