Schwartz, 2013-03-14 In reflecting on this book and the process of writing it the most pervasive theme I find is that of confluence I drew much of the energy needed to write the book from the energy that resides at the confluence or nexus of contrasting ideas At the most general level the topic of arts subsidy offered a means of exploring simultaneously two of my favorite philosophical subjects aesthetics and politics The risk of a dual focus is of course that you do neither topic justice However the bigger payoff of this strategy resides in finding new and interesting connections between two otherwise disparate topics Developing such connections between art and politics led directly to many of the book's positive arguments for subsidy At a deeper level the book exploits a confluence of contrasting philosophical methodologies The central problem of the book politically justifying state support of the arts is cast in the Anglo American tradition of analytical philosophy Here normative arguments of ethics and politics are scrutinized with an eye toward developing a defensible justification of state action Yet while the book initially situates the subsidy problem within this analytical tradition its positive arguments for subsidy draw heavily from the ideas and methods of Continental philosophy Rather than adjudicating normative claims of ethical and political truth the Continental tradition aims at the hermeneutical task of interpreting and describing structures of human meaning      Blood, Soil and Art Marilyn Ekdahl Ravicz, 2006-06-13 The years immediately preceding World War II in Italy were full of social changes the phenomenal growth of Fascism and the confusing death of old ideas values and classes New dangers and challenges burgeoned until it seemed as if the frantic energy of a masquerade ball prevailed with everyone wearing fancy uniforms and dreaming of conquest In neighboring Germany the ranting and rampaging birth of Nazi ideas was followed by Hitler's lightning strike invasions of European neighbors These strikes were aimed to gain land and power change old ideas entrench and strengthen pure Aryan racially grounded Nazi values as well as destroy anything or anyone not compatible with the goals of the glorious Third Reich Aware that artworks embody ideals and educate people through their symbolic power the Nazis engaged in a multi faceted program dedicated to destroy all artworks inconsistent with their views and to substitute only art and architecture that idealized Aryan purity and Nazism To that end they developed organizations and programs built museums filled them with carefully vetted art outlawed all avant garde and non Aryan artists and proceeded to loot desirable artworks from occupied countries They then stored or displayed their loot in their palaces or museums as fodder for propaganda and self aggrandizement Hitler Goering and many other high ranking Nazi leaders were deeply involved with these efforts as well as the rewriting of history to conform to their putative glory through adopted symbols Meanwhile when the war continued to drag its bloody traces over occupied countries Italians discovered just how terrifying it was to be a Nazi ally Fascism faded as battles and air strikes continued and victories faltered for the Axis Italians suffered from a lack of life supporting supplies or shelter many youths and old men were conscripted into German work camps hungry and homeless refugees swarmed into the cities and partisans gathered in the hills ready to become guerilla warriors against the Nazis Slowly at first and hedged about with lies information about Nazi art thefts in other countries seeped into the consciousness of concerned Italians As they became increasingly worried about reports of forced sales and actual looting of Italys artistic heritage a small band of dedicated Italians self named the Salvatores made a pact to engage in a series of dangerous acts and subterfuges in order to hide Italian artworks in ricoveri and save them from German theft Because Florence was a center of much Renaissance art and architecture and because it did not have a Vatican in which to store artworks safely the Salvatores struggled on independently with their clandestine rescue efforts to inventory and hide artworks The little band comprised an odd group wealthy Duke di Bergolini his adoptive son Ortolani a castrato opera singer Ortolanis Benedictine brother two young women of talent two Tuscan museum officials who were art historians a few helpful Italians and even two German officials who became virtual double agents Against difficult odds and in the face death threats or potential seizure and torture they struggled and continued to inventory and shelter artworks to track their trails when stolen and to prevail until peace returned By August of 1944 after Mussolini was dethroned and German backed neo Fascism was only a Nazi puppet government it was apparent to everyone but the most rabid Nazis that Germany had lost the war Even then SS Officers and contingents from Gorings brigades loaded art from discovered ricoveri into trucks and drove them to northern Italy which was under complete German control and occupation The storage locations for the looted art were kept secret from the Italians until the war ended As the Allies approached the great city of Florence the withdrawing Nazis mined and destroyed some of the most precious medieval and renaissance buildings and bridges

America and the Art of the Possible Christopher Buskirk,2023-01-10 Between 1920 and 1950 America saw an unprecedented expansion of wealth and power underwritten by technological innovation cultural confidence and victory in war American elites won World War II rebuilt the world order with America at its head inaugurated the jet age and put a man on the moon The boom led to a larger richer middle class that confirmed America s best ideals By the early 1970s that ended American elites have captured a disproportionate share of the social and economic rewards over the last fifty years Meanwhile the middle class has shrunk in size and has become economically insecure owning a smaller share of national wealth than at any time in the nation s history This has happened even while most households have two income earners versus the single income households that characterized the period of shared prosperity At the same time technological innovation that improves people s standard of living has dramatically slowed These trends undermine the basic premise behind the broad acceptance of a meritocratic elite whose rule is predicated on the belief that if the best rise to the top their talent and energy will create a rising tide that lifts all boats We had that once We can have it again journalism They were more than a commodity produced for profit they offered serious reflection and commentary on the times designed by editors to have specific effects on the readers Images at War is a much needed study of this early news medium and its part in the construction of nationalism in the midst of war The Art of Studio Gainax Dani

Timothy Corrigan,2011-08 Why have certain kinds of documentary and non narrative films emerged as the most interesting exciting and provocative movies made in the last twenty years Ranging from the films of Ross McElwee Bright Leaves and Agnes Varda The Gleaners and I to those of Abbas Kiarostami Close Up and Ari Folman Waltz with Bashir such films have intrigued viewers who at the same time have struggled to categorize them Sometimes described as personal documentaries or diary films these eclectic works are rather best understood as cinematic variations on the essay So argues Tim Corrigan in this stimulating and necessary new book Since Michel de Montaigne essays have been seen as a lively literary category and yet despite the work of pioneers like Chris Marker seldom discussed as a cinematic tradition The Essay Film offering a thoughtful account of the long rapport between literature and film as well as novel interpretations and theoretical models provides the ideas that will change this The Art of Practicing Law: Talking to Clients, Colleagues and Others James M.
