Mass Identity Architecture Architectural Writings Of Jean Baudrillard:

Mass Identity Architecture Jean Baudrillard, 2006-07-11 This new edition further explores the connection between the cultural analysis provided by the contemporary philosopher Jean Baudrillard and the new star of global culture architecture In a world in which images have become a substitute for reality i e simulacra capable of both stimulating and satisfying collective needs the question arises as to whether architecture could be seen as a super fetish capable of both mirroring and shaping western society s culture and identity The aim of this book is thus to provide new methodologies and to suggest new meanings for the comprehension and development of contemporary architecture In Baudrillard s terms architecture could be seen as the supreme medium of contemporary visual culture especially in its potential to influence the individual s perception of reality as a component of the mass media system This kind of cultural analysis of the built environment and its effect on everyday life is still a relatively new phenomenon both in the fields of critical theory and even more so in mainstream architectural criticism This book which forms a significant resource on the work of an immensely important writer should appeal to a wide range of readers Through highly evocative writing it provides a theoretical illuminating pathway for everyone who either directly or indirectly is involved or interested in architecture urbanism and related subjects Jean

Baudrillard Richard J. Lane, 2008-12-08 Jean Baudrillard is one of the most controversial theorists of our time famous for his claim that the Gulf War never happened and for his provocative writing on terrorism specifically 9 11 This new and fully updated second edition includes an introduction to Baudrillard s key works and theories such as simulation and hyperreality coverage of Baudrillard s later work on the question of postmodernism a new chapter on Baudrillard and terrorism engagement with architecture and urbanism through the Utopie group a look at the most recent applications of Baudrillard s ideas Richard J Lane offers a comprehensive introduction to this complex and fascinating theorist also examining the impact that Baudrillard has had on literary studies media and cultural studies sociology philosophy and postmodernism

