Reading The Earth New Directions In The Study Of Literature And Environment:

Reading the Earth Michael P. Branch, 1998 Distributed by the University of Nebraska Press for the University of Idaho Press Ecocriticism is a scholarly approach to literature that is rapidly building momentum and legitimacy because of its usefulness as a means of inquiry into the relationship between human culture and the nonhuman world This collection demonstrates promising new directions in the study of literature and environment and suggests the importance and passion of this scholarly enterprise

American Literary Environmentalism David Mazel, 2000 Through these literary studies Maze demonstrates how broadly American culture is saturated with the wilderness mystique and how the construction of the environment is an exercise of cultural power

BOOK JACKET Literature and the Environment George Hart, Scott Slovic, 2004-07-30 The phrase literature and environment only achieved popularity in recent decades yet writers dating back to the explorers of the 1500s and later such 19th century Romanticists as Thoreau have long been addressing environmental issues through literary expression This volume introduces students and educators to the field by tracing the evolution of environmental writing in the United States Chapters written by distinguished scholars offer new perspectives on important environmental issues guiding readers through 11 carefully selected literary works Each chapter provides brief biographical information on the author discussions of the work s structural thematic and stylistic components and insights into the historical context that relates the work to relevant environmental issues Each chapter concludes with information on works cited The analyzed works cover a wide spectrum of literature and span nearly 100 years Included are early writings such as Mary Austin s 1903 The Land of Little Rain and famous groundbreaking works such as Rachel Carson s Silent Spring 1962 and Gary Snyder s Turtle Island 1974 Also included are frequently assigned works of special interest to students such as The Monkey Wrench Gang 1975 The Earthsea Trilogy 1977 and Ceremony 1977 A list of selected further suggested readings completes the volume Students of literature as well as educators looking for new ways to present social issues will find many ideas and much inspiration in this volume

Price, 2007 Contains seventeen essays by pre eminent scholars representing a variety of critical perspectives that focus on Walt Whitman s Leaves of Grass This book features contributors who treat Whitman s poetry his biography his politics his reception in the United States and abroad race and ethnic issues and nineteenth century America

Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms Solidarity with the Other Beings on the Planet Pamela B.

June,2020-04-15 For decades Pulitzer Prize winning author and activist Alice Walker has spoken out in defense of the oppressed Her writings address the intersections of racist sexist heterosexist classist and increasingly speciesist oppressions and she has made clear the importance of reducing violence and creating peace where possible In light of Walker s call to action this book analyzes seven of her novels to offer a fresh reading situated at the complex intersection of critical race studies and critical animal studies Grounded in ecofeminist theory this literary analysis examines Walker s evolving views on animals in relation to her discussions of other oppressed groups Pamela B June argues that Walker s fiction can help readers understand and perhaps challenge American culture s mistreatment of nonhuman animals Walker has withstood criticism for her decision to abandon vegetarianism and this book also problematizes the slippery territory of viewing writers as moral guides Solidarity with the Other Beings on the Planet will appeal to readers in literary studies ecofeminist studies African American studies and critical animal studies Speak to Me Words Dean Rader,Janice Gould,2003-11-01 Although American Indian poetry is widely read and discussed few resources have been available that focus on it critically This book is the first collection of essays on the genre bringing poetry out from under the shadow of fiction in the study of Native American literature Speak to Me Words is a stimulating blend of classic articles and original pieces that reflect the energy of modern American Indian literary studies Highlighting various aspects of poetry written by American Indians since the 1960s it is a wide ranging collection that balances the insights of Natives and non Natives men and women old and new voices Included here are such landmark articles as Answering the Deer by Paula Gunn Allen Herbs of Healing by Carter Revard and Song Poetry and Language Expression and Perception by Simon Ortiz all pieces that have shaped how we think about Native poetry Among the contributions appearing for the first time are Elaine Jahner writing on Paula Gunn Allen s use of formal structures Robert Nelson addressing pan Indian tropes of emergence survival return and renewal and Janet McAdams focusing on Carter Revard s angled mirrors Although many Native writers may disregard distinctions between genres together these writings help readers see the difference between American Indian poetry and other forms of Native literature These essays are as broad encompassing and provocative as Native poetry itself branching off from and weaving back into one another In showing how American Indian poetry redefines our social order and articulates how Indian communities think about themselves these writers establish a new foundation for the study and enjoyment of this vital art The Routledge Companion to Twenty-First Century Literary Fiction Daniel O'Gorman,Robert Eaglestone,2019-01-15 The study of contemporary fiction is a fascinating yet challenging one Contemporary fiction has immediate relevance to popular culture the news scholarly organizations and education where it is found on the syllabus in schools and universities but it also offers challenges What is contemporary How do we track cultural shifts and changes The Routledge Companion to Twenty First Century Literary Fiction takes on this challenge mapping key literary trends from the year 2000 onwards as the landscape of our century continues to take shape around us A significant and central intervention into contemporary literature this

