Readings For World Cultures 1:

Readings in Sociology to Accompany An Introduction to Sociology Jerome Davis, Harry Elmer Barnes, 1927

Readings in Globalization George Ritzer, Zeynep Atalay, 2010-03-01 This unique and engaging anthology introduces students to the major concepts of globalization within the context of the key debates and disputes. Introduces globalization through its basic concepts rather than thematically, a distinctive approach that provides students with a better grasp of what social science has to offer on the topic. Utilizes concepts from interdisciplinary sources, bringing together work from key figures across a number of fields from Weber and Marx to contemporary figures in the field including Beck, Bauman, Castells, and Homi Bhabha. Includes excerpts to illustrate ideas all at an appropriate level of difficulty for an undergraduate audience. Offers all of this in the dynamic context of major debates surrounding the basic concepts and the fundamental realities of globalization. Designed so it can be used independently or alongside Ritzer's Globalization: A Basic Text for a complete student resource.

The Arabian Nights in Contemporary World Cultures Muhsin J. al-Musawi, 2021-08-26 The stories in the Thousand and One Nights or the Arabian Nights are familiar to many of us from the tales of Aladdin, Sinbad the Sailor, Ali Baba and his forty thieves to the framing story of Scheherazade telling these stories to her homicidal husband Shahrayar. This book offers a rich and wide-ranging analysis of the power of this collection of tales that penetrates so many cultures and appeals to such a variety of predilections and tastes. It also explores areas that were left untouched like the decolonization of the Arabian Nights and its archaeologies. Unique in its excavation into inroads of perception and reception, Muhsin J. al-Musawi's book unearths means of connection with common publics and learned societies. Al-Musawi shows as never before how the Arabian Nights has been translated, appropriated, and authenticated or abused over time and how its reach is so expansive as to draw the attention of poets, painters, illustrators, translators, editors, musicians, political scientists like Leo Strauss, and novelists like Michel Butor, James Joyce, and Marcel Proust, amongst others. Making use of documentaries, films, paintings, novels, and novellas, poetry, digital forums, and political jargon, this book offers a nuanced understanding of the perennial charm and power of this collection.

Visual Culture Margarita Dikovitskaya,2005 Drawing on interviews responses to questionnaires and oral histories by U S Critical Readings in Teacher Education ,2008-01-01 Like other fields of study teacher education defines itself both by what it includes and by what it excludes Teacher educators and researchers have spent a great deal of time seeking and attempting to eradicate the flaws in existing structures and practices but significantly less time learning to perceive the absences The premise of this book is that until we can identify and begin to address what is absent teacher education will be constrained by a perennial recycling of concerns that have characterized so much of research policy and practice to date If teacher education is to have a different future we need to ask different and difficult questions This book with contributions from theorists in Australia Canada and the United States addresses the challenges we face in establishing a more hopeful future for teacher education The authors provocative contributions identify what is missing in teacher education while providing critical counterpoints to existing frames of reference in the field In writing against the grain they open up new conceptual spaces and exciting trajectories for a different teacher education An introduction to sociology; a behavioristic study of American Jerome Davis,1927 An Introduction to Sociology Jerome Davis,Harry Elmer Barnes,1927
