intends to ruin Judge Clem McClelland Bring Clem Home covers the next twelve years of the McClelland family's struggle. It's an abuse of power story as Frank Briscoe uses an old Texas law from 1876 to conduct a Court of Inquiry to improperly investigate and then successfully prosecute a sitting Judge. The story shows Clem's nine indictments that led to his losing his judgeship, it shows his being found guilty at trial and it shows his going to prison. It's a coming-of-age story for Kirk and it reveals Doris's broken heart as she and Kirk make every effort to achieve Clem's freedom. The story takes place during the 1950s and 1960s and includes the 1966 Congressional race for Houston's Seventh District between Frank Briscoe and the forty-first President George H. W. Bush. The Houston voters recognized Briscoe's messy pursuit and prosecution of McClelland and subsequently chose Bush to be their Congressman. Bring Clem Home is a story about a great man who suffered a great fall. It also reveals one of the country's first Media-driven prosecutions. Bring Clem Home shows a Texas court case from the 1960s, the Texas prison system during that time, and how one Texas family worked together to bring Clem home.

Stealing First Saylor Smith, 2008-02 Stealing First is the story of Jody Benson, a man of thirty-plus who is looking back on his life as a high school-aged boy in the small Nebraska town of South Bend. Living and teaching high school in Oregon during the mid-1970s, he takes a summer trip home in search of the impulses that made him the man he has become. He has unease about him that he and his wife hope this journey can assuage. Back in South Bend with his two sons, Jody visits once again the sites of some memorable experiences during the most impressionable of his growing years. The story moves back and forth between the 1950s and 1970s as he recalls significant events in his life as a young Nebraskan and tries to fit together the puzzle of his own existence. Teenage acts of mischief, scenes of first love, athletic exploits, Jody remembers them all. Old friend and neighbor Marian McKnight, still vibrant and insightful in her late sixties, provides Jody with invaluable observations, commentary, and encouragement as she did for the teenage Jody and old pals Bo and Harley help him relive some of their times together. His father's words, "You can't steal first," provide a guiding and limiting force in his life. In the end, a tragic event shakes Jody from his lethargy and ironically leads him to self-discovery and even a measure of contentment.
