Monsieur Nicolas Or The Human Heart Laid:

Monsieur Nicolas; Or, the Human Heart Laid Bare. Translated, Edited and with an Introduction by Robert Baldick. [With Plates, Including Portraits.]. Restif de La Bretonne, Robert Baldick, 1966 Monsieur Nicolas Or, The Human Heart Laid Bare Restif de la Bretonne, 1968 "Monsieur Nicolas" Nicolas-Edme Rétif de La Bretonne, 1968 Monsieur Nicolas, Or, The Human Heart Laid Bare Restif de La Bretonne, 1966 Monsieur Nicolas; Or, The Human Heart Unveiled Restif de La Bretonne, 1931 The Flight of Icarus James S. Amelang, 1998-08-01 Exploring autobiographical texts written by European urban craftsmen from the fifteenth to the eighteenth centuries this wide ranging book studies memoirs diaries family chronicles travel narratives and other forms of personal writings from Spain France Italy Germany and England In the process it considers the motivations of the authors the changing forms and emphases of artisan narratives and more generally the significance of written self expression in early modern popular culture By analyzing reading and writing as practices laden with social meaning this work aims to illuminate the changing role of the lower classes and other groups considered marginal in the history of literature and literacy It uncovers an Icarian logic by which writing about the self and one s immediate and private world developed as a complex response to widely shared expectations regarding the cultural and political subordination of craftsmen and others relegated to the margins of public life and discourse The book also contributes to the contemporary interdisciplinary debate concerning the nature and evolution of autobiographical writing It draws upon those currents within literary studies such as feminist criticism which favor a more flexible approach to the study of first person narrative than that adopted by traditional literary critics and historians of ideas It also argues for revising the standard history of autobiography eschewing the teleological presentation of a small handful of classic texts in favor of a more nuanced trajectory in which a wide range of social actors helped shape the emerging patterns of modern self understanding and expression Monsieur Nicolas Restif de La Bretonne, 1966 Sex, Lies, and Autobiography James L. O'Rourke, 2006 In Sex Lies and Autobiography James O Rourke explores the relationships between literary form and ethics revealing how autobiographical texts are able to confront readers with the moral complexities of everyday life Tracing the ethical legacy of Jean Jacques Rousseau s Confessions in a series of English language texts the author shows how Rousseau s doubts about the possibility of ethical behavior in everyday life shadows the first person narratives of five canonic works William Wordsworth s Prelude Charlotte Bront s Jane Eyre and Villette Mary Shelley s Frankenstein and Vladimir Nabokov s Lolita Offering a fascinating new way of thinking about ethics through literature Sex Lies and Autobiography challenges the most fundamental principles of the philosophical study of ethics revealing the innate difference between morality in life and morality in literature O Rourke begins with Rousseau s inability to reconcile his intuitive belief that he is a good person with the effects that his actions have on others and he goes on to show how this same ethical impasse recurs in the five aforementioned texts The ethical crises these texts describe such as when Jane Eyre s happiness can be purchased only at the cost of Bertha Mason's suicide or when Humbert Humbert's artistry demands the sacrifice of Dolores Haze are not instances of authorial ethical blindness O'Rourke says but rather are ethical challenges that force us as readers to consider our own lives In each of these works a narrator attempts to justify his or her behavior and fails in each case the rigorous narrative of self-examination demands a similar effort from the reader whose own sense of moral rectitude is put into question Confronting the long-held philosophical construction that links ethical principles and life choices thereby reassuring us of the ethical coherence of everyday life the narrators of these literary autobiographies come to a very different conclusion by looking back on their lives they cannot understand how their most benevolent desires led to such damaging life stories By leaving meaning inexplicit O'Rourke argues these texts are able to recover traumatic material that is ordinarily repressed and then bring that repressed knowledge to bear on self-justifying narratives For readers interested in autobiographical studies ethical criticism and trauma and literary studies Sex Lies and Autobiography provides a groundbreaking analysis of the role of ethics in literature

The Imagined Empire Mi Gyung Kim, 2016-12-23 The hot air balloon invented by the Montgolfier brothers in 1783 launched for the second time just days before the Treaty of Paris would end the American Revolutionary War The ascent in Paris a technological marvel witnessed by a diverse crowd that included Benjamin Franklin highlighted celebrations of French military victory against Britain and ignited a balloon mania that swept across Europe at the end of the Enlightenment This popular frenzy for balloon experiments which attracted hundreds of thousands of spectators fundamentally altered the once elite audience for science by bringing aristocrats and commoners together The Imagined Empire explores how this material artifact the flying machine not only expanded the public for science and spectacle but inspired utopian dreams of a republican monarchy that would obliterate social boundaries The balloon Mi Gyung Kim argues was a people machine a cultural performance that unified and mobilized the people of France who imagined an aerial empire that would bring glory to the French nation This critical history of ballooning considers how a relatively simple mechanical gadget became an explosive cultural and political phenomenon on the eve of the French Revolution

The Novel: An Alternative History, 1600-1800 Steven Moore, 2013-08-29 Winner of the Christian Gauss Award for excellence in literary scholarship from the Phi Beta Kappa Society Having excavated the world's earliest novels in his previous book literary historian Steven Moore explores in this sequel the remarkable flowering of the novel between the years 1600 and 1800 from Don Quixote to America's first big novel an homage to Cervantes entitled Modern Chivalry This is the period of such classic novels as Tom Jones, Candide, and Dangerous Liaisons but beyond the dozen or so recognized classics there are hundreds of other interesting novels that appeared then known only to specialists Spanish picaresques French heroic romances massive Chinese novels Japanese graphic novels eccentric English novels and the earliest American novels These minor novels are not only interesting in their own right but also provide the context needed to appreciate why the major novels were major breakthroughs The novel experienced an explosive growth spurt during these centuries as novelists experimented with different forms and genres epistolary novels romances Gothic thrillers novels in verse parodies science fiction episodic road trips and family sagas along with quirky unclassifiable experiments in fiction that resemble contemporary avant garde works As in his previous volume Moore privileges the innovators and outriders those who kept the novel novel In the most comprehensive history of this period ever written Moore examines over 400 novels from around the world in a lively style that is as entertaining as it is informative Though written for a general audience The Novel An Alternative History also provides the scholarly apparatus required by the serious student of the period This sequel like its predecessor is a zestfully encyclopedic avidly opinionated and dazzlingly fresh history of the most elastic of literary forms
