Master Of The Ghost Dreaming:

Master of the Ghost Dreaming Series , Master of the Ghost Dreaming Mudrooroo Narogin, The Circle & the Spiral Eva Rask Knudsen,2021-11-01 In Aboriginal and M ori literature the circle and the spiral are the symbolic metaphors for a never ending journey of discovery and rediscovery The journey itself with its indigenous perspectives and sense of orientation is the most significant act of cultural recuperation The present study outlines the fields of indigenous writing in Australia and New Zealand in the crucial period between the mid 1980s and the early 1990s particularly eventful years in which postcolonial theory attempted to centre the margins and indigenous writers were keen to escape the particular centering offered in search of other positions more in tune with their creative sensibilities Indigenous writing relinquished its narrative preference for social realism in favour of traversing old territory in new spiritual ways roots converted into routes Standard postcolonial readings of indigenous texts often overwrite the difference they seek to locate because critical orthodoxy predetermines what difference can be Critical evaluations still tend to eclipse the ontological grounds of Aboriginal and M ori traditions and specific ways of moving through and behaving in cultural landscapes and social contexts Hence the corrective applied in Circles and Spirals to look for locally and culturally specific tracks and traces that lead in other directions than those catalogued by postcolonial convention This agenda is pursued by means of searching enquiries into the historical anthropological political and cultural determinants of the present state of Aboriginal and M ori writing principally fiction Independent yet interrelated exemplary analyses of works by Keri Hulme and Patricia Grace and Mudrooroo and Sam Watson Australia provided the thick description that illuminates the author s central theses with comparative side glances at Witi Ihimaera Heretaunga Pat Baker and Alan Duff New Zealand and Archie Weller and Sally Morgan Australia Master of the Ghost Dreaming Mudrooroo,2018-09-01 Lost is the way to the skyland Our souls wander forlornly in the land of ghosts Our spirits become their play things our bodies their food to be ripped apart and our gnawed bones are scattered We are in despair we are sickening unto death we call to be healed Anxiously we wait for our mapan the Master of the Ghost Dreaming to deliver us In the first years of the 19th century a small Aboriginal tribe reels under the threat of white invasion of their ancestral lands Fada a missionary from London is attempting to impose a Christian God over their ancient beliefs Fada and his wife Mada bring with them disease and despair along with a message of hope the result of their own Cockney dreaming This novel by Mudrooroo author of the acclaimed Wild Cat Falling is a story of survival physical metaphysical and magical It is also the story of Jangamuttuk the custodian of the Ghost Dreaming and his shamanistic efforts to will his tribe back to its own promised land This is the first of the completed quartet known as his Vampyre Novels

Aratjara ,2022-07-04 ARATJARA is the first collection of essays on Australian Aboriginal culture published and edited from Germany A group of internationally renowned scholars and specialists in their fields have contributed original essays on political and cultural aspects of Aboriginal life today These various essays treat the struggle of Aboriginal peoples for land rights their music and their achievements in theatre in literature and in the creation of Aboriginal literary discourses as well as Aboriginal film and television productions and the representation of Australia's indigenous peoples in the white media. Among Aboriginal writers who have contributed to ARATJARA are the politician Neville T Bonner the dramatist Bob Maza the story teller David Mowaljarlai and the poet Lionel Fogarty who has been called the most authentic Aboriginal voice among writers using English as their medium of creative expression. The volume is dedicated to Oodgeroo formerly Kath Walker 1920-1993 one of the foremost Aboriginal political and cultural personalities and also contains a number of poems by Lionel Fogarty.

Mudrooroo Maureen Clark, 2007 Mudrooroo A Likely Story reads the fiction of one of Australia's most controversial and enigmatic literary figures against the backdrop of the likelihood that he assumed an Aboriginal identity to which he was not entitled. As he is neither black nor white Colin Johnson aka a Mudrooroo writes on issues of identity and belonging from the position of an outsider. The book argues that the experimental nature of Johnson's creative body of work coupled with the complexities of his in-between status mean that both the man and his writing evade neat categorisation within mainstream literary criticism. Also examined here is how the denial of his white mother impacts upon the gender politics of Johnson's fiction in a way that opens up exciting new possibilities for critical comment and textual analysis.

Back cover Mongrel Signatures, 2021-10-01 Mongrel Signatures reviews the Australian writer Mudrooroo's career and deals with central issues of identity authenticity and truth. After 1996 academics and writers in Australia and around the world endorsed or denied Mudrooroo's Aboriginality after research had dramatically called his Indigenous identity into question. There has also been a long silence among fans of Mudrooroo who has not commented publicly on his racial belonging. These challenging and lively reflections by European and Australian scholars and writers are not meant to discuss whether Mudrooroo can legitimately sign his works with an Aboriginal name an essentialist and problematic view of identity and authenticity. Instead they explore how Mudrooroo's writing restages the drama of subjectivity in terms of articulation rather than authentication and ask how we are to read him now in the face of current accusations and the cultural scenario of Aboriginal arts and studies. The contributors in disagreement or in dialogue treat questions of identity and representation reading Mudrooroo's work through the lenses of such perspectives as psychoanalysis postmodernism postcolonialism deconstruction and queer theory. The essays are designed to provoke debate and to dissolve the rigid polarities hitherto characterizing discussion of this highly influential creative artist. Contributors are Clare Archer Lean Maureen Clark Graziella Englaro Eva Rask Knudsen Ruby Langford Ginibi Maggie Nolan Annalisa Oboe Wendy Pearson Lorenzo Perrona Cassandra Pybus Adam Shoemaker and Gerry Turcotte.