Baudrillard for Architects Francesco Proto, 2019-12-06 Marginalized due to the deployment of both a highly specialized jargon and a novel stylistic approach meant to upset established norms and conventions Baudrillard s thought has suffered from the lack of an accessible consistent and comprehensive exposition able to make it relevant to diverse contemporary disciplines As a result its impact on architecture has always been confined to academia By presenting an introductory but in depth formalization of Baudrillard s interest in architecture and related fields this book makes intelligible his philosophical premises thus showing through the prism of architecture their relevance and persuasiveness today Key concepts such as the object system the code simulation hyperreality and precession to name a few are addressed in the light of the specially reconceptualized key construct of ambience thus emphasizing how the mutual concerns of architecture urban studies and cultural studies provide a fertile ground for debate Such an approach which focuses on the contradictions inherent in contemporary society from the vantage point of Baudrillard s original involvement in architectural analysis philosophy and criticism is one which students practitioners and scholars alike from as diverse disciplines as architecture interior design and urban studies but also fine art anthropology sociology economics human geography social psychology and cultural studies to start with will benefit from immensely     Architecture and the Unconscious John Shannon Hendrix, Lorens Eyan Holm, 2016-06-17 There are a number of recent texts that draw on psychoanalytic theory as an interpretative approach for understanding architecture or that use the formal and social logics of architecture for understanding the psyche But there remains work to be done in bringing what largely amounts to a series of independent voices into a discourse that is greater than the sum of its parts in the way that say the architect Peter Eisenman was able to do with the architecture of deconstruction or that the historian Manfredo Tafuri was able to do with the Marxist critique of architecture The discourse of the present volume focuses specifically for the first time on the subject of the unconscious in relation to the design perception and understanding of architecture It brings together an international group of contributors who provide informed and varied points of view on the role of the unconscious in architectural design and theory and in doing so expand architectural theory to unexplored areas enriching architecture in relation to the humanities The book explores how architecture engages dreams desires imagination memory and emotions how architecture can appeal to a broader scope of human experience and identity Beginning by examining the historical development of the engagement of the unconscious in architectural discourse and the current and historical theoretical and practical intersections of architecture and psychoanalysis the volume also analyses the city and the urban condition     Walter Benjamin and the Aesthetics of Change A. M. Pusca, 2010-01-20 Following the spirit of Benjamin's Arcades Project this book acts as a kaleidoscope of change in the 21st century tracing its different reflections in the international contemporary while seeking to understand individual collective reactions to change through a series of creative methodologies     Lacan + Architecture John Shannon Hendrix, Francesco Proto, 2024-11-14 This book seeks to revise and revive architectural theory through psychoanalysis as well as to apply psychoanalytic theory to architecture Its authors argue for Lacan's central importance for a comprehensive theory of building and suggest how architectural theory might offer new resources for psychoanalytic theorists They address both the perceived crisis in the contemporary state of architecture and architectural theory and crises in society at large including political and economic fracture and instability and threats to mental health and well being It offers fresh insights to architects architectural educators and practitioners scholars of psychoanalysis and anyone interested in the human condition in relation to the built environment This book is shortlisted for the 2025 Architectural Theory Book and Book of the Year Awards     Jean Baudrillard: The Disappearance of Culture Richard G. Smith, 2017-04-28 Originally published between 1968 and 2009 this collection of 25 pieces includes six interviews translated into English for the first time and a new transcription of a Q A session with Baudrillard following a lecture he gave in London in 1994 The guiding theme of the collection is Baudrillard's engagement with culture The implications of the implosion of Western culture are dissected and documented in the rich range of material included here      The Jean Baudrillard Reader Steve Redhead, 2008 Jean Baudrillard 1929 2007 was a controversial social and cultural theorist known for his trenchant analyses of media and technological communication Belonging to the generation of French thinkers that included Gilles Deleuze Jean Fran ois Lyotard Michel Foucault and Jacques Lacan Baudrillard has at times been vilified by his detractors but the influence of his work on critical thought and pop culture is impossible to deny many might recognize his name from The Matrix movies which claimed to be based on the French theorist s ideas Steve Redhead takes a fresh look at Baudrillard in relation to the intellectual and political climates in which he wrote Baudrillard sought to produce a theory of modernity but the modern world of the 1950s was radically different from the reality of the early twenty first century Beginning with Baudrillard s initial publications in the 1960s and concluding with his writings on 9 11 and Abu Ghraib Redhead guides the reader through Baudrillard s difficult texts and unorthodox views on current issues He also proposes an original theory of Baudrillard s relation to postmodernism presenting the theorist s work as non postmodernist after Bruno Latour s concept of non modernity Each section of the Reader includes an extract from one of Baudrillard s writings prefaced by a short bibliographical introduction that places the piece in context and puts the debate surrounding the theorist into sharp perspective The conflict over Baudrillard s legacy stems largely from the fact that a