Mass Media Writing:

Dynamics of Media Writing Vincent F. Filak, 2015-08-27 Dynamics of Media Writing gives students transferable skills that can be applied across all media platforms from traditional mass media formats like news public relations and advertising to emerging digital media platforms Whether issuing a press release or tweeting about a new app today's media writers need to adapt their message for each specific media format in order to successfully connect with their audience Throughout this text award winning teacher and college media adviser Vincent F Filak introduces fundamental writing skills that apply to all media while also highlighting which writing tools and techniques are most effective for specific media formats and why User friendly and loaded with practical examples and tips from professionals across mass media this is the perfect guide for any student wanting to launch a professional media writing career

Writing for the Mass Media James Glen Stovall, 2006 This successful text offers a simple organization clear writing abundant exercises and precise examples that give students the information about media writing and the opportunity to develop their skills as professional writers Using a workbook style format it introduces and explains the major forms of media writing inverted pyramid for print and Web dramatic unity for broadcast copy platforms for advertising and the various writing structures required for public relations Writing for the Mass Media also covers all major areas of media including the Internet In addition its basic and practical approach makes this text an excellent book for any introductory writing course New to the Sixth Edition A completely rewritten chapter on writing for the Web uses innovative exercises to develop writing skills accounts for many of the structures and demands of the web environment and helps students navigate in this medium Many new examples of good writing are featured in the text against which students are encouraged to model their own writing New exercises found in many of the chapters including those involving grammar and style allow students to put content into practice An updated Companion Website www.ablongman.com/stovall6e and Instructor's Manual with additional material for lectures and discussion as well as some additional exercise material provide supplementary material for users A glossary provides easy access to definitions of terms used throughout the book Praise for Writing for the Mass Media Stovall's strengths are many the book is a bargain and the inclusion of exercises for each chapter heightens its bargain status Likewise the back to basics approach makes the book accessible to a wide range of students For those who are in search of breadth Stovall's greatest virtue has to be the diversity of media writing tasks addressed Not one of the competitors that I have used offers nearly the diversity of writing assignments treated by Stovall Laurence W Fennelly Macon State College Stovall's text is easy to read and the information is easy to access for any entry level course in media writing Christine Cranford East Carolina University

Reaching Audiences Jan Johnson Yopp, Katherine C. McAdams, 2007 Reaching Audiences A Guide to Media Writing provides a brief yet thorough guide to correct clear writing for the media This book sets up the writing process and shows the reader how to accomplish each task in a mass media context The importance of the audience in considering media and messages is stressed throughout while illustrative and specific real life examples provide guidance for writing improvement Specific skills related to spelling grammar accuracy word usage bias research interviewing and other important topics are covered Recognizing the changing media environment this book covers a wide range of careers in print electronic media public relations and advertising illuminating the differences and similarities in writing styles among them Media Writing Doug Newsom, James Alvin Wollert, 1985 Mass Media Writing Gail Baker-Woods, 1997 Media Writing W. Richard Whitaker, Janet E. Ramsey, Ronald D. Smith, 2009-01-13 Designed for those preparing to write in the current multimedia environment MediaWriting explores the linkages between print broadcast and public relations styles outlines the nature of good writing synthesizes and integrates professional skills and concepts Complete with interesting real world examples and exercises this textbook gives students progressive writing activities amid an environment for developing research and interviewing skills Starting from a basis in writing news and features for print media it moves on to writing for broadcast news media then introduces students to public relations writing in print broadcast and digital media as well as for news media and advertising venues Rather than emphasizing the differences among the three writing styles this book synthesizes and integrates the three concepts weaving in basic principles of Internet writing and reporting This book provides beginning newswriting students with a primer for developing the skills needed for work in the media industry As such it is a hands on writing text for students preparing in all professional areas of communication journalism broadcasting media and public relations