Bodies and Voices, 2008-01-01 A wide-ranging collection of essays centred on readings of the body in contemporary literary and socio-anthropological discourse from slavery and rape to female genital mutilation from clothing ocular pornography voice deformation and transmutation to the imprisoned dismembered remembered abducted or ghostly body in Africa Australasia and the Pacific Canada the Caribbean Great Britain and Eire.

Underground Mudrooroo, 2018-10-01 By the firelight a mysterious storyteller weaves a captivating tale of sea journeys vampire women and Aboriginal Dreaming Around the campfire the gold diggers listen and journey with George as he plunges underground to rescue his ship's captain from the horrific and mesmerising vampire woman Jangamuttuk the Master of the Ghost Dreaming sends his son George to rescue Wadawaka from the ghost vampire woman who has taken him as her Dark Lord and imprisoned him in her underground kingdom Will George in either his human form or as his Dreaming animal self Dingo be able to withstand Amelia's powers will he survive the underground caverns can he tear Wadawaka and himself from the violent but seductive power of the vampire woman And who is the strange but familiar ghost woman accompanying the new colonial governor Underground is the 3rd in the Master of The Ghost Dreaming quartet beautifully and insistently portrays the enduring reality of Aboriginal Dreaming in a fascinating story of initiation maternal longing and colonial violence

Darkness Subverted Katrin Althans, 2010-02-18 At the heart of the Gothic novel proper lies the discursive binary of self and other which in colonial literature was quickly filled with representations of the colonial master and his indigenous subject Contemporary black Australian artists have usurped this colonial Gothic discourse torn it to pieces and finally transformed it into an Aboriginal Gothic This study first develops the theoretical concept of an Aboriginal Gothic and then uses this term as a tool to analyse novels by Vivienne Cleven Mudrooroo Kim Scott Sam Watson and Alexis Wright as well as films directed by Beck Cole and Tracey Moffatt It centres on the question of how a genuinely European mode the Gothic can be permeated and thus digested by elements of indigenous Australian culture in order to portray the current situation of Aboriginal Australians and to celebrate a recovered cultural identity

The Representation of Dance in Australian Novels Melinda Jewell, 2011 This book is an analysis of the textual representation of dance in the Australian novel since the late 1890s It examines how the act of dance is variously portrayed how the word dance is used metaphorically to convey actual or imagined movement and how dance is written in a novelistic form The author employs a wide range of theoretical approaches including postcolonial studies theories concerned with class gender metaphor and dance and in particular Jung's concept of the shadow and theories concerned with vision Through these variegated approaches the study critiques the common view that dance is an expression of joie de vivre liberation transcendence order and beauty This text also probes issues concerned with the enactment of dance in Australia and abroad and contributes to an understanding of how dance is translated into literature It makes an important contribution because the study of dance in Australian literature has been minimal and this despite the reality that dance is prolific in Australian novels

Indigenous Literature of Oceania Nicholas J. Goetzfridt, 1995-02-28 Oceania has a rich and growing literary tradition The imaginative literature that emerged in the 1960s often reflected the forms and structures of European literature though the ideas expressed were typically anticolonial After three decades the literature of Oceania has become much more complex in terms of style as well as content and authors write in a multiplicity of styles and voices While the written literature of Oceania is continuously gaining more critical attention questions about the imposition of European literary standards and values as a further extension of colonialism in the Pacific have become a central issue This book is a detailed survey of the expanding amount of critical and interpretive material written about the imaginative literature of authors from Oceania It focuses on commentary and scholarship concerned with the poetry fiction and drama written in English by indigenous peoples of the Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia The criticisms have appeared in academic books and journals since the mid 1960s They have developed to the point at which critical issues related to decolonization and the expression of ideas without having to first satisfy foreign expectations often determine the direction of such discussions Entries are grouped in topical chapters and each entry includes an extensive annotation An introductory essay summarizes the evolution of Pacific literature

Journeying and Journalling Giselle Bastin, 2010 In December 2004 the town of Penneshaw Kangaroo Island provided the backdrop for an international conference titled Journeying and Journalling The conference created a space for creative and critical meditations on travel writing Collectively the essays in this collection provide a snapshot of current directions and preoccupations in contemporary travel writing scholarship They function as a reminder of the work that has been done on representations of Indigeneity and of writing marginalised narratives into the travel canon However these chapters also remind us of the important work that remains particularly in relation to travel writing as form of reconciliation for example between Indigenous people and colonisers and between colonisers and neo colonials Scholars also bear the responsibility of considering the complexities of representing culture and place in a post colonial even post traumatic world This collection includes essays by Tim Youngs Helen Tiffin and Paul Sharrad and many other leading writers in the field of travel writing

