"There are no shortcuts to any place worth going." — Beverly Sills

Philosophy of Religion

Arguments for and against the existence of God.

1. God can't be all good and all-powerful
2. We can explain everything we want to explain by repelling God (we don't need certain things in explaining the existence of God)

Is God needed in order for good and bad to exist?

- God is the standard of what's good, and why those reasonings are deemed as good.
- People are known to disagree about the systems/ explanations of what is good or bad.

No Good Reason - Exploring the Problem with Evil (Louise Antony pgs. 36-45)

Claims about God according to those who believe in God (Judaism, Christianity, and Islam)

- a. God is omnipotent
- b. God is omniscient
- c. God is perfectly good

The Argument against the View of God and Why it Constitutes That There is No "Real God"

- The issue, according to Antony is suffering
- Reasoning: we have suffered in the world and because we suffer God is not all-powerful
why do we have these sufferings?
- Because there is suffering, there is no God that is morally sufficient since there are instances of evil that occur

- ★ The Overall Objective of this Argument is: Antony is trying to argue that in the end, the atheists are right: the problem of suffering constitutes a strong enough argument against theism in order to justify atheism.

"How can all of this be squared with the supposition that an all-powerful being set things up with the well-being of His creatures in mind?" - Louise Antony

Theism: a term used to denote the view that God, so conceived, exists.

With that, theists are those who believe that God has complete dominion over the world in which we live; most believe he is the one who created it.

Atheists: are those who deny the existence of God
