Why Everything That Doesn't Matter, Matters So Much Andi Ashworth,Charlie Peacock,2024-03-12 A hopeful and practical model for what it means to be a Christian and a culture maker in a world of hurt and wondrous possibility from multi Grammy winner Charlie Peacock and his wife and author Andi Ashworth Do you feel powerless and overwhelmed by the pain and suffering all around you Have you ever asked What can I do to mend the world my family or my own life And if I could why bother Does my own small part even matter If so here comes hope from two guides who are further down the road Charlie and Andi have written a collection of letters to Christians and spiritual seekers who think deeply and care acutely about the state of the world and their personal spheres of influence In Why Everything That Doesn t Matter Matters So Much beloved and trusted mentors Charlie and Andi offer you Thought provoking explorations into the many facets of Christian culture care and making from the kitchen to Carnegie Hall Practical guidance for how to care for and improve the quality of human life locally and globally no matter your vocation A theology of imagination and creativity that provides a framework for all of life A model for expressing love in marriage friendship citizenship and every kind of work even in the midst of cynicism fear exhaustion and oppression It might be said of Christians that our lives are either moving in the direction of the redemption Jesus has on offer or away from it Each of these letters is a gentle nudge in the direction of God s powerfully ordinary purpose for each of us no matter what the future holds to participate fully in the beautiful redemptive work of Christ

Twenty tales by twenty women: From real life in Chicago Anonymous,2023-07-10 In Twenty Tales by Twenty Women From Real Life in Chicago anonymous authors provide a rich tapestry of narratives that delve into the diverse experiences of women navigating the complexities of urban life The book employs a distinctive literary style characterized by vivid imagery and authentic dialogue which immerses readers in the personal histories and struggles of each protagonist The collection reflects contemporary themes such as identity resilience and community offering a poignant exploration of the multifaceted lives of women in Chicago This literary endeavor captures a cross section of society portraying both the intimate and the universal through the lens of real life experiences The anonymity of the authors invites readers to focus on the stories themselves rather than individual identities creating a powerful collective voice This approach is emblematic of a growing trend in literary circles where communal narratives challenge traditional story telling Likely influenced by their own experiences as women in a bustling city the authors weave tales that resonate with the struggles and triumphs faced by many thus transforming personal stories into broader cultural discussions Twenty Tales by Twenty Women is a compelling read for anyone interested in urban literature feminist narratives or the intricate dynamics of community This collection serves not just as entertainment but as an insightful commentary on the strength and diversity of women s lives in the cityscape of Chicago making it a must read for those seeking to understand and appreciate the voices of women today Real Love Jeanne McCann,2005-06 Rhea and Alicia s relationship is still new when they move from the protective environments of the city of San Francisco to the wilds of Australia Both women will be tested as an ex lover and the near death of one of them will make them question their commitment and love Will Rhea and Alicia walk away from their love or dig deep within their hearts to unearth the real love they both have for each other This struggle will involve family and friends as the two women learn what it takes to be a couple while becoming comfortable with their new life in Australia Doing Real-Life Change in Children's Social Care Jenny Lloyd,Rachael Owens,2025-03-31 All too often human systems are criticised for failing those they are meant to serve One example is the growing awareness of the overlooked needs of adolescents facing harm in their communities This has highlighted a need for new systems that enable practice that is ethical effective and grounded in supportive relationships But how can this be achieved Appealing to those interested in Contextual Safeguarding and beyond this book shares real life lessons from research covering Practical guidance and tools for changing systems using embedded methods Navigating complex relationships and emotions in organisational change and Using theory and concepts to support change The book s lively and creative style makes it accessible for researchers students professionals and anyone committed to system change in children s social care Holistic Nursing: A Handbook for Practice Barbara Montgomery Dossey,Lynn Keegan,2008-05-06 Narrative Care: Biopolitics and the Novel Arne De Boever,2013-03-28 If the September 11 terror attacks opened up an era of crises and exceptions of which we are yet to see the end it is perhaps not surprising that care has emerged in the early twenty first century as a key political issue This book approaches contemporary narratives of care through the lens of a growing body of theoretical writings on biopolitics Through close readings of J M Coetzee s Slow Man Kazuo Ishiguro s Never Let Me Go Paul Auster s The Book of Illusions and Tom McCarthy s Remainder it seeks to reframe debates about realism in the novel ranging from Ian Watt to