Cataloging beyond the Notes: Annotating Bibliographic Records for Music Effectively in RDA Ralph Hartsock,Peter H. Lisius,2022 In Cataloging beyond the Notes Annotating Bibliographic Records for Music Effectively in RDA authors Ralph Hartsock and Peter Lisius present examples illustrating the effective use of notes in the description of music and this is especially important with RDA Since RDA has increased granularity in the description of music whether in score recording video or data formats the expert direction offered in Cataloging beyond the Notes makes it a key reference for music cataloging Bibliographic records are presented using MARC21 An essential resource for practicing music catalogers Cataloging beyond the Notes begins with a comprehensive introduction including instructions on how to use the book and presents examples of the granular data that informs users about specific details In addition the examples are augmented by the authors commentary so that the result is expert guidance in a single highly accessible publication More than that navigation to and from the newer RDA format is facilitated by an appendix keyed to specific RDA details Frequently used and related terms are also covered in a glossary specific to this volume Taken as a whole Cataloging beyond the Notes belongs in every music library and on each cataloger s desk 100 Hits of Classical Music Robert

Ginalski,2021-09-30 Do you know the stories behind how the greatest hits of classical music were created Robert Ginalski discovers the secrets behind world famous melodies Even if you re not a classical music lover you will get carried away by stories that break with the perceived stereotypes of classical music The reader friendly style anecdotes and references to popular culture will rekindle the charm of the classics for you Bach Prokofiev Mozart and Tchaikovsky are all given the author s special attention By the end of the book you will realise that classical music is much more than what your music teacher told you in school Better known for his work as a translator 100 Hits of Classical Music is Robert Ginalski s debut as an author Ginalski perfected his craft as a writer by translating the works of Frederick Forsyth and Alistair MacLean