Companion offers essential coverage of writers who have risen to prominence since then such as Hari Kunzru Jennifer Egan David Mitchell Jonathan Lethem Ali Smith A L Kennedy Hilary Mantel Marilynne Robinson and Colson Whitehead Thirty eight essays by leading and emerging international scholars cover topics such as Identity including race sexuality class and religion in the twenty first century The impact of technology terrorism activism and the global economy on the modern world and modern literature The form and format of twenty first century literary fiction including analysis of established genres such as the pastoral graphic novels and comedic writing and how these have been adapted in recent years Accessible to experts students and general readers The Routledge Companion to Twenty First Century Literary Fiction provides a map of the critical issues central to the discipline as well as uncovering new perspectives and new directions for the development of the field It is essential reading for anyone interested in the past present and future of contemporary literature

The Frog Run John Elder, 2001 Annotation Teacher and writer John Elder a man who loves both literature and the outdoors describes in The Frog Run how he found a way to balance these passions in building a sugarhouse with his sons in the Vermont woods He celebrates the moment between winter and spring known to sugarmakers as the frog run When the tree frogs begin to be heard and the last run of sap good for making syrup flows from the maples For Elder who also writes in this book about the resurgence of New England forests and about his life as a reader the frog run is a time to savor and celebrate the fleeting beauties of his family's place on earth

Alone in America Robert A. Ferguson, 2013-01-14 With more people living alone today than at any time in U S history Ferguson investigates loneliness in American fiction from its mythological beginnings in Rip Van Winkle to the postmodern terrors of 9 11 At issue is the dark side of a trumpeted American individualism Ferguson shows that we can learn from our literature how to live alone

The ISLE Reader Michael P. Branch, Scott Slovic, 2003 This volume gathers nineteen of the most representative and defining essays from the journal ISLE Interdisciplinary Studies in Literature and Environment over the course of its first ten years Following an introduction that traces the stages of ecocriticism's development The ISLE Reader is organized into three sections each of which reflects one of the general goals the journal has sought to accomplish The section titled Re evaluations provides new readings of familiar environmental writers and new environmental perspectives on authors or literary traditions not usually considered from a green perspective The writings in Reaching Out to Other Disciplines promote cross pollination among various disciplines and methodologies in the environmental arts and humanities The writings in the final section New Theoretical and Practical Paradigms are especially significant for the conceptual and methodological terrain they map The ISLE Reader documents the state of research in ecocriticism and related interdisciplinary fields provides a survey of the field and points to new methodologies and possibilities for the future

