The Cambridge History of Modern European Thought:

Volume 2, The Twentieth Century Peter E. Gordon, Warren Breckman, 2019-08-29 The Cambridge History of Modern European Thought is an authoritative and comprehensive exploration of the themes thinkers and movements that shaped our intellectual world in the late eighteenth and nineteenth century Representing both individual figures and the contexts within which they developed their ideas each essay is written in a clear accessible style by leading scholars in the field and offers both originality and interpretive insight This second volume surveys twentieth century European intellectual history conceived as a crisis in modernity Comprised of twenty one chapters it focuses on figures such as Freud Heidegger Adorno and Arendt surveys major schools of thought including Phenomenology Existentialism and Conservatism and discusses critical movements such as Postcolonialism Structuralism and Post structuralism Renouncing a single master narrative of European thought across the period Peter E Gordon and Warren Breckman establish a formidable new multi faceted vision of European intellectual history for the global modern age The Journal of Education, 1919 Prostitution in

Twentieth-Century Europe Sonja Dolinsek, Siobhán Hearne, 2023-05-08 This book places prostitution at the very centre of European history in the twentieth century With its wide geographical focus from Italy to the USSR via Sweden Germany occupied Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia as well as the international stage of the United Nations this book encourages comparative perspectives which have the potential to question deconstruct and re adjust distinctions between western eastern northern and southern European historical experiences This book moves beyond exploring state regulated prostitution which was the dominant approach to managing commercial sex across Europe in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries State regulation combined police surveillance the registration of women selling sex or suspected of doing so and compulsory medical examinations for registered women as well as various restrictions on personal movement and freedom The nine chapters shift focus onto the decades after the abolition of state regulated prostitution well into the second half of the twentieth century to examine the ruptures and continuities in state administrative and policing practices following the end of widespread legal toleration The varied chronology extends the parameters of existing historiography and explores how states grappled to understand or impose control over the commercial sex industry following the far reaching social economic and political upheaval of the Second World War The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of European Review of History Readings in the Cantos Richard Parker,2022-07-01 The three volumes of Readings in the Cantos bring together in a ground breaking format a number of critical readings by world renowned scholars of the central modernist long poem The Cantos of Ezra Pound Each contributor approaches either a single Canto or a defined small group of Cantos in isolation providing a clear informative and interpretive reading that includes an up to date assessment of sources and an idea of recent critical approaches Together the contributors offer a remarkably diverse reading of The Cantos that at the same time demonstrates the coherence of Pound s text The Twentieth Century World Franklin Daniel Scott,Herbert D. Andrews,1959 Reading in History Bonnie Gunzenhauser,2015-10-06 A collection of essays that offer a methodological framework for the history of reading Focusing on a specific historical moment it gathers statistics about such issues as literacy rates library subscriptions publication and sales figures and print runs to answer questions about what was being read and by whom in a particular place and time A General History of Europe James Harvey Robinson,James Henry Breasted,Emma Peters Smith,1921 The United States Catalog Mary Burnham,Carol Hurd,1928
