Money For Graduate Research And Study In The Humanities 1996-1998:

Money for Graduate Research and Study in the Humanities, 1996-1998 Gail A. Schlachter, R. David Weber, 1996-07-01 Millions of dollars are available to support graduate study and research in architecture art dance design filmmaking history languages literature music performing arts philosophy religion sculpture and the rest of the humanities Until now however it has been difficult to find out about these opportunities Information about them has been either scattered throughout a number of directories or for many programs not available at all With the publication of Money for Graduate Students in the Humanities this has all changed Now graduate students working on a master's or doctoral degree can easily find out about the nearly 1 000 fellowships loans grants and awards available to support their work in the humanities The programs described here range from 17 500 per year for study at a religious seminary to 13 000 for graduate research on the history of art or architecture to 30 000 to complete a dissertation in Judaic studies to 33 500 for the study of Byzantine culture to full tuition plus 13 250 for the first year of graduate work in any branch of the humanities Full details are given for each program contact information purpose eligibility money awarded duration special features limitations number offered and deadline date Since the entries are grouped by both recipient master's or doctoral students and type of program research or study you'll be able to turn directly to the section that describes the type of funding you need Plus extensive indexing lets you access the programs by subject residency tenability sponsor title and deadline Money for Graduate Students in the Humanities is part of a new series issued by Reference Service Press the other titles cover graduate funding in the social sciences and the sciences Each volume is sold separately

Money for Graduate Students in the Social Sciences, 1996 Money for Graduate Students in the Sciences 1996-1998 Gail A. Schlachter, R. David Weber, 1996-07 If you're looking for graduate funding in the sciences this is the directory to use Described here are more than 1 200 fellowships loans grants and awards set aside just for students interested in working on a master's or doctoral degree in agricultural sciences astronomy biology chemistry computer science dentistry engineering environmental sciences geology genetics mathematics medicine nursing nutrition pharmacology physics technology zoology or any other scientific field Here is a sample of the kinds of funding covered in the 1996-1998 edition of Money for Graduate Students in the Sciences 16 000 per year for graduate study or research in the space sciences up to 21 000 annually for dissertation research in lung disease tuition and 13 250 annually for doctoral study in the physical sciences full tuition and 14 000 per year for graduate research in math 10 000 for graduate research on critical care nursing and 10 000 for students working on a graduate degree related to water supply You'll find it easy to use the directory Each program is clearly described with detailed information given on purpose eligibility requirements financial data duration special features limitations number awarded and deadline date Entries are grouped by level master's and doctoral and purpose research or study so you can zero in on just the kind of aid you need You'll even find the same convenience in the indexes where title organization geographic coverage subject and deadline date entries are subdivided by both level and type of program This directory is part of a unique three volume series published by Reference Service Press that describes funding available to support graduate study and research The other volumes cover the humanities and the social sciences Each volume may be purchased separately

Big Book of Minority Opportunities Elizabeth Oakes, 1997-05 Contains 3 500 entries listing information on programs developed to assist African Asian Hispanic and Native Americans in their educational and career pursuits discussing topics that include financial aid internships guidance and honors Books in Print ,1991 Books in Print Supplement ,2002

Financial Aid for Asian Americans, 1997-1999 Gail A. Schlachter, R. David Weber, 1997-05 This is the source to use if you are looking for financial aid for Asian Americans Described here are more than 1 500 funding opportunities open to Chinese Americans Japanese Americans Korean Americans Vietnamese Americans Filipinos and other Americans of Asian ancestry Each program entry gives you everything you need to tell if a program is right for you contact information including fax e mail and toll free numbers purpose eligibility financial data duration special features limitations number awarded and deadline date Plus there s an annotated bibliography of other important directories and a set of six indexes Issued as part of the Minority Funding Set see page 4 this directory can be purchased separately or as part of the set Financial Aid for African Americans ,1997 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1996-10 Financial Aid for Hispanic Americans, 1997-1999 Gail A. Schlachter, R. David Weber, 1997 Describes over 1 400 funding opportunities available to Hispanic Americans from high school through professional level for education research travel training career development or innovative effort arranged alphabetically within six categories Choice ,1997 Books in Print 1997-98 R R Bowker Publishing, 1997

Financial Aid for Native Americans ,1997 College Costs and Financial Aid Handbook ,1998 Foundation Grants to Individuals ,1997 Graduate Quarterly ,1997 Directory of Grants in the Humanities ,1996 Money for Graduate Research and Study in the Social Sciences, 1996-1998 Gail Ann Schlachter, R. David Weber, 1996-07-01 Getting a graduate degree is definitely a smart move According to the U S Census Bureau the average salary for a college graduate is less than 28 000 But this figure rises to 37 000 for master s degree recipients and to more than 66 000 for those with doctoral or professional degrees However graduate school is expensive It can cost 20 000 or more to complete a master s degree and up to 75 000 to finish some doctoral or professional degrees That s more than most students can afford to pay on their own Where can they turn for help Reference Service Press provides the answer to that question in a unique three volume series which describes thousands of funding sources available specifically to support study and research on the graduate school level Each volume is sold separately and deals with a different discipline the social sciences the sciences and the humanities In Money for Graduate Students in the Social Sciences more than 1 000 funding opportunities are described in detail And it s easy to use the directory No straight alphabetical listing of programs here instead you ll be able to customize your search by zeroing in on entries grouped by both level master s or doctoral and purpose study or research You can even access the programs by specific subject title sponsor residency requirements tenability and deadline date Now in one place you can find all the programs that are available to help you pay for a master s or doctoral degree in accounting advertising anthropology and ethnology business administration demography and statistics economics education geography international relations law library information science marketing political science psychology sociology or any other social science There s never been a book like this Anuario Hispano TIYM Publishing,1997 Toward a Global PhD? Maresi Nerad,Mimi Heggelund,2011-12-01 Universities and nations have long recognized the direct contribution of graduate education to the welfare of the economy by meeting a range of research and employment needs With the burgeoning of a global economy in the twentieth and twenty first centuries the economic outcome of doctoral education reaches far beyond national borders Many doctoral programs in the United States and throughout the world are looking for opportunities to equip students to work in transnational settings with scientists and researchers located across the globe Nations competing within this global economy often have different and not always compatible motives for supporting graduate training In this volume graduate education experts explore some of the tensions and potential for cooperation between nations in the realm of doctoral education The contributors assess graduate education in different systems around the world including Australia Brazil Canada Germany India Japan Mexico the Nordic countries South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States Many factors motivate the need for a global understanding of doctoral education including the internationalization of the labor market and global competition the expansion of opportunities for doctoral education in smaller and developing nations and a declining interest among international students in pursuing their graduate education in the United States
