Maier, 2019-04-30 With the purpose of introducing Marie Corelli to a new generation of readers and of reconsidering her works for generations familiar with them Reinventing Marie Corelli for the Twenty First Century demonstrates how provocative the author was as a public figure and how controversial and paradoxical were the views about womanhood and the supernatural pitched in her novels This collection of original essays focuses on three major battles that engaged Corelli her personal and public contentions her mercurial constructions of gender and resistance to the New Woman modality and her untenable reconciliation of science with the supernatural Corelli was often fighting several fronts at the same time she rarely was not at war with someone including herself Claude Cahun Gen Doy, 2020-08-13 This is the first single authored book in English on the photographer Claude Cahun whose work was rediscovered in the 1980s Doy moves beyond standard postmodern approaches instead repositioning the artist born Lucy Schwob in the context of the turbulent times in which she lived and seeing the photographs as part of Cahun's wider life as an artist and writer a woman and lesbian and as a political activist in the early twentieth century Doy rethinks Cahun's approach to dress and masquerade looking at the images in light of the situation of women at the time and within the prevailing beauty culture Addressing Cahun's ambivalent relationship with Symbolism and later relationship with Surrealism this highly readable book also looks at Cahun's unusual approach to the domestic object

Dressing and Undressing Duchamp Ingrid E. Mida, 2022-08-25 Fashion is a subject that has long been marginalized in art history and in museums And yet one of the most well known artists in the twentieth century Marcel Duchamp created works that challenge the notion that fashion does not belong in the museum As well there is material evidence of his engagement with clothing as part of his oeuvre This book reveals that clothing and dressing are significant themes that recur in Duchamp's life and his work including his drawings his fashioning of his body his readymades and in his curatorial gestures In examining the items of clothing worn by Duchamp and the related traces of his wardrobe management Duchamp is unmasked as a dandy His waistcoat readymade series Made to Measure 1957-1961 is in fact a remarkable and deliberate effort to recalibrate the definition of the readymade to include clothing With this little studied readymade series Duchamp established a precedent for sartorial art as a valid form of artistic expression In considering the material traces of Duchamp's fashioning of his body and identity in his work and life this book makes a highly original contribution to the understanding of Duchamp's work as well as the significance of the clothed body in the vanguard of Modernism Ultimately this book explains the relevance of fashion in the museum to modern audiences today

Queer Tracks: Subversive Strategies in Rock and Pop Music Doris Leibetseder, 2016-05-23 Queer Tracks describes motifs in popular music that deviate from heterosexual orientation the binary gender system and fixed identities This exciting cutting edge work deals with the key concepts of current gender politics and queer theory in rock and pop music including irony parody camp mask masquerade mimesis mimicry cyborg transsexuality and dildo Based on a constructivist concept of gender Leibetseder asks

