Explorations In Global Ethics Sumner B Twiss, 2018-03-08 Inspired by the 1993 Parliament of the Worlds Religions this volume for the first time brings the scholarly discipline of comparative religious ethics into constructive collaboration with the community of interreligious dialogue The contributors draw from both communities of discourse in addressing questions of method and theory and global moral issues such as human rights distributive justice politics of war international business the environment and genocide in a cross cultural context Inspired by the 1993 Parliament of the Worlds Religions this volume for the first time brings the scholarly discipline of comparative religious ethics into constructive collaboration with the community of interreligious dialogue Its design is premised on two important insights First interreligious dialogue offers to comparative religious ethics a new more persuasive rationale agenda of issues and practical orientation Second comparative religious ethics offers to interreligious dialogue an arsenal of critical tools and methods which will enhance the sophistication of its practical work In this way both theory a dominant concern and strength of comparative religious ethics and praxis a dominant concern and strength of interreligious moral dialogue are joined together in mutual effort each contributing to the benefit of the other The volumes contributors share this vision of collaboration drawing explicitly from both communities of discourse in a manner that crosses disciplinary and professional boundaries to deal creatively and constructively with important methodological and global moral issue Although theory and practice cannot easily be separated in such a collaborative project for the purpose of clarity the volume is divided into two main parts The first specifically engages questions of method theory and the social role of the public intellectual the second on substantive moral themes and issues many of which were raised at the 1993 Parliament Taken together the volumes essays articulate and illustrate new ways of approaching contemporary moral concerns cross culturally yet with a rigor appropriate to our complex and pluralistic world

Encountering Earth Trevor George Hunsberger Bechtel, Matt Eaton, Tim Harvie, 2018-05-14 One day Matthew Eaton was walking through an impromptu animal shelter display at his local pet store when suddenly an eight month old kitten dug his claws into Eaton s flesh Eaton recognized that the eyes of this cat and the curve of his claw compelled a response analogous to those found in the writings of Buber Levinas and Derrida And not just Eaton but a whole community of theologians have found themselves in an encounter with particular places and animals that demands rich theological reflection Eaton enlisted fellow editors Harvie and Bechtel to collect the essays in this volume in which theologians listen to horses rats snakes cats dogs and the earth itself who become new theological voices demanding a response In this volume the voice of the more than human world is heard as making theology possible These essays suggest that what we say theologically represents not simply ideas of our own making subsequently superimposed onto the natural world through our own discovery but rather flow from an expressive Earth With additional contributions from Kimberly Carfore Lisa E Dahill Celia Deane Drummond Heather Eaton Nathan Kowalsky Abigail Lofte Jame Schaefer Cristina D Vanin Mark Wallace Grace Y Kao Chris Carter John Berkman Laura Hobgood