Zadie Smith as engagements with the novel s biopolitical origins its relation to pastoral care the camps and the welfare state Within such an understanding of the novel what possibilities for a critical aesthetics of existence does the contemporary novel include      Real Life Heroes Richard Kagan,2016-12-13 Real Life Heroes Toolkit for Treating Traumatic Stress in Children and Families Second Edition is an organized and easy to use reference for practitioners providing therapy to children and caregivers with traumatic stress This step by step guide is an accompanying text to the workbook Real Life Heroes A Life Story Book for Children Third Edition and provides professionals with structured tools for helping children to reintegrate painful memories and to foster healing from traumatic experiences The book is a go to resource for practitioners in child and family service agencies and treatment centers to implement trauma informed resiliency centered and evidence supported services for children with traumatic stress      Caring for Liberalism Asha Bhandary,Amy R. Baehr,2020-12-29 Caring for Liberalism brings together chapters that explore how liberal political theory in its many guises might be modified or transformed to take the fact of dependency on board In addressing the place of care in liberalism this collection advances the idea that care ethics can help respond to legitimate criticisms from feminists who argue that liberalism ignores issues of race class and ethnicity The chapters do not simply add care to existing liberal political frameworks rather they explore how integrating dependency might leave core components of the traditional liberal philosophical apparatus intact while transforming other aspects of it Additionally the contributors address the design of social and political institutions through which care is given and received with special attention paid to non Western care practices This book will appeal to scholars working on liberalism in philosophy political science law and public policy and it is a must read for feminist political philosophers      Love and the Politics of Care Stanislava Dikova,Wendy McMahon,Jordan Savage,2022-11-03 This edited volume offers a contemporary rethinking of the relationship between love and care in the context of neoliberal practices of professionalization and work Each of the book s three sections interrogates a particular site of care where the affective political legal and economic dimensions of care intersect in challenging ways These sites are located within a variety of institutionally managed contexts such as the contemporary university the theatre hall the prison complex the family home the urban landscape and the care industry The geographical spread of the case studies stretches across India Vietnam Sweden Brazil South Africa the UK and the US and provides broad coverage that crosses the divide between the Global North and the Global South To address this transnational interdisciplinary field of study the collection utilises insights from across the humanities and social sciences and includes contributions from literature sociology cultural and media studies philosophy feminist theory theatre art history and education These inquiries build on a variety of conceptual tools and research methods from data analysis to psychoanalytic reading Love and the Politics of Care delivers an attentive and widely relevant examination of the politics of care and makes a compelling case for an urgent reconsideration of the methods that currently structure and regulate it      Global Advances in Human Caring Literacy Susan Lee,Patrick Palmieri,Jean Watson,2016-11-09 This narrative based work is the first to describe Human Caring Literacy from the perspective of caring scientists who live the life by incorporating the precepts of human caring into every aspect of their personal and professional lives It demonstrates for nursing students and experienced nurses in a variety of roles the abundant ways in which Caring Science Theory powerfully informs the lives of frontline clinicians nursing deans and faculty APRNs and administrators in the United States and globally The book goes beyond theory to illustrate how Caring Science is used every day in a variety of arenas and scenarios ranging from the advancement of the discipline of nursing in South America to peacemaking in the Middle East It describes the methods that help practitioners develop mindfulness reflection authentic presence intentionality and a caring consciousness in the service of providing authentic heart centered care for patients their families and societies Designed to cultivate loving kindness behaviors in all settings including among nurses themselves these narratives provide welcome alternatives to current ways of being both professional and personal Provides Examples of Caring Science Theory as a Guide to Advancing professional nursing practice in South America Transcending politics and conflict in the Middle East Evolving global caring consciousness through online education Developing nursing leaders who are heart centered and intentional Exploring relationships between caring and Ubuntu in South Africa Teaching through simulation to promote humanistic practice Key Features Provides real examples of living the theory Demonstrates the use of Caring Science in leadership practice research the healing arts education and praxis Illustrates practices that develop mindfulness reflection authentic presence intentionality and a caring consciousness Provides evidence of an evolving global caring consciousness on five continents
