Mass Communications A Comparative Introduction:

Mass Communications Rowland Lorimer, Paddy Scannell, 1994      Mass Media and Society in Nigeria Lai Oso, Umaru Pate, 2012-05-30 This collection of essays originates from discussions at various fora about the need for Nigerian media scholars to analyse the country's media industry and practice. Some of the areas covered are Socio-historical context of the development of Nigerian media, A critical analysis of state press relations in Nigeria 1999-2005, Journalism ethics in Nigeria and Newspapers, cartoons, portrayal of human rights abuses in periods of economic deregulation in Nigeria.      The Television Studies Reader Robert Clyde Allen, Annette Hill, 2004 The Television Studies Reader brings together key writings in the expanding field of television studies providing an overview of the discipline and addressing issues of industry, genre, audiences, production and ownership and representation. The Reader charts the ways in which television and television studies are being redefined by new and alternative ways of producing, broadcasting and watching TV, such as cable, satellite and digital broadcasting, home video, internet broadcasting and interactive TV, as well as exploring the recent boom in genres such as reality TV and docu-soaps. It brings together articles from leading international scholars to provide perspectives on television programmes and practices from around the world, acknowledging both television's status as a global medium and the many and varied local contexts of its production and reception. Articles are grouped in seven themed sections, each with an introduction by the editors: Institutions of Television, Spaces of Television, Modes of Television, Making Television, Social Representation on Television, Watching Television, Transforming Television.      Healthcare Policy and Reform: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2018-08-03 Industry professionals, government officials and the general public often agree that the modern healthcare system is in need of an overhaul. With many organizations concerned with the long-term care of patients, new strategies, practices and organizational tools must be developed to optimize the current healthcare system. Healthcare Policy and Reform: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools and Applications is a comprehensive source of academic material on the importance of policy and policy reform initiatives in modern healthcare systems. Highlighting a range of topics such as public health, effective care delivery and health information systems, this multi-volume book is designed for medical practitioners, medical administrators, professionals, academicians and researchers interested in all aspects of healthcare policy and reform.      Media and Democracy in Africa Michael Leslie, 2017-07-05 Recent discussion of democratization in Africa has focused primarily on the reform of formal state institutions, the public service, the judiciary and the legislature. Similarly, both scholars and activists have shown interest in how associational life and with it a civil society might be enhanced in the countries of the African continent. Much less concern, however, has been directed to the communications media, although they form a vital part of this process. Media and Democracy in Africa provides the first comprehensive and up-to-date assessment of the role of the media in political change in sub-Saharan Africa. The central argument of the volume is that while the media may still be relatively weak compared to their positions in liberal democracies they have come to play a much more important role than ever before since independence Although they have not yet demonstrated sufficient effectiveness as public watchdogs and agenda setters they have succeeded in creating new communicative spaces for people who have previously been intimidated or silent Building on this the contributors argue that a different conceptualization of democratization than the mainstream currently uses may be necessary to capture the process in Africa where it is characterized by contestation rather than consolidation This volume shows that the media scene in Africa is diverse It stretches from the well developed and technologically advanced situation in South Africa to the still fledgling media operations that are typical in sub Saharan Africa In these countries print media as well as television and radio are just beginning to take their place in society and do so using simple and often outdated technology The volume also examines how these growing outlets are supplemented by informal media the so called radio trottoir or rumor mill whereby the autocratic and bureaucratic direction of public affairs are subject to private speculation and analysis Media and Democracy in Africa is organized to provide a historical perspective on the evolution of the African media placing the present in the context of the past including both colonial and post colonial experiences It will be of interest to Africa area specialists students of media and communications political scientists and sociologists Mass Communication in Canada Rowland Lorimer, Mike Gasher, 2001 This introductory text for mass communications courses covers communication and its effect on Canadian society It provides a framework for understanding the rapidly changing field of mass communication in all its forms Media Studies Sarah Casey Benyahia, Abigail Gardner, Philip Rayner, Senior Lecturer and Chair of Media Communications Philip Rayner, Peter Wall, 2013-03-07 A unique collection of resources for all those studying the media at university and pre university level this book brings together a wide array of material including advertisements political cartoons and academic articles with supporting commentary and explanation to clarify their importance to Media Studies In addition activities and further reading and research are suggested to help kick start students autonomy The book is organized around three main sections Reading the Media Audiences and Institutions and is edited by the same teachers and examiners who brought us the hugely successful AS Media Studies The Essential Introduction This is an ideal companion or standalone sourcebook to help students engage critically with media texts its key features include further reading suggestions a comprehensive bibliography a list of web resources Impacts of the Media on African Socio-Economic Development Nelson, Okorie, Ojebuyi, Babatunde Raphael, Salawu, Abiodun, 2016-11-23 Technology and media are now integrated in various facets of society including social and economic development This has allowed for new and innovative methods for aiding in development initiatives Impacts of the Media on African Socio Economic Development is an essential research publication for the latest scholarly information on societal and economical dimensions of development and the application of media to advance progress Featuring extensive coverage on many topics including gender empowerment international business and health promotion this book is ideally designed for government officials academics professionals and students seeking current research on social realities and achieving further development in emerging economies      Media Influence: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources,2017-12-01 In the digital era users from around the world are constantly connected over a global network and they can connect share and collaborate like never before To make the most of this new environment researchers and software developers must understand the influence of the global network on users Media Influence Breakthroughs in Research and Practice is a comprehensive reference source for the latest scholarly material on the effect of media on cultures individuals and groups Highlighting a range of pertinent topics such as social media media ethics and audience engagement this multi volume book is ideally designed for researchers academics professionals students and practitioners interested in media influence      Post-Communism and the Media in Eastern Europe Patrick H.
