

DESOLATION

9th-level necromancy (Sorcerer, Wizard)

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 150 feet

Components: V, S, M (a hollowed out crystal skull)

Duration: Concentration, up to 2 rounds

You weave negative energy in the form of black smoke and hurl it towards one target you can see within range. Make a ranged spell attack against the target. You have advantage on this attack roll. On a hit, the target takes $10d8 + 60$ necrotic damage, or half as much damage on a miss. Hit or miss, the spell ends, and each creature within 10 feet of the target must succeed on a Dexterity saving throw or else take half of the spell's damage.

Alternatively, you can choose to gather extra energy before releasing it for the attack. On your next turn, if the spell has not ended, you can use an action to gather even more energy or to make the attack. On your following turn, until the spell ends when the turn ends, you can still use your action to make the attack.

Each time you gather energy in this way, wild beams of negative energy spill out and strike at five creatures or objects within 60 feet of you. Each target must make a Dexterity saving throw. On a failed save, a target takes $12d6 + 15$ necrotic damage.

The spell's damage increases by 25 for each turn that you gathered energy. If you gathered energy for two turns and you used your action to make the attack, you also gain advantage on the attack. If the spell ends and you haven't made the attack yet, you can use your reaction to do so with disadvantage, but if you miss, the target takes no damage from the spell.

This spell damages objects within the area of the attack. Any creatures killed or objects reduced to 0 hit points by this spell are reduced to dust.

SPELL VARIANTS: DESOLATION

The following spell variants of desolation are available as spells to be learned, prepared, and cast.

KALEIDOSCOPIC RAYS

9th-level evocation (Sorcerer, Wizard)

Changes: The spell deals radiant damage, and the area of the spell attack sheds bright light in a 40-foot radius and dim light for an additional 40 feet until the end of the caster's next turn. The caster also sheds the same amount of light until the spell ends. The spell evokes an orb of brilliant arcane light that splits into many beams.

PYROCLASM

9th-level evocation (Sorcerer, Wizard)

Changes: The spell deals fire damage, reduces creatures and objects to ashes instead of dust, and also ignites any flammable objects in the area of the attack that aren't being worn or carried or that take damage from the spell. The caster also sheds bright light in a 30-foot radius and dim light for an additional 30 feet until the spell ends. The spell evokes an uncontrollable surge of explosive flame at extreme temperatures.

STATIC OVERLOAD

9th-level evocation (Sorcerer, Wizard)

Changes: The spell deals lightning damage, it reduces creatures and objects to ashes instead of dust, and it ignites any flammable objects in the area of the attack that aren't being worn or carried. The caster also sheds bright light in a 20-foot radius and dim light for an additional 20 feet until the spell ends. The spell channels an unwieldy amount of crackling electricity.

VOLATILE REACTION

9th-level conjuration (Sorcerer, Wizard)

Changes: The spell deals acid damage, and it reduces creatures and objects to slime instead of dust. The spell conjures a bubbling globe of barely-contained acids and alchemical reagents that swirl and mix together, growing more volatile and caustic as it sprays out in small jets.
