Mass Media Christianity:

Religion and Mass Media Daniel A. Stout, Judith M. Buddenbaum, 1996-03-21 How do religious audiences react to and use the media How do institutional religious influences and expectations affect how they experience media news and entertainment Drawing on theory and empirical research contributors to Religion and Mass Media explore these questions from Jewish Roman Catholic Evangelical Protestant Fundamentalist and Mormon audience perspectives The book looks at recent theoretical developments in the sociology of religion and communication theory offers an overview of specific religious beliefs examines audience behaviour and describes specific case studies including the use of gospel rap and contemporary Mass Media Christianity Jerry D. Cardwell, 1984-10-31 music in black religious communities Media in Church and Mission Viggo Sogaard, Viggo Søgaard, 1993 Summarizing the Dimensions of Christian Communication Too many today are borrowing uncritically from the world of secular marketing and seem to be blithely unaware that the gospel is not a consumer product to be sold persuasively to a waiting world There is a great temptation to be so focused on felt needs that the gospel ceases being the narrow way and becomes instead a broad way to human fulfillment Unless real caution is exercised masses are attracted and churches become filled with those to whom Christianity is only a veneer over an otherwise secular life S gaard succeeds in driving home the sometimes forgotten point that strategies no matter how skillfully they are conceived are des tined to failure unless it is fully recognized that the Holy Spirit is the ultimate persuader There is in short a mysterious interworking between strategies and the ministry of the Holy Spirit An imbalance on either side of this equation is untenable The majority of the chapters offer practical insights into how such media as audio cassettes radio film and television can if properly used play an important role in conversion and spiritual growth But the author never loses sight of the fact that the single most important medium is face to face communication in the context of the local Christian fellowship Religion and Mass Media Daniel A.
