Reading for the Plot Peter Brooks, 1995 Reading for Plot: design & Intention in Narrative Peter Brooks, 1992

Reading for the Plot Peter Brooks, 1984 Narrating the Visual in Shakespeare Richard Meek, 2009 This book examines Shakespeare's fascination with the art of narrative and the visibility of language Richard Meek argues that Shakespeare does not simply prioritise drama over other forms of representation Rather Shakespeare repeatedly exploits the intertextuality of narrative

Narrative Bodies D. Punday, 2003-06-13 Although the body has recently emerged throughout the humanities and social sciences as an object revealing the power and limits of representation the study of narrative has almost entirely ignored human corporeality As this book shows attention to the body raises uncomfortable questions about the historicity of basic narrative concepts like character plot and narration questions that critics would often prefer to ignore Daniel Punday argues that narrative itself is a concept constructed by modern day critics based on assumptions about identity desire movement and place that depend on modern ways of thinking about corporeality

Postmodern Narrative Theory Mark Currie, 2010-12-09 How have developments in literary and cultural theory transformed our understanding of narrative What has happened to narrative in the wake of poststructuralism What is the role and function of narrative in the contemporary world In this revised updated and expanded new edition of an established text Mark Currie explores these central questions and guides students through the complex theories that have shaped the study of narrative in recent decades Postmodern Narrative Theory Second Edition establishes direct links between the workings of fictional narratives and those of the non-fictional world charts the transition in narrative theory from its formalist beginnings through deconstruction towards its current concerns with the social cultural and cognitive uses of narrative explores the relationship between postmodern narrative and postmodern theory more closely presents detailed illustrative readings of known literary texts such as Stevenson's Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and Conrad's Heart of Darkness and now features a new chapter on Coetzee's Elizabeth Costello and Slow Man Approachable and stimulating this is an essential introduction for anyone studying postmodernism the theory of narrative or contemporary fiction

Reading Corporeality in Patrick White's Fiction Bridget Grogan, 2019-03-25 In Reading Corporeality in Patrick White's Fiction An Abject Dictatorship of the Flesh Bridget Grogan combines theoretical explication textual comparison and close reading to argue that corporeality is central to Patrick White's fiction shaping the characterization style narrative trajectories and implicit philosophy of his novels and short stories Critics have often identified a radical disgust at play in White's writing claiming that it arises from a defining dualism that posits the purity of the disembodied spirit in relation to the pollution of the material world Grogan argues convincingly however that White's fiction is far more complex in its approach to the body Modeling ways in which Kristevan theory may be applied to modern fiction her close attention to White's recurring interest in physicality and abjection draws attention to his complex questioning of metaphysics and subjectivity thereby providing a fresh and compelling reading of this important world author

Balzac Michael Tilby, 2017-07-28 This canon of French literature Honore de Balzac 1799-1850 is also a major European figure in the development of realism His work is dominated by an inter-related sequence of novels and short stories La Comedie Humaine which charts the idiosyncrasies of French society from the beginning of the nineteenth century to the 1840s Among the most famous of these are Le Pierre Goriot and La Cousine Bette In this study Dr Tilby concentrates on the main approaches in practice and discusses some of the earliest responses to Balzac's work His introduction and headnotes set Balzac's work in context This book will be of interest to students of French language and literature and also to those studying French in combined studies or humanities courses

Routledge Encyclopedia of Narrative Theory David Herman, Manfred Jahn, Marie-Laure Ryan, 2010-06-10 The past several decades have seen an explosion of interest in narrative with this multifaceted object of inquiry becoming a central concern in a wide range of disciplinary fields and research contexts As accounts of what happened to particular people in particular circumstances and with specific consequences stories have come to be viewed as a basic human strategy for coming to terms with time process and change However the very predominance of narrative as a focus of interest across multiple disciplines makes it imperative for scholars teachers and students to have access to a comprehensive reference resource

Paul de Man Martin McQuillan, 2001-01-25 Paul de Man's work is key to the American deconstruction movement and to the so called political turn in critical theory Seventeen years after his death his works continue to arouse violent reactions among critics This book explains why de Man is such an important voice detailing his critical position exploring his intellectual and historical contexts tracing the influence of his work and enabling readers to undertake independent study of his criticism Trauma and Transcendence in Early Qing Literature Wilt L. Idema, Wai-ye Li, Ellen Widmer, 2020-03-17 The collapse of the Ming dynasty and the Manchu conquest of China were traumatic experiences for Chinese intellectuals not only because of the many decades of destructive warfare but also because of the adjustments necessary to life under a foreign regime History became a defining subject in their writings and it went on shaping literary production in succeeding generations as the Ming continued to be remembered re imagined and refigured on new terms The twelve chapters in this volume and the introductory essays on early Qing poetry prose and drama understand the writings of this era wholly or in part as attempts to recover from or transcend the trauma of the transition years By the end of the seventeenth century the sense of trauma had diminished and a mood of accommodation had taken hold Varying shades of lament or reconciliation critical or nostalgic retrospection on the Ming and rejection or acceptance of the new order distinguish the many voices in these writings

Narrative Theory: Political narratology Mieke Bal, 2004 Finding the Plot Loïc Artiago, Diana Holmes, David Platten, 2014-08-11 Plot writes Peter Brooks is so basic to our very experience of reading and indeed to our articulation of experience in general that criticism has often passed it over in silence Reading for the Plot xi Finding the Plot both explores and helps to redress this critical neglect The book brings together an international group of scholars to address the nature effects and specific pleasures of consuming stories If the central focus is on France and popular literary fiction the book's scope like contemporary fiction itself observes no national frontiers and extends across a variety of media The book addresses both the empirical question of which genres and types of text have been and are most popular and the theoretical questions of how plots work what pleasures they offer to readers and why it matters that the plot should not be lost

Thecla's Devotion J.D. McLarty, 2018-01-01 Thecla's Devotion studies plot and character within the Thekla episode of the Acts of Paul reading the text against contemporary pagan romance in order to explore Christian identity formation

such the collection shows both the roots of this apparently contemporary phenomenon in nineteenth century literary practice and the very particular ways in which divorce characterises the different narrative media of modernity

Unnatural Narratives - Unnatural Narratology Jan Alber, Rüdiger Heinze, 2011-09-29 In recent years the study of unnatural narratives has become an exciting new but still disparate research program in narrative theory For the first time this collection of essays presents and discusses the new analytical tools that have so far been developed on the basis of unnatural novels short stories and plays and extends these findings through analyses of testimonies comics graphic novels films and oral narratives Many narratives do not only mimetically reproduce the world as we know it but confront us with strange narrative worlds which rely on principles that have very little to do with the actual world around us The essays in this collection develop new narratological tools and modeling systems which are designed to capture the strangeness and extravagance of such anti realist narratives Taken together the essays offer a systematic investigation of anti mimetic techniques and strategies that relate to different narrative parameters different media and different periods within literary history
