Bullied Keith Berry,2016-04-28 In this examination of the ubiquitous practice of bullying among youth compelling first person stories vividly convey the lived experience of peer torment and how it impacted the lives of five diverse young women

Author Keith Berry's own autoethnographic narratives and analysis add important relational communication methodological and ethical dimensions to their accounts. The personal stories create an opening to understand how this form of physical and verbal violence shapes identities, relationships, communication, and the construction of meaning among a variety of youth. The layered narrative describes the practices constituting bullying and how youth work to cope with peer torment and its aftermath, largely focusing on identity construction and well-being. It addresses contemporary cyberbullying as well as other forms of relational aggression in many social contexts across race, gender, and sexual orientations. It is written in a compelling way to be accessible to students in communication, education, psychology, social welfare, and other fields. The Changing

Scope of Technoethics in Contemporary Society Luppicini, Rocci, 2018-04-13 In the modern era, each new innovation poses its own special ethical dilemma. How can human society adapt to these new forms of expression, commerce, government, citizenship, and learning while holding onto its ethical and moral principles? The Changing Scope of Technoethics in Contemporary Society is a critical scholarly resource that examines the existing intellectual platform within the field of technoethics. Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as ethical perspectives on internet safety, technoscience, and ethical hacking, communication, this book is geared towards academicians, researchers, and students seeking current research on domains of technoethics. School Bullying in Different Cultures Peter K. Smith, Keumjoo Kwak, Yuichi Toda, 2016-04-08

School bullying is widely recognized as an international problem, but publications have focussed on the Western tradition of research. A long tradition of research in Japan and South Korea, and more recently in mainland China and Hong Kong, has had much less exposure. There are important and interesting differences in the nature of school bullying in Eastern and Western countries, as the first two parts of this book demonstrate. The third part examines possible reasons for these differences: methodological issues, school systems, societal values, and linguistic issues. The final part looks at the implications for interventions to reduce school bullying and what we can learn from experiences in other countries. This is the first volume to bring together these perspectives on school bullying from a range of Eastern as well as Western countries. The

International Journal of Indian Psychology, Volume 3, Issue 3, No. 1 IJIP.In, 2016-04-20 This gives me an immense pleasure to announce that RED SHINE Publication Inc is coming out with its third volume of peer-reviewed international journal named as The International Journal of Indian Psychology. IJIP Journal of Studies is a humble effort to come out with an affordable option of a low-cost publication journal and high quality of publication services at no-profit, no-loss basis, with the objective of helping young genius scholars and seasoned academicians to show their psychological research works to the world at large and also to fulfill their academic aspirations. Delete Me: An Argument Against Facebook Ronald

Read, 2013-09-20 Delete Me: An Argument Against Facebook details how Facebook users are lured into using the network and then deceived into sharing large amounts of information about themselves and their contacts. This collection process raises a number of questions such as: how did Facebook get here? what role does it play in government and where is it headed? The text sets out to answer these questions and more for readers who may be interested in understanding what Facebook really is
