Concept Maps

A concept map is a visual organizer that can enrich students' understanding of a new concept. Using a graphic organizer, students think about the concept in several ways. Most concept map organizers engage students in answering questions such as, "What is it? What is it like? What are some examples?" Concept maps deepen understanding and comprehension.

Why use a concept map?

- It helps children organize new information.
- It helps students to make meaningful connections between the main idea and other information.
- They're easy to construct and can be used within any content area.

How to use a concept map

Note: It is important that teachers spend time introducing younger students to charts and diagrams prior to using this strategy.

These are several ways to construct concept maps. Most include the following steps:

- 1. Model how to identify the major ideas or concepts presented in a selection of text as you read.
- 2. Organize the ideas into categories. Remind students that your organization may change as you continue to read and add more information.
- Use lines or arrows on the map to represent how ideas are connected to one another, a particular category, and/or the main concept. Limit the amount of information on the map to avoid frustration.
- 4. After students have finished the map, encourage them to share and reflect on how they each made the connections between concepts.
- 5. Encourage students to use the concept map to summarize what was read.

Parrett, Kathleen M. Budge, 2020-04-28 Schools across the United States and Canada are disrupting the adverse effects of poverty and supporting students in ways that enable them to succeed in school and in life In this second edition Parrett and Budge show you how your school can achieve similar results Expanding on their original framework's still critical concepts of actions and school culture they incorporate new insights for addressing equity trauma and social emotional learning These fresh perspectives combine with lessons learned from 12 additional high poverty high performing schools to form the updated and enhanced Framework for Collective Action Emphasizing students social emotional and academic learning as the hub for all action in high performing high poverty schools the authors describe how educators can work within the expanded Framework to address the needs of all students but particularly those who live in poverty Equipped with the Framework and a plethora of tools to build collective efficacy self assessments high leverage questions action advice and more school and district leaders as well as teachers teacher leaders instructional coaches and other staff can close persistent opportunity gaps and reverse longstanding patterns of low achievement Text In Education And Society Sunita A Abraham, Desmond Michael Allison, Zhiming Bao, Lionel Wee, 1998-09-09 The central place of text as a means of organising language in order to construct what people come to think of as knowledge is a phenomenon affecting all educators students and citizens of modern societies This volume offers various voices and perspectives including those of Ron Carter and Michael Halliday on the role of text in education and society The chapters on text in education explore some ways in which texts can create bonds or raise barriers between educational knowledge and common sense knowledge while the chapters on text in society focus on how personalities and societies are themselves constructed through texts Learning to unpack texts and to consider alternatives is a crucial goal for education and growth especially so in the context of fast changing contemporary societies This book should be of special interest to educators students of language and readers interested in the dynamic relationship between text education and society Social Problem Solving Maurice J. Elias, Steven E. Tobias, 1996-03-08 This volume describes proven practical techniques for promoting key skills in students for everyday social academic familial and vocational success Based on the work of a highly acclaimed 15 year ongoing multisite project the approach is designed to help professionals encourage the development of enduring life tools and prevent substance abuse HIV infection violence and other behavior related problems. The program is directed toward children in primarily K 8 populations at high moderate and low levels of risk in both regular and special education contexts Embracing Diversity in the Learning Sciences Yasmin B. Kafai, William A. Sandoval, Noel Enyedy, Althea Scott Nixon, Francisco Herrera, 2012-10-12 More than a decade has passed since the First International Conference of the Learning Sciences ICLS was held at Northwestern University in 1991 The conference has now become an established place for researchers to gather The 2004 meeting is the first under the official sponsorship of the International Society of the Learning Sciences ISLS The theme of this conference is Embracing Diversity in the Learning Sciences As a field the learning sciences have always drawn from a diverse set of disciplines to study learning in an array of settings Psychology cognitive science anthropology and artificial intelligence have all contributed to the development of methodologies to study learning in schools museums and organizations As the field grows however it increasingly recognizes the challenges to studying and changing learning environments across levels in complex social systems This demands attention to new kinds of diversity in who what and how we study and to the issues raised to develop coherent accounts of how learning occurs Ranging from schools to families and across all levels of formal schooling from pre school through higher education this ideology can be supported in a multitude of social contexts. The papers in these conference proceedings respond to the call A Bibliography on Writing and Written Language Konrad Ehlich, Florian Coulmas, Gabriele Graefen, 2011-06-01 The bibliography offers information on research about writing and written language over the past 50 years No comprehensive bibliography on this subject has been published since Sattler's 1935 handbook With a selection of some 27 500 titles it covers the most important literature in all scientific fields relating to writing Emphasis has been placed on the interdisciplinary organization of the bibliography creating many points of common interest for literacy experts educationalists psychologists sociologists linguists cultural anthropologists and historians The bibliography is organized in such a way as to provide the specialist as well as the researcher in neighboring disciplines with access to the relevant literature on writing in a given field While necessarily selective it also offers information on more specialized bibliographies In addition an overview of norms and standards concerning script and writing will prove very useful for non professional readers It is therefore also of interest to the generally interested public as a reference work for the humanities