comprehensive selection of his writings has yet to be translated and collected into one volume The Jean Baudrillard Reader provides an expansive and much needed portrait of the critic s resonant work      Architectural Colossi and the Human Body Charalampos Politakis, 2017-08-10 The human body has been used as both a model and metaphor in architecture since antiquity This book explores how it has been an inspiration for the exterior form of architectural colossi through the years It considers the body as a source of architectural and artistic representation and in doing so explores the results of such practices in colossal sculptures and architectural praxis within a philosophical discourse of space time and media Architectural Colossi and the Human Body discusses the role of Platonic and Cartesian philosophy and how philosophers such as Heidegger and Merleau Ponty and theoreticians such as Frascari and Pallasmaa have seen described and analysed the human body and the role of architecture and perception Drawing upon three key case studies and by employing theoretical ideas of Venturi and others this book will provide an understanding of the role of anthromorphism and the relation and use of the human body with reference to selected architects and artists      Poetry, Architecture, and the New York School Mae Losasso, 2023-12-20 Poetry Architecture and the New York School Something Like a Liveable Space examines the relationship between poetics and architecture in the work of the first generation New York School poets Frank O Hara John Ashbery Barbara Guest and James Schuyler Reappraising the much debated New York School label Mae Losasso shows how these writers constructed poetic spaces structures surfaces and apertures and sought to figure themselves and their readers in relation to these architextual sites In doing so Losasso reveals how the built environment shapes the poetic imagination and how in turn poetry alters the way we read and inhabit architectural space Animated by archival research and architectural photographs Poetry Architecture and the New York School marks a decisive interdisciplinary turn in New York School studies and offers new frameworks for thinking about postmodern American poetry in the twenty first century Urban Constellations Zoë Thompson,2016-02-11 This book investigates the iconic architectural cultural spaces of the contemporary cityscape as engines of regeneration Promising much to their fading locales these spaces locate culture in the space where production once ruled in order to revitalise post industrial urban provinces With close attention to four sites across the UK Urban Constellations engages with the work of Walter Benjamin and Jean Baudrillard to read these spaces and in so doing offer a critical intervention into the theory and experience of contemporary cityscapes Developing the notion of surface ethnography as a methodological approach to examining the form of cultural experience produced by urban cultural spaces the author sheds light on the manner in which they transform cultural spectatorship express wider political and ecological concerns and offer differing views to the native and the tourist in the construction of local history The book also examines the decline of the idea that iconic projects can drive regeneration in the failures and delays that can beset such undertakings Offering a rich examination of the legacy of urban change in its most recent formulation that of cultural regeneration this book reveals the fragile potential of the spaces produced by contemporary dream houses and as such will be of interest to scholars of cultural studies sociology and social theory urban studies cultural geography and architecture The Evolution of European Identities Graham Day,Robert Miller,2012-06-29 The European project is in a state of perpetual crisis in which the root cause is a lack of identification by ordinary citizens with Europe and European institutions The Evolution of European Identities employs state of the art analysis of in depth interviews by renowned practitioners to give a unique bottoms up perspective on the development or its lack of a sense of European mental space Linking conceptual findings with case studies the book provides unique insights into groups that have been especially sensitized by their life experiences to question what it means to be European in the twenty first century The groups explored in this book include adults who experienced European education exchanges when young transnational workers civil society organization activists persons involved in cross border intimate relationships farmers who are subject to European markets regulations and subsidies and migrants into fortress Europe How Architecture Learned to Speculate Mona Mahall,Asli Serbest,2009 For the first time the speculative in architecture becomes a topic of critical research It is investigated not as idealistic but as strategic acting within endless modernity This modernity implies that speculation as strategic acting is not only applied to economic but also to political and aesthetic values Values become mobile valuations become a play with highs and lows authors architects become winners or losers and culture becomes fashion Includes projects by NL Architects MVRDV Aristide Antonas FAT Ralf Schreiber Pascual Sisto Ant Farm Caspar Stracke OMA JODI Kevin Bauman and others From publisher s website Thinking about Architecture Colin Davies,2011-10-17 In order to understand architecture in all its cultural complexity it is necessary to grasp such basic concepts as representation form and space The aim of this book is to provide teachers students practising architects and general readers with a set of ideas that will enrich their conversation their writing and above all their thinking about architecture The book is divided into eight chapters each covering a particular aspect of architecture and introduces difficult concepts gradually Architectural theorists and philosophers are mentioned in passing and their works are listed in the bibliography but they are not the subject of the book Architecture rather than philosophy is at the centre of the picture The aim is to enable the reader to understand architecture in all its aspects rather than to learn the names of particular theorists Written in a conversational style Thinking about Architecture is an invaluable and accessible standard introduction to architectural theory