Which queer feminist strategies are used in rock and pop music How do they function Where do they occur Leibetseder s methodological process is to discover subversive strategies in queer theory which are also used in rock and pop music without assuming that these tactics were first invented in theory Furthermore this book explains where exactly the subversiveness is situated in those strategies and in popular music With the help of a new kind of knowledge transfer the author combines sociological and cultural theories with practical examples of rock and pop music The subversive character of these queer motifs is shown in the work of contemporary popular musicians and is at the same time related to classical discourses of the humanities Queer Tracks is a revised translation of Queere Tracks Subversive Strategien in Rock und Popmusik originally published in German Cuban Women and Salsa D. Poey,2014-10-23 Salsa is both an American and transnational phenomenon however women in salsa have been neglected To explore how female singers negotiate issues of gender race and nation through their performances Poey engages with the ways they problematize the idea of the nation and facilitate their musical performances movement across multiple borders Fashion Christopher Breward,2003-04-24 This lively survey of 150 years of fashion covers everything from Haute Couture to the High Street From Coco Chanel to Alexander McQueen Breward explores fashion as a cultural phenomenon Topics include fashion in film the world of Vogue and advertising and the use of fashion to create identity from the Flapper to the New Look and Dandy to Punk How Paris Became Paris Joan DeJean,2015-04-07 Documents the century long transformation of Paris from a medieval center to the modern city that is recognized today revealing how the Parisian urban model was actually invented in the 1700s when period leaders tore down fortifications created public parks and constructed streets and bridges 25 000 first printing Screening Statues Steven Jacobs,2018-04-30 A dynamic scholarly engagement with Susanne Bier s work Bodies in Early Modern Religious Dissent Elisabeth Fischer,Xenia von Tippelskirch,2021-05-31 In early modern times religious affiliation was often communicated through bodily practices Despite various attempts at definition these practices remained extremely fluid and lent themselves to individual appropriation and to evasion of church and state control Because bodily practices prompted much debate they serve as a useful starting point for examining denominational divisions allowing scholars to explore the actions of smaller and more radical divergent groups The focus on bodies and conflicts over bodily practices are the starting point for the contributors to this volume who depart from established national and denominational historiographies to probe the often ambiguous phenomena occurring at the interstices of confessional boundaries In this way the authors examine a variety of religious living conditions socio cultural groups and spiritual networks of early modern Europe and the Americas The cases gathered here skillfully demonstrate the diverse ways in which regional and local differences affected the interpretation of bodily signs This book will appeal to scholars and students of early modern Europe and the Americas as well as those interested in religious and gender history and the history of dissent Embodying Militarism Synne L. Dyvik,Lauren Greenwood,2018-02-02 How are militarism and militarisation embodied and why is it important to study these concepts together This volume highlights a lack of research into people s emotions bodies and experiences in global politics and brings these important dimensions to bear on how we study militarism and process of militarisation This collection showcases innovative research that examines people s everyday lived experience and the multiple ways militarism is enshrined in our societies Emphasising the benefits of interdisciplinary thinking its chapters interrogate a range of methodological ethical and theoretical questions related to embodiment and militarism from a range of empirical contexts Authors from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds reveal the myriad of ways in which militarism is experienced by gendered raced aged and sexed bodies The volume covers a wide range of topics including the impact of social media gender queer and feminist research on the military the challenges of writing about embodied experience and the commercialisation of military fitness in civilian life This book fills a gap in the study of militarism and militarisation and will be of interest to students and scholars of critical military studies security studies and war studies It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Critical Military Studies

Motherhood, Respectability and Baby-Farming in Victorian and Edwardian London Joshua Stuart-Bennett, 2022-11-10 Motherhood Respectability and Baby Farming in Victorian and Edwardian London explores a largely obscured marketplace of motherhood that provided ways for women to manage the stigma of illegitimacy and their respectable identities within Victorian and Edwardian society It focuses on the extent of women s dirty work when maternal problem management was fundamental to the general maintenance of respectability and by extension to Empire and Civilisation Despite its intrigue history has struggled to understand and represent an uncomfortable but significant artefact of Western modernising society baby farming During a period when ideologies of respectability and civilisation arguably mattered most the right kind of parenthood especially motherhood became paramount As the wrong offspring could jeopardise a woman s chances of being respectable a wholesale informal and somewhat clandestine marketplace emerged that catered to various maternal difficulties Within this marketplace a pregnancy or newborn child who may have compromised a woman s respectability could be disposed of through different means for a fee From the Victorian period to the present the commercialised maternal practices associated with baby farming have become firmly established within collective consciousness as being synonymous with child murder female pathology and infanticide for hire This book provides a revised far more complex and nuanced narrative history which reveals all that was associated with baby farming including all possible outcomes to be entirely natural rational and even necessary products of their time an understandable outcome of the period s civilising offensive Motherhood Respectability and Baby Farming in Victorian and Edwardian London will be of great interest to students and scholars of criminology sociology history and gender studies