Gothic and Theory Hogle Jerrold E. Hogle, 2019-03-14 Provides a scholarly account of the striking interplay between the Gothic and theory over two and a half centuries This collection provides a thorough representation of the early and ongoing conversation between Gothic and theory philosophical aesthetic psychological and cultural both in the many modes of Gothic and in many of the realms of theory now current in the modern world Each essay focuses on a particular kind of theory Gothic relationship every one of which has a history and each of which is still being explored in enactments of the Gothic and of theory today Key Features Provides the first detailed discussion of the interrelationship between literary theory and the Gothic from the inception of the Gothic to the present day Enables students to connect what otherwise seem a wide variety of diverse phenomena from the rise of philosophical emotivism to poetic tales of terror and Gothic film Advances current scholarly investigation by invigorating debates within both Gothic studies and literary theory Makes connections between a wide variety of issues from eco crisis and contemporary culture wars to the persistent problem of the other Missions of Interdependence, 2021-11-01 At the beginning of the twenty first century it is necessary to combine into a productive programme the striving for individual emancipation and the social practice of humanism in order to help the world survive both the ancient pitfalls of particularist terrorism and the levelling tendencies of cultural indifference engendered by the renewed imperialist arrogance of hegemonial global capital In this book thirty five scholars address and negotiate in a spirit of learning and understanding an exemplary variety of intercultural splits and fissures that have opened up in the English speaking world Their methodology can be seen to constitute a seminal field of intellectual signposts They point out ways and means of responsibly assessing colonial predicaments and postcolonial developments in six regions shaped in the past by the British Empire and still associated today through their allegiance to the idea of a Commonwealth of Nations They show how a new ethic of literary self assertion interpretative mediation and critical responsiveness can remove the deeply ingrained prejudices silences and taboos established by discrimination against race class and gender

Catching Butterflies Maria Takolander, 2007 Magical realism was one of the most significant literary developments in the last century It has become synonymous with the seductive fictions of writers such as Gabriel Garcia Marquez Salman Rushdie Toni Morrison Ben Okri Jeanette Winterson and Peter Carey However the genre has also become known for its theoretical indeterminacy In fact exoticist speculation inspired by the links between magical realist literature and the world's cultural or political margins has thrown the category into critical disrepute This book rescues magical realism from misreadings and misdemeanours tracing the historical development of the literary genre and analysing an original spectrum of magical realist texts from Latin America Africa India Canada the US the UK and Australia It asks such questions as How did magical realism come to take over the world What is the nature of its allure Also how does the marginal status of its authors inform the genre Does magical realism have a political agenda This book uses postcolonial theory to investigate notions of cultural identity and post structural theory to examine the narrative strategies of magical realism presenting a comprehensive historical and theoretical overview of the genre and a politically urgent argument about its subversive potentialities

Missions of Interdependence Gerhard Stilz, 2002 At the beginning of the twenty first century it is necessary to combine into a productive programme the striving for individual emancipation and the social practice of humanism in order to help the world survive both the ancient pitfalls of particularist terrorism and the levelling tendencies of cultural indifference engendered by the renewed imperialist arrogance of hegemonial global capital In this book thirty five scholars address and negotiate in a spirit of learning and understanding an exemplary variety of intercultural splits and fissures that have opened up in the English speaking world Their methodology can be seen to constitute a seminal field of intellectual signposts They point out ways and means of responsibly assessing colonial predicaments and postcolonial developments in six regions shaped in the past by the British Empire and still associated today through their allegiance to the idea of a Commonwealth of Nations They show how a new ethic of literary self assertion interpretative mediation and critical responsiveness can remove the deeply ingrained prejudices silences and taboos established by discrimination against race class and gender

Cross-Addressing John C. Hawley, 1996-07-03 Using a cultural studies approach to the question of what constitutes literary study at the end of the twentieth century the contributors address identity politics in specific cultural instances

Master of the Ghost Dreaming Mudrooroo Narogin, 1991 Postcolonial Whiteness Alfred J. Lopez, 2012-02-01

Postcolonial Whiteness examines the interrelations between whiteness and the history of European colonialism as well as the status of whiteness in the contemporary postcolonial world. It addresses two fundamental questions: What happens to whiteness after empire and to what extent do white cultural norms or imperatives remain embedded in the postcolonial or postindependence state as a part acknowledged or not of the colonial legacy. Presenting a wide range of critical and theoretical responses, the contributors explore these questions by focusing on such diverse topics as the legacy of Princess Diana, queer self-expression, the changing situation of Gypsy or Romani minorities in Eastern Europe, literature including Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness, Caryl Phillips's Cambridge and Gothic, impact on the literature of Australia, reconstruction of white South African social identity, cross-cultural discussions of mental illness, Freud's case history of the Wolfman, and Australia's national anthems.