Images, Representations and Heritage Ian

Russell, 2006-11-24 Recent archaeological theory has show that images of the past have carried a particularly strong resonance within modern social groups This volume explores the immeasurable impact that the phenomenon of archaeology has had on the representation of the past in the modern world Modern society s archaeological imagination conceives of archaeology as a producer of images of the past which become representations of modern group identities If archaeology is utilized by public groups to construct and represent identities then what are archaeologists to do with that public The very fact that the public is interested in the past and in archaeological research is an opportunity for archaeology to engage that public Participation in the public s modern interest in archaeology however puts archaeology at risk The growing role of archaeology and heritage within the economics of tourism has led to a commodification of archaeological knowledge and experience for consumption This volume begins a discourse on the implications of performing archaeology in a world dominated by modern trends of mass production mass replication and representation of cultural forms and mass consumption of images of the past The contributors explore to what extent we are experiencing a crisis of representation of the past due to contemporary consumption of mass produced replicas simulations images and experiences of the past To work through this crisis the contributors in this volume are exploring opportunities for development within archaeological thought and practice Their arguments illustrate a move towards active participatory and poetic archaeological thought and practice Rather than focusing on what is produced through process artifacts monuments interpretive centers etc they are concerned with what they are doing about taking part about participating reflexively in the tradition of understanding and expressing understanding of the past This volume does not conjure up romantic beliefs about the project of archaeology but rather it signals a fundamental revision of archaeology not what it is but what it can do

New Glass Architecture Brent

Richards, Gilbert Dennis, 2006-01-01 A timely look at the ways in which glass is utilized in some of today s most beautiful and experimental building designs For centuries glass has provoked fascination with its properties as a versatile material that permits light to enter buildings in spectacular ways Much of modern architecture has been conceived by using glass to create increasingly minimal structures to promote the notion of lightweight construction solutions and to allow maximum daylight into buildings New Glass Architecture showcases the changing ways that aesthetics and methods for using glass have been developing since the 1990s The book begins with an introduction that traces the history of key moments in glass architecture from the stained glass windows of Chartres Cathedral to the Crystal Palace of 1851 and early constructions by John Soane Bruno Taut Le Corbusier and Mies van der Rohe Author Brent Richards explains the importance of glass artists in the second half of the 20th century and describes developments in glass technology over the last twenty years Beautifully illustrated with newly commissioned photographs by Dennis Gilbert the book features twenty five case studies of recent glass constructions from around the world by such leading architects as Foster and Partners Frank Gehry Herzog de Meuron Steven Holl Toyo Ito Associates Jean Nouvel Raphael Violy and Peter Zumthor Each building is illustrated in full color and accompanied by detailed drawings New Glass Architecture features these buildings and more Chapel of Ignatius Seattle Cond Nast Caf New York DZ Bank Berlin Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts Philadelphia Kunsthaus Graz Austria Laban Dance Centre London Torre Agbar Barcelona

Unexpected Affinities Pablo Meninato, 2018-05-23 While the concept of type has been present in architectural discourse since its formal introduction at the end of the eighteenth century its role in the development of architectural projects has not been comprehensively analyzed This book proposes a reassessment of architectural type throughout history and its impact on the development of architectural theory and practice Beginning with Laugier's 1753 Essay on Architecture Unexpected Affinities The History of Type in the Architectural Project from Laugier to Duchamp traces type through nineteenth and twentieth century architectural movements and theories culminating in a discussion of the affinities between architectural type and Duchamp's concept of the readymade Includes over sixty black and white images

Classicism and the Construction of Capital Cities Richard Alston, 2025-05-15 Exploring the intriguing interplay between tradition and modernity in the 19th century capitals of London Athens and Rome Richard Alston delves into the political and architectural choices that shaped these cities as representations of self consciously modern nations Politicians and architects invested in classical styles in their efforts to break with traditions and assert new values Classical style was employed to address questions of urbanism and nation citizenship and belonging and history and civilization The story of 19th century architectural Classicism offers a compelling narrative of utopian dreams clashing with authoritarian politics to generate the complexities of modern urban landscapes Through these three case studies this book illuminates how Classicism became a potent tool for expressing elitist nationalism in London excluding Greeks from their own capital in Athens and reinforcing aspiration to a technocratic new Rome As such grand visions collided with modern urban realities Alston unravels the mythic allure and ultimate failure of these utopian endeavours This book presents a riveting exploration of the architectural choices that reflected the aspirations and challenges of a rapidly changing world leaving a lasting impact on the capitals and their nations