Rediscovering the Maine Woods John L. Kucich, 2019-07-28 The Maine Woods vast and largely unsettled are often described as unchanged since Henry David Thoreau's journeys across the backcountry in spite of the realities of Indian dispossession and the visible signs of logging settlement tourism and real estate development In the summer of 2014 scholars activists members of the Penobscot Nation and other individuals retraced Thoreau's route Inspired partly by this expedition the accessible and engaging essays here offer valuable new perspectives on conservation the cultural ties that connect Native communities to the land and the profound influence the geography of the Maine Woods had on Thoreau and writers and activists who followed in his wake Together these essays offer a rich and multifaceted look at this special place and the ways in which Thoreau's Maine experiences continue to shape understandings of the environment a century and a half later Contributors include the volume editor Kathryn Dolan James S Finley James Francis Richard W Judd Dale Potts Melissa Sexton Chris Sockalexis Stan Tag Robert M Thorson and Laura Dassow Walls Catlin's Lament John Hausdoerffer, 2009 The first book to probe the conflicted attitudes that shaped and constrained noted painter George Catlin famous for his 19th century paintings of vanishing Native American culture Forces readers to rethink their understanding of the artist despite his advocacy for Native peoples Such News of the Land Thomas S. Edwards, Elizabeth A. De Wolfe, 2001 A collection of new essays establishes women's voices as a powerful presence in US nature writing Pastoral Terry Gifford, 2019-10-16 Updated throughout this new edition provides a clear and invaluable introduction to the study of pastoral Terry Gifford traces the history of the genre from its classical origins through to contemporary writing and introduces the major writers and critical issues relating to pastoral Gifford breaks the term down into three accessible concepts pastoral anti pastoral post pastoral and provides up to date examples from literature and film New chapters explain the continuing tradition of georgic literature and the recent evolution of pastoral in their historical contexts Pastoral is essential and engaging reading for students and academics alike Narrating the Landscape Matthew N. Johnston, 2016-04-14 The American nineteenth century saw a largely rural nation confined to the Eastern Seaboard conquer a continent and spawn increasingly dense commercial metropolises This time of unprecedented territorial and economic growth has long been thought to find its most sweeping visual equivalent in the period's landscape paintings But as Matthew N Johnston shows the age's defining features were just as clearly captured in and motivated by visual material mass produced through innovations in printing technology Illustrated railroad and steamboat guidebooks tourist literature reports of geological surveys ethnographic studies all of these new print vehicles brought new meanings to the interplay of time space and place as American continental expansion peaked Instrumental to that project of national and industrial growth these commercial and scientific publications introduced readers travelers and citizens to a changing North American landscape made more accessible by new travel routes blazed between 1825 and 1875 More fundamentally as Johnston shows in his nuanced analysis by simulating new temporal frameworks through their presentation of landscape these print materials established new models of consumption and new kinds of knowledge critical to expansion Johnston relates these sources to traditional art historical subjects the landscapes of the Hudson River school luminist paintings by John Kensett and William Trost Richards Native portraits painted by George Catlin and photographs by Timothy O Sullivan to show how key discourses associated with expansion shifted away from picturesque strategies pairing imagery and narrative toward entirely new forms that gave temporal structure to viewers experience of an emerging modernity Revealing the crucial role of print and visual culture in shaping the nineteenth century United States Narrating the Landscape offers fresh insight into the landscapes Americans beheld and imagined in this formative era Louise Erdrich Deborah L. Madsen,2011-09-01 Leading scholars critically explore three leading novels by Louise Erdrich one of the most important and popular Native American writers working today The Return of Theory in Early Modern English Studies, Volume II P. Cefalu,G. Kuchar,B. Reynolds,2014-10-14 This companion volume to The Return of Theory in Early Modern English Studies Tarrying with the Subjunctive exemplifies the new directions in which the field is going as well as the value of crossing disciplinary boundaries within and beyond the humanities Topics studied include posthumanism ecological studies and historical phenomenology

Wilderness Mysticism: A Contemplative Christian Tradition Stephen K. Hatch,2018-07-03 As the percentage of unaffiliated seekers or Spiritual But Not Religious people or Nones increases in America and in the world at large a sizable number are drawn toward a spirituality of Nature And while many of these seekers emphasize simply the physical challenge and ignore the theological or philosophical aspect of their relationship to Nature Wilderness Mysticism seeks to offer a spiritual theological interpretation for those who want it In the process it employs insights and meditation practices gleaned from an ancient tradition that of Christian Mysticism and updated in a modern context Publisher
