Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes

Cases and Materials on Mass Media Law Marc A. Franklin, 1982 Mass Media Law Marc A. Franklin, David A.

Anderson, Lyrrisa Barnett Lidsky, 2005 The seventh edition of this venerable casebook maps the changing landscape of mass media law The attacks of September 11 2001 and the subsequent war on terror have ushered in a new era of government secrecy challenging traditional understandings with respect to freedom of information war coverage access to prisoners openness of trials and the confidentiality of sources Dramatic consolidation of media ownership tests the limits of regulatory restraint Yet indecency regulation looms on the horizon Meanwhile the law continues to struggle with the changes wrought by the technological blurring of boundaries between traditional media categories The seventh edition covers these latest developments and more while maintaining the landmark cases and rulings that courts and advocates will use to guide the resolution of the issues these developments raise However this edition does not merely add new developments to existing material Instead the authors have tightly reedited the book to give students a concise but comprehensive view of the present state of media law Mass Media Law, Cases and Materials, 7th Edition, 2009 Supplement Marc A. Franklin, David A.

Anderson, Lyrrisa Barnett Lidsky, 2009-07 This is the 2009 case supplement to Franklin Anderson and Lidsky's Mass Media Law Cases and Materials 7th Edition Media Law Marc A. Franklin, David A. Anderson, Lyrrisa Barnett Lidsky, Amy

Gajda, 2016 This edition examines new forces influencing media law while continuing to focus on foundational cases and principles that have shaped the field since its inception New material includes increasing government secrecy and its impact on freedom of information the latest on net neutrality new restrictions on newsgathering including legislation involving drones recent jurisprudential tests that unmask anonymous internet speakers increasing potential liability for internet re publishers despite older legal protections newer changes in copyright protections in the wake of internet publishing increasing judicial concerns about privacy and the reshaping of legal determinations including newsworthiness and the increasingly difficult to answer question of who deserves shield law and other legal protections traditionally reserved for journalists The casebook written by authors who collectively have taught and researched media law for more than a century focuses on the legal precedents that help shape judicial and legislative responses to today's new media From Publisher website Catalog of Copyright Entries.
