and distinguished scholars including Steven Lukes Joseph Nye and Stefano Guzzini this volume explores the nature and location of power in international politics through a variety of conceptual lenses The Power of Emotions in World Politics Simon Koschut,2020-02-14 This book argues that the link between emotions and discourse provides a new and promising framework to theorize and empirically analyse power relationships in world politics Examining the ways in which discourse evokes reveals and engages emotions the expert contributors argue that emotions are not irrational forces but have a pattern to them that underpins social relations However these are also power relations and their articulation as socially constructed ways of feeling and expressing emotions represent a key force in either sustaining or challenging the social order This volume goes beyond the emotions matter approach to offer specific ways to integrate the consideration of emotion into existing research It offers a novel integration of emotion discourse and power and shows how emotion discourses establish assert challenge or reinforce power and status difference It will be particularly useful to university researchers doctoral candidates and advanced students engaged in scholarship on emotions and discourse analysis in International Relations

The Everyday Artefacts of World Politics Caitlin Hamilton,2021-09-23 This book examines everyday artefacts of world politics the things that everyday people make that tell stories about how the world works The author argues that people engage in a unique form of multimodal storytelling about the world their place in the world and the world they want to live in through the artefacts that they make Introducing a novel approach to artefactual analysis the book explores textiles jewellery and pottery and urges scholars of global politics to take these artefacts seriously Based on original research this book is inherently interdisciplinary drawing on concepts and approaches from across the humanities and social sciences including archaeology history sociology world politics anthropology and material studies It will therefore be of interest to a wide range of readers The Globalization of World Politics John Baylis,Steve Smith,Patricia Owens,2017 This title provides an introduction to international relations IR supporting over 300 000 students taking their first steps in IR and beyond

Teaching World Politics Lev S. Gonick,Edward Weisband,2020-01-29 In this volume scholars and teachers share ideas about new ways to teach history culture and theory as well as new topics such as gender information flows and discourse This book is the product of a series of roundtable discussions conducted under the auspices of the Annual Meetings of the International Studies Association At both the 1991 Meetings in Vancouver and the 1992 Meetings in Atlanta we were extremely gratified by the response to our roundtables on Teaching World Politics in the 1990s Foundations of National Power ,1957 The Greening of Sovereignty in World Politics Karen Litfin,1998 This is the first book to connect two important subfields in international relations global environmental politics and the study of sovereignty the state s exclusive authority within its territorial boundaries The authors argue that the relationship between environmental practices and sovereignty is by no means straightforward and in fact elucidates some of the core issues and challenges in world politics today Although a number of international relations scholars have assumed that transnational environmental organizations and institutions are eroding sovereignty this book makes the case that ecological integrity and state sovereignty are not necessarily in opposition It shows that the norms of sovereignty are now shifting in the face of attempts to cope with ecological destruction but that this greening of sovereignty is an uneven variegated and highly contested process By establishing that sovereignty is a socially constructed institution that varies according to time and place with multiple meanings and changing practices The Greening of Sovereignty in World Politics illuminates the complexity of the relationship between sovereignty and environmental matters and casts both in a new light Contributors Daniel Deudney Margaret Scully Granzeier Joseph Henri Jupille Sheldon Kamieniecki Thom Kuehls Ronnie D Lipschutz Karen T Litfin Marian A L Miller Ronald B Mitchell Paul Wapner Veronica Ward Franke Wilmer
